

ATTRACTIONS & OUTDOORS

Our Strip is no tease—it's a city center that delivers.

We don't do boredom. We do rip-roaring, non-stop, full-throttle fun. Sure, we're surrounded by perfect places to zen out, but within city limits there's lots to do. So why not take advantage?

With its oddities, museums, and galleries galore, there's a strong case to be made for never venturing off The Strip (also known as the Parkway). Spend a day attraction-hopping from Ripley's Aquarium to the Hollywood Star Cars Museum to the iconic Space Needle towering 400 feet over the city. Test your hand-eye coordination at the Pinball Museum, challenge your bestie to a game of mini golf, or test your sleuthing skills at any of the unique escape rooms in town.

Ripley's Aquarium of the Smokies is like no other aquarium you have ever seen. Home to more than 10,000 species of exotic sea creatures, prepare to be amazed. Travel beneath the ocean on a 340 foot long glidepath through Shark Lagoon and come face to face with sharks, stingrays, sawfish and much more. And meet the cutest bunch of penguins this side of the South Pole in the Penguin Playhouse. Keep your eyes peeled, you might see a mermaid! If the mountains have you craving elevation and spectacular views, hop aboard the Ober Gatlinburg Aerial Tramway for a two-mile, high-altitude flight over the trees to Bavarian themed Ober Gatlinburg Ski Area and Amusement Park. Famously known for being Tennessee's only ski area in the wintertime, winter sports enthusiasts can ski and snowboard on 10 slopes and enjoy snow tubing and ice skating. Ober Gatlinburg transforms into a family friendly amusement park all the rest of the year.

Like we said, we don't do boring. And if you're planning a visit, you probably shouldn't either.

Ober Gatlinburg Aerial Tram

Anakeesta's AnaVista Tower

We're not sure who thought putting a theme park smack dab in the Smokies was a good idea, but we wholeheartedly agree. One visit to Anakeesta, and you will, too. Whether you choose to stroll the longest tree-based skywalk bridge in all of North America, admire over 3,000 plants, flowers, and sculptures in a botanical oasis, or take an exhilarating forest excursion (where you just might see a black bear), this mountain top playground has something for everyone.

If the SkyBridge isn't high enough for you daring souls, really rub elbows with the clouds by ascending Tulip Tower, also located within SkyLift Park. As you conquer each level of the 70-foot structure, you'll learn the story behind this steel behemoth before reaching observation platforms at the top that promise breathtaking bird's-eye views of the mountains and beyond.
