Shop 'Til You Drop

A little retail therapy never hurt anyone.

Some of our visitors will happily spend their entire stay in the woods. For those of you who don't fall into that category, Gatlinburg boasts plenty of other spots to spend your time—and money—wisely. Along the Parkway, there are a plethora of places to pop in and out of, such as authentic Gatlinburg apparel, gifts and sweets shops to name a few. Then, there's The Village, an area that's host to 27 local boutiques, clothing stores and eateries to grab a bite or refuel with a cup of coffee. Want to shop with the possibility of a show? Venture over to the Gatlinburg Arts and Crafts Community where hundreds of talented artists have their one-of-a-kind creations on display and may even be doing a demonstration, if you're lucky. No matter if you have something specific in mind or are just in a browsing mood, we have a feeling you'll find exactly what you're looking for.

Marketplace Mall

The Village

Not all souvenirs are made to last. For those who prefer the edible sort, you're in store for a whole host of treats. From juicy caramel apples and decadent chocolates to homemade taffies and candies of all kinds, try as many as you dare or take some home to share! Either way, all it takes is a little shopping around to get your hands on a sugar fix you'll only find in Gatlinburg.
