

Clifftop at Anakeesta

Fill 'er up

Full bellies make the fun more satisfying

You're gonna work up an appetite while you're here. As well you should. Thankfully, there are loads of places to satisfy even the hangriest in your group. Snatch a home cooked meal from Mama's Chicken Kitchen or pack a lunch to go with provisions from Parton's Deli. And for those visiting for a special occasion (hello, newlyweds), there are plenty of more formal options to celebrate in style.

We also boast plenty of al fresco dining options that often come with a pretty nice view to boot. To satiate all your senses, check out places like Tom and Earl's Back Alley Grill, Alamo Steakhouse, and Loco Burro Rooftop Bar for outdoor dining at its best.

As always, use the guide to getcha where you need to be. And please, remember to tip your servers.

DINING

Pancake Pantry

The Park Grill

If you haven't been paying attention, you might not know that we've become a bit of a destination for burger geeks all over the country. So much so that in 2020, we launched our own burger celebration, aptly titled GatlinBURGER Week. For seven days, restaurants in town compete in the ultimate burger-making challenge, bringing their best off-menu gourmet burgers to a table near you for an everyday burger price. While you're here - for GatlinBURGER Week or otherwise - swing by any of our local restaurants where they're vying for top burger honors everyday. You be the judge. What is your favorite GatlinBURGER?

Is there anything more American than a big breakfast? Probably not. (Sorry, apple pie.) Around these parts, we specialize in all kinds of fixins', from fancy to the Far East, but there's just something special about waking up to crisp mountain air and cracklin' bacon. Breakfast is fuel for the day. Motivation to get out of bed. And just really good. Grab a seat at one of our many eating establishments that serve up a mean plate of morning grub, from Crockett's Breakfast Camp to the Little House of Pancakes to Flapjacks Pancake Cabin or the Log Cabin Pancake House (hmm...we're sensing a theme). Bring the little ones and the big ones and dig in to the day.
