Shopping Done Different

Why buy the ordinary when the extraordinary is everywhere?

We could tell you all about our nine malls (yes, you read that correctly). Or our specialty stores along the Parkway. Or the fact that we've got modern shops tucked away on streets straight out of the Old World. But what really sets shopping in Gatlinburg apart is that it's accessible, varied, and so unlike anything you've probably ever experienced. For the full experience, make sure to set aside some time while you're here to treat yourself to something you wouldn't find anywhere else in the Lower 48.

SHOPPING

Marketplace

The world is full of generic keepsakes and mementos. You can buy those any time, in any old place. While you're here, we encourage you to think bigger than the obvious. Take home a piece of history to pass on someday, or something hyper-local to stretch your visit beyond your physical presence. Places like the Ole Smoky Candy Kitchen and Savannah Bee Company are sweet gateways into the finer things you'll find in nearly every nook and cranny throughout our many shopping districts.

Our unique shopping doesn't stop at Parkway boutiques—it extends into the most commercial of spaces: the modern American mall. Our malls make a weekend out with the girls, or a weekend shopping for the guys, a rewarding experience in and of itself. Browse handcrafted leather goods from local artisans you can get to know by name, or jewelry made by third generation gemologists. Enjoy the European atmosphere of The Village Shoppes, or browse the charming shops of The Marketplace while you find the right special something for your special someone. Like we said, there's nothing ordinary about anything we do. And that goes for shopping, too.
