Gatlin's Emporium in The Village

SHOPPING

Master's Editions Village Gallery

You're gonna need a bigger bag.

Minnesota has the Mall of America, Los Angeles Rodeo Drive, Manhattan 5th Ave, and Chicago the Magnificent Mile. But as far as we know, you can't buy an old fashioned broom, dulcimer, or handmade troll in any of these world-famous shopping destinations.

You can, however, find these and all manner of unique goods throughout Gatlinburg. Around every corner, there's ample opportunity to connect with local makers and find something special to remember your trip by.

But no matter where you choose to spend (turn the page for our recommendations), there's about a zero percent chance you'll end your trip with nothing to show for it, and a pretty good chance of becoming the proud new owner of a troll.

Byrd's Famous Cookies

According to Cheapism.com, Gatlinburg is the shopping mecca of Tennessee.

They took a look at small towns that deliver big on shopping and we ranked at the top. It's no surprise to us. Gatlinburg has it all. Small specialty retail shops, mom and pop's, arts and crafts, galleries, winery and distillery tours, and eateries. If you can't find it, let us help you.

For a strategic approach to shopping, we suggest concentrating your efforts on these key locations: the eight-mile Great Smoky Arts and Crafts Community loop and the Parkway in Downtown Gatlinburg. On the loop, you'll find galleries and studios galore - all home to handmade keepsakes from over 100 local artists and craftspeople. Then make your way toward our city center and stroll the Parkway where you will discover boutiques, eateries and uniquely themed shops at our atypical take on a shopping mall. We have 9, but who's counting?
