The Village

Time Well Spent

Shopping in Gatlinburg is a sure thing.

Sometimes you just need to step off the trail and into the air-conditioned confines of a shop. We get it. Luckily, our city is jam-packed with places to peruse at your leisure. Whether you head to the Great Smoky Arts and Crafts Community (see page 47), the outlets or the store-studded Parkway, the odds of you finding something worth making room in your suitcase for are pretty good.

You might not have something in mind when you set out, but that's no problem. Gatlinburg has the hook-up on a professional shopper's paradise. With 7 shopping malls and specialty stores galore, one can find the perfect gift or take-home souvenir for the outdoor enthusiast, eclectic collector, one-of-a-kind seeker, fashionista, and even the 4-legged best friend. Take a walk through the Village, home to 27 unique boutique-style specialty shops, not to mention an Instagram-worthy photo op at the iconic Village fountain. Gatlinburg's shopping scene has something for even the most begrudging shopper and sure to make any treasure-seeking excursion an exciting one.

Scan for details.

Stroll down the parkway to find niche stores of all varieties. From houseware, hiking gear, and homemade soaps to hand-carved signs and handmade treats and more – it's a melting pot of the brand-name and locally made, making for a memorable shopping experience in the mountains.
