

The main event

Gatlinburg's top attractions, at your fingertips

This is what you came for. The sights, the sounds, the gravity-defying thrills! Gatlinburg has it all, starting with an endless supply of outdoor adventure. From hiking and biking to soaring along a zipline, toes skimming the treetops, there are plenty of activities for all ages and abilities. There are towers that take you up to the clouds and scenic trails that keep you firmly grounded in nature; city parks for recreation on a smaller scale and the nearby national park to appreciate wildlife in epic proportions. We're in proximity to anything and everything to satisfy your inner explorer.

ATTRACTIONS & OUTDOOR

Even our indoor attractions encourage connection with the outside world. Take the aquarium, for instance. Housing more than 10,000 exotic saltwater and freshwater creatures, it's the perfect place to be wowed by wildlife and the modern wonder that is air conditioning. Then there are the museums and local shops that offer an authentic taste of Appalachian culture. Whether you visit a historic building, trail, or taffy shop, you're sure to develop a sense of place that helps you understand what makes Gatlinburg so special.

THE BEST VIEWS ARE THE ONES WE SHARE

Every ride tells a story—first dates, family adventures, quiet sunsets high above the Smokies. Join us as we celebrate decades of unforgettable moments on Gatlinburg's chairlifts.

Post your favorite photo or story with #GatlinburgLifts, and see your memories take flight alongside thousands of others.

LEARN MORE

The History of Gatlinburg's Chairlifts

Since 1954, Gatlinburg's skyline has been defined by its chairlifts—carrying visitors high above town and deep into the Smoky Mountain spirit.

The story began when local innkeeper Rel Maples partnered with ski pioneer Everett Kircher to build a scenic lift up Crockett Mountain. Using a refurbished chairlift from California, they opened the Gatlinburg SkyLift, the first year-round scenic chairlift in the South.

Over the decades, the SkyLift became a symbol of mountain adventure—a place where families made memories and couples found romance. After the 2016 wildfires, the lift was rebuilt stronger than ever, reopening in 2019 as part of the Gatlinburg SkyPark, complete with the SkyBridge and SkyDeck.

Today, Gatlinburg's chairlifts—from the SkyLift to Ober Mountain's Scenic Lift and Anakeesta's Chondola—continue to offer unforgettable views and timeless experiences.

From first rides to lifelong memories, the lifts remind us that in Gatlinburg, the best moments are the ones shared from above.

Let's get rafty →

Where to hit the river running

Ready to get the adrenaline flowing? Grab a raft and hit the Pigeon River! Here you'll find class III and IV rapids to rush you (and any brave companions you convince to join you) downstream. But there's no reason to be nervous—we have several premier rafting companies to help guide your exhilarating whitewater journey, whether you're a novice with an oar or a rafting regular.

Once you get the need for speed out of your system, head further downriver for a calmer ride. This is the sweet spot for tubing, taking in the scenery, and lazily floating afternoons away with the entire family in tow. But no matter if you take it fast or slow, any day on the river is well spent in our book.
