Creature Comforts

Some mountain towns are all mountain and no town (but not us)

We've had 75 years to get good at welcoming people to the Smokies, but over double that as a community. That's given us a bit of an unfair advantage when it comes to building infrastructure 1,289 feet above sea level. These next few pages will tell you everything you need to know about who to turn to when it comes time to build your dream mountain home, where to buy extra fixins when there's an unexpected guest at the campfire, or even where to land your private plane.
