Pack your plate

The kind of cooking that makes you miss home

There are plenty of things you should remember to pack for a trip to the mountains. One thing we'll always tell you to bring? Your appetite. Gatlinburg is home to some of the finest comfort cooking this side of the Appalachians. Whether you're craving chicken and waffles, world-class barbecue, or our famous flapjacks, we promise you won't go hungry. But Southern food isn't all we're serving up. We've got Thai, tapas, and Tex-Mex, too. Even a new pizza joint that brings you pies in the traditional Brazilian style of serving! There's truly a flavor for every mood.

FOOD & DRINK

Did you save room for dessert? Because we sure did. Besides, Gatlinburg is home to some of the best sweets makers in the South. From old-fashioned candies and ice creams to hand-crafted caramel apples, there's no shortage of sugary treats to sink your teeth into. In fact, we've even begun a new annual holiday, Gatlinburg Sweet Week, to indulge in all of our favorite confections every February! If you've got a sweet tooth, start planning your visit.

FOOD & DRINK

February 21-28

Did you think we were done talking about food? We were just getting warmed up—much like every griddle in town, come Gatlinburg Pancake Week. It's that syrup-laden, seven-day stretch each year when our local pancake houses get to not only celebrate our flapjack-rich history but also prove to residents and visitors alike that we undoubtedly deserve our title of Pancake Capital of the South. Each eatery puts their own special spin on their stacks, but no matter where you grab a seat, we guarantee you're in for a breakfast fit for a lumberjack.

Participate on the Visit Gatlinburg app by visiting seven or more locations to win a Pancake Week Prize Pack!

PANCAKE WEEK

GATLINBURGER WEEK

September 11-18

If handhelds are more your speed, get a load of GatlinBURGER Week. For seven days every September, grillmasters at restaurants around town bring their best—one perfectly crafted patty at a time—with the hopes of being named the GatlinBURGER Meister. What's in it for you? Well, besides being able to try all of the chefs' unique, tempting creations, you can use the Visit Gatlinburg app to complete the GatlinBURGER Challenge. Just check in with the secret code from seven or more locations to earn cool prizes and vote for your favorite burger to be entered into the Grand Prize drawing! How delicious is that?
