2) LEAVE ON TIME. The show officially ends at 5pm, but due to the nature of the show and Brides meeting with vendors, You MUST stay at the show until 5:30pm or until dismissed via speaker announcement after the vendor awards. If you pack up before time Lake Granbury Conference Center will charge you $100.00 violation fee to card on file. Bathroom breaks, grabbing a drink at the bar and mingling with other vendors around you is allowed. (Initial here) _____

3) ACT LIKE AN ADULT. Be polite and courteous to Brides and her guests. If you are rude, pushy or unfriendly to brides at any time you will be banned from all future shows. If a bride isn't interested, say thanks for stopping by and let them move along. We are in the customer service and hospitality industry, be nice to others and we'll all have a good time. (Initial here) _____

4) BE INTERACTIVE. During the show, be willing to introduce yourself and explain to Brides who you are, what you do and ask for their business. If you sit behind your booth/table and don't try to earn a bride's business, then it is your own fault for not booking brides. (Initial here) _____

5) NO OUTSIDE SOLICITATION. If there are vendors who are visiting the show to see what we're about, they are not allowed to solicit any brides for their business. Swapping business cards with vendors is allowed. If an outside/visiting vendor is handing out their information or leaving their business cards in "convenient locations" for brides to pick up, then they will be immediately and politely thrown out of the show and banned from all future shows. If you witness this during the show at any time, please notify Jennifer Wood ASAP. (Initial here) _____

6) MUST HAVE INSURANCE and/or Food & Beverage Handler's License. ALL vendors attending the show must have business insurance; Caterers and food handlers must have their Texas Food and Beverage Handling License.
