Anakeesta

Life's for Living

Seize the day on the Strip and beyond.

With one of the country's finest national parks in our backyard, adventure seems to find us more often than not. But that doesn't mean we don't like creating our own excitement here in Gatlinburg. We're constantly dreaming up new, unexpected ways to help people get in touch with their inner explorer and connect with the Great Outdoors.

Let's start with our plethora of theme parks. High above the clouds, Gatlinburg SkyLift Park dares visitors to summit Crockett Mountain and stroll across the longest pedestrian suspension bridge on the continent. Then there's Anakeesta—the whimsical, family-friendly wonderland host to the highest point in Gatlinburg, the longest tree-based skywalk in North America and the country's very first enchanted experience of its kind (see page 15 for more on this). Or if you have your heart set on hitting the slopes, we suggest Ober Mountain. After Thanksgiving, it's the only ski spot in the entire state of Tennessee! But, with "snowless" tubing, off-season ice skating, bumper cars and festivals in the spring and fall, you can also enjoy plenty of fun and games here year-round.

Scan for details.

Ripley's Aquarium of the Smokies

For those looking for a real rush, whitewater rafting might be more your speed. Rafting in the Smokies, Nantahala Outdoor Center (NOC) and Smoky Mountain Outdoors are just a few of the premier local rafting companies that have been helping adventurers of all ages take on the Pigeon River's class II-IV rapids. Need to slow it down? Keep heading downstream to reach calmer waters ideal for a scenic family float trip.

Not all fun is to be had outdoors, however. Ripley's Aquarium of the Smokies is one of our favorite spots to connect with our wild sides. Splash with the stingrays, sleep with the sharks or be wowed by over 10,000 exotic sea creatures—this state-of-the-art, interactive facility is a whale of a time no matter how you look at it.
