Pancake Pantry

Goodbye, diet. Hasta la vista, health.

This is not the time to watch your waist. It is not the time for restraint or spontaneous restrictions. This is a time for indulgence, extra helpings, and double dessert. From family-friendly fare to hole-in-the-wall haunts, our food and drink offerings are designed to ensure you slow your roll (mmm, rolls...) while you're here.

Get your day started right with a hearty breakfast and boy do we have options. Home to seven pancake houses, you can surely find a perfect stack. Or go for the breakfast sandwiches at Tennessee Jed's piled high with eggs, cheddar and thick cut ham just as the good Lord intended. Sustain your calorie coma with a late morning snack in The Village Shoppes. We recommend a made-from-scratch slice of cinnamon bread from The Donut Friar. That should hold you over for a while (if it doesn't, get a cruller to go).

When it comes to lunch and dinner, this town is practically bursting at the belt with options. Whole Earth Grocery offers healthy lunch options from vegan burgers to homemade chicken salad and hearty burrito wraps - only on Tuesday - so plan accordingly. And if the idea of cutting back on carbs has you crying into your cruller, we suggest Big Daddy's Pizzeria for some authentic pies that will render your calorie counter useless.

Turn the page for a sampler platter of our favorite eats. Bon appétit! The fasting can start next week.

Waffle De Lys

Walking the Parkway is a time-honored tradition that can burn some calories. If you're in need of fuel for the next game of mini golf or shopping excursion, Gatlinburg eateries offer a weary soul a dizzying array of choices. Internationally speaking (I'm talking French here) Gatlinburg has Authentic Belgian waffles and a walkup French Creperie that will have your taste buds crying "ooo la la!" Needing something heartier? Snag a Reuben at the Cheese Cupboard and Hofbrauhaus in The Village or a street style bratwurst from Fannie Farkle's. Don't forget to checkout Gatlinburg's newest restaurant - Guy Fieri's Chicken Guy! for chicken tenders that will make you question which came first... the "chicken or the egg?"

One way to impress your travel companion is by reserving a table at The Greenbrier - A Food and Spirits Outpost. This top-notch steakhouse touts chef-inspired menus for both food and libations. Speaking of which, order the Dylan (pictured here) for their take on an Old Fashioned that's anything but dated. Other spots to cook up some romance include Cherokee Grill, The Peddler Steakhouse, The Park Grill and, for dinner and a show, Blake Shelton's own Ole Red.
