VINTAGE ★ TEXAS

EXPERIENCE TEXAS CHARM

Welcome to Grapevine, the premier destination in North Texas! Our vibrant city is packed with year-round attractions, live entertainment venues, top-rated shopping and world-class dining - all within walking distance or a short shuttle ride away.

Shop Main Street's many boutiques to find that perfect Texas treasure. Visit local art galleries and try your hand at glassblowing or painting. Dine in the many restaurants, bistros and cafes that offer group-friendly dining and evening live entertainment. Grapevine is the epicenter of Texas wine culture, so take a stroll along the Urban Wine Trail and savor fine Texas wines from a variety of tasting rooms along and around Main Street.

Visit our newly developed Grapevine Main Station, which embraces our town's railroad past and echoes the grandeur of 19th century urban stations with its vintage-inspired architecture. The station's floor to ceiling windows offer views of the Grapevine Vintage Railroad and the new, technologically advanced Trinity Metro TEXRail® commuter train. Harvest Hall, housed within the station, is modeled after European dining halls and home to seven globally inspired scratch kitchens offering everything from classic Italian and Mediterranean to Latin fusion and Southern comfort cuisine. Enjoy live entertainment in Third Rail or at Hotel Vin's The Junction, behind Bacchus Kitchen + Bar.

Centrally located in the Dallas Fort Worth Metroplex, Grapevine offers easy access to area sporting events, entertainment and culture. Make Grapevine your home base for your DFW excursions.

Visit GrapevineTexasUSA.com and stop by the Grapevine Visitor Information Center at Grapevine Main Station for tips and resources – or just to say “hi!” We can't wait to meet you!

If you need some assistance or have a question, check in with the Grapevine Convention & Visitors Bureau. These friendly folks are ready to help you experience the best of everything during your stay. Contact them at 817.410.3185 or GrapevineTexasUSA.com.

William D. Tate, Mayor

IMAGINE

Sitting high atop Grapevine's Main Street on top of the Grapevine Convention & Visitors Bureau Headquarters is "Imagine," a winged unicorn, symbolizing action, dreams and wishes that come true. Across many cultures, the unicorn represents imagination flying free and that your dreams can come true. Grapevine is a destination where dreams come true. "Imagine" is positioned in the stance of taking off, symbolizing the beginning of new dreams and memories in Grapevine.

GLOCKENSPIEL CLOCK TOWER

Western lore comes alive daily when you see the story of the Would-Be Train Robbers played out atop the Glockenspiel Clock Tower on Main Street.

EXPERIENCE GRAPEVINE'S NEWEST ATTRACTION —

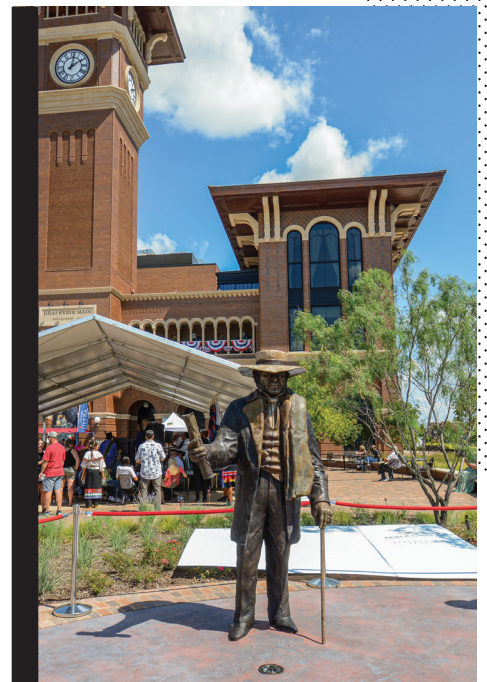

GRAPEVINE MAIN STATION

Opened to the public in April 2021, Grapevine Main Station is a $114 million, public/private sector, transit-oriented development project. Located at the intersection of Main Street and Dallas Road in Historic Downtown Grapevine, the 42,000 sq. ft. rail station consists of Harvest Hall, A European-style food hall with seven globally inspired kitchens; Third Rail, an indoor/outdoor entertainment and event venue; Peace Plaza at Grapevine Main Station, a 38,000 sq. ft. outdoor plaza; and a 150-ft. Observation Tower with 360-degree views of the city and beyond, all connected to Hotel Vin, a six-story, 120-room Marriott Autograph Collection property.

When guests enter Grapevine Main Station, reminiscent of the 19th century grand rail stations of America, they are greeted by the Grapevine Concierge Team located in the new home of the Grapevine Visitor Information Center, majestic 40-ft. ceilings, a colorful mural that pays homage to Grapevine's rich heritage, the seven kitchens of Harvest Hall, Third Rail, and the Observation Tower.

Peace Plaza at Grapevine Main Station is large enough to accommodate 3,500 guests, yet intimate enough to lose yourself in the feeling and romance of all that is Grapevine. This expansive outdoor space is home to the "Peace Circle" art display, with larger-than-life bronze sculptures depicting the 1843 peace treaty negotiation between then President of the Texas Republic, Sam Houston, and 10 American Indian Chiefs/Captains. It also includes a regular entertainment schedule.

Grapevine Main Station is the only brick and mortar building servicing the 27-mile Trinity Metro TEXRail commuter rail line and Grapevine Vintage Railroad.

THE ART OF THE MATTER

FROM ENGAGING PUBLIC ART TO WORKING ARTIST STUDIOS, GRAPEVINE IS BRIMMING WITH CREATIVITY.

BRONZE AGE

Some of Texas' most iconic bronze statues and memorials took shape at Grapevine Foundry (701 S. Main St.) in Historic Downtown, including the statue of President George H. W. Bush, Sr. outside the George Bush Presidential Library in College Station, the magical flying unicorn "Imagine" soaring over Grapevine's Main Street and "Peace Circle," depicting the 1843 peace treaty signing between Republic of Texas President Sam Houston and 10 American Indian Chiefs/Captains in front of Grapevine Main Station. All designed and cast by Foundry owner Linda Lewis Roark here in Grapevine. GrapevineFoundry.com

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION!

Experience the restored beauty of the Art Deco-style Palace Arts Center (300 S. Main St.). Two theaters make up the center: Palace Theatre, built in 1940, and Lancaster Theatre, built in 1930 as the Buckner Cash Grocery Store. Recognized by the National Register of Historic Places, the Center is the ideal spot to catch live performances, watch classic movies and explore Lancaster's gallery of local and regional art. 817.410.3541 | Palace-Theatre.com

SUPPORT LOCAL ARTISTS

What better way is there to remember your trip to Grapevine than with a local masterpiece? Giddens Gallery of Fine Art (624 S. Main St.) features works by more than 20 emerging and internationally acclaimed artists (817.488.8600. GiddensGallery.com). Other local galleries include A Touch of Paris Art Gallery, Grand Gallery, Tower Gallery and International Porcelain Artists Gallery. GrapevineTexasUSA.com/things-to-do/art-culture/art-galleries

ART ALONG THE TRAIL

The Grapevine Public Art Trail features more than 25 pieces of public art covering approximately six blocks throughout Historic Downtown and at other points throughout the city. Pick up a Public Art Trail walking guide at the Grapevine Visitor Information Center (815 S. Main St.) to start your journey. Highlights include "Coming Home," saluting veterans (701 S. Main St.), "Imagine," the winged unicorn (636 S. Main St.), and "Valor, Commitment and Dedication," also known as the 9/11 Flight Crew Memorial (1000 Texan Trail).

EXPRESS YOURSELF

Try your hand at making a creation! Get in touch with your inner artist and create your own unique glass art at Vetro Glassblowing Studio (701 S. Main St., Ste. 103, 817.251.1668, VetroArtGlass.com). Or head to Holder Dane Gallery & Art Studios at the Historic Cotton Belt Depot (701 S. Main St., Ste. 100, 817.488.6822, HolderDane.com) where you can get creative with classes and workshops in sculpture, photography, and more.

CHEERS!

HERE'S TO GRAPEVINE'S WINE CULTURE.

GRAPEVINE VINO HISTORY

Texas' history with wine goes all the way back to the 1660s when its first wine grapes were grown. Today, the Lone Star State is the country's fifth-largest wine producer. Smack in the middle of it all is Grapevine, headquarters of the Texas Wine and Grape Growers Association and home to GrapeFest®, the largest wine festival in the Southwest. Turn to page 11 for a complete guide to Grapevine's Urban Wine Trail.

WINE TOURS

Let someone else plan a day or evening of fun! Book a Grapevine Wine Tours shuttle bus or journey on foot with a Grapevine Food Tour. Both tours provide wine or craft brew tastings and lunch or dinner. You're guaranteed to love it!

GrapevineWineTours.com or GrapevineFoodTour.com

GRAPEVINE'S GHOSTLY PAST

Into ghost tours? Take a ghost tour with Grape Vine Springs Winery Night Watchman Ghost Tour, available Friday and Saturday evenings. This tour combines stories of hauntings, past and present, along with the history of the city.

SHOP TALK

FROM SWEET TREATS AND VINTAGE TREASURES TO TRENDY ACCENTS AND GLAM ACCESSORIES, GRAPEVINE HAS JUST WHAT YOU NEED.

DÉCOR AND MORE

If you're looking for that ideal décor item to take home, Grapevine has you covered. The consignment shop Kiss It Good Buy in Historic Downtown (201 E. Franklin St.), has it all—including the kitchen sink (817.481.9544, KissItGoodBuy.net), and Hole in the Wall (419 S. Main St.) has gifts and décor from snazzy and stylish to sparkly and seasonal (817.421.8999).

UNIQUE TREATS

Be sure to make a stop at The British Emporium (140 N. Main St.), where you'll find select imported groceries, British teas, biscuits, sweets, and more (817.421.2311, BritishEmporium.com). Got a sweet tooth? (417 S. Main St.) Dr. Sue's Chocolate is just what the doctor ordered (she is a practicing physician). Her shop features all-natural chocolates made from organic and house-made ingredients (817.416.7667, DrSuesChocolate.com). A trip to Grapevine just isn't complete without a visit to Rocket Fizz. From the nostalgic candies of your childhood to the favorites you crave today, no sweet tooth goes unsatisfied (817.421.8400, RocketFizz.com).

SHOP LOCAL

Historic Downtown Grapevine boasts more than 80 locally owned shops and boutiques. For upscale clothing, home products, jewelry and gifts, stop by Ashlins, Ltd. (413 S. Main St., Ashlins.com). They even offer personalized shopping services—just call 817.442.0400. And check out the latest fashions, Texas-themed jewelry, accessories and gifts at Texas General Store (406 S Main Street., 817.756.6476, TexasGeneralGrapevine.com).

BIG NAMES, BIGGER VALUES

High fashion at a high value can be had at the 180-plus stores of Grapevine Mills (3000 Grapevine Mills Pkwy.) where you can shop Saks Off 5th, Neiman Marcus Last Call, H&M, Michael Kors and more. Grapevine Mills is also home of the AMC Grapevine Mills 30 with Dine-In Theaters, LEGOLAND® Discovery Center, SEA LIFE Grapevine Aquarium, Peppa Pig World of Play, and FieldHouse USA (GrapevineMills.com). You'll find some of the biggest names in shopping at Grapevine Towne Center (State Hwy. 114 West and State Hwy. 26), from Target to Office Depot (GrapevineTowneCenter.com). And for the outdoor enthusiasts in your group, don't miss Bass Pro Shops Outdoor World (2501 Bass Pro Dr., 972.724.2018, BassPro.com).

LOCAVORES REJOICE! FARM-TO-FORK FINDS

If you're looking for fresh and organic produce or want to sample products by area vendors, stop by the Farmers Market of Grapevine. It's open daily year-round at the indoor location at 520 S. Main St. You can join the fun outdoors on Saturdays from April-October at 325 S. Main St. behind the Town Square Gazebo (FarmersMarketofGrapevine.com).

HISTORIC DOWNTOWN GRAPEVINE

Walking through Historic Downtown Grapevine is a history lesson in and of itself. Lovingly restored, the Historic District is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and highlights gems such as the Torian Cabin (201 S. Main St.), built in 1845 in the nearby community of Lonesome Dove, and a replica of the 1891 Wallis Hotel. Don't miss the Grapevine Pioneers program, which includes a passport to create take-home items and participate in a variety of 1800s skills and trades. From winery tasting rooms and boutiques to restaurants, Grapevine has all you need to help you through those marathon shopping days.

LIVING HISTORY AT NASH FARM

Nash Farm, the oldest farmstead in Tarrant County, became the Nash family homestead on the Grape Vine Prairie in 1859. Today, visitors can check out the historic structures at 626 Ball St. to experience daily Texas life as it was in the late 1800s. Monthly themed events help you learn heritage skills, and special events include Spring Into Nash, First Fridays at the Farm, Fall Round-Up and Victorian Christmas. 817.410.3558, NashFarm.org

RAILROADS IN GRAPEVINE

In 1888, the demand for cotton in Grapevine brought the railroad to town—including the Cotton Belt Route which ran until 1972. Today, visitors can step into the restored Historic Cotton Belt Depot (701 S. Main St.), which also serves as the ticket office for the Grapevine Vintage Railroad. From there, you have a chance to ride the vintage rails along the historic Cotton Belt Route. Special events include the Jazz Wine Trains, Kiss Me I'm Irish Express, Witches Brew Train, Day Out With Thomas™ and North Pole Express. 817.410.3185, GVRR.com

SETTLEMENT TO CITY MUSEUMS

In the Ted R. Ware Plaza (206 W. Hudgins St.), a collection of historic buildings give you a glimpse of what life was like in a 19th century commercial hub. Housed inside the replica of the Grapevine Ice Company, the Grapevine Historical Museum showcases the artifacts of Grapevine's past. The 1888 Keeling House Museum chronicles Grapevine's growth from pioneer settlement to world-class tourist destination. The 1900 Donald Schoolhouse pays tribute to educators past and present. The Cotton Ginner's Museum shows the era when cotton was king and features hands-on exhibits. Historically themed events are scheduled at the museums throughout the year. 817.410.3185, GrapevineMuseums.com

GLOCKENSPIEL CLOCK TOWER

Western lore comes alive daily when you see the story of the Would-Be Train Robbers played out atop the Glockenspiel Clock Tower on Main Street. The two 9-foot-tall animatronic characters appear several times daily at the top of the clock tower at 636 S. Main St. to commence what each believes to be the perfect heist. It's the perfect way to memorialize your Grapevine visit. 10 a.m., Noon, 2 p.m., 4 p.m., 6 p.m. and 8 p.m.

CELEBRATE THE HOLIDAYS IN GRAPEVINE

MILLIONS OF TWINKLING LIGHTS. LARGER-THAN-LIFE DECORATIONS. 1,400 EVENTS IN JUST 40 DAYS. IS IT ANY WONDER THAT GRAPEVINE IS THE CHRISTMAS CAPITAL OF TEXAS?

A-MAZE-ING ICE® SCULPTURES

For an indoor wonderland, head to Gaylord Texan Resort (1501 Gaylord Trail), where many holiday activities, including ICE! run from mid-November through early January. The holiday spectacular features two million sparkling lights, 15,000 ornaments, a 54-foot-tall Christmas tree and more. ICE! is a maze of ice sculptures carved from two million pounds of (what else?) ice, with a fun new holiday theme every year. Be sure to take your photo with the signature big blue parka! 817.778.1000 | GaylordTexan.com

HOLIDAY LIGHTS

There's plenty of magic in Historic Downtown Grapevine as it comes alive for the festive season. The celebration begins in late November on Main Street in front of City Hall for the Carol of Lights. Watch as Grapevine Mayor William D. Tate flips the switch and downtown lights up with sparkle and shine. The evening features live music, fireworks and festivities. The following week, downtown hosts the Parade of Lights down Historic Main Street, showcasing floats, marching bands and Santa Claus. On the first Saturday in December, Lake Grapevine lights up with the merriment of the Twinkle Light Boat Parade. See an assortment of watercrafts festooned with sparkling lights celebrating the festive season as they make their way from Twin Coves Marina past Scott's Landing and Silver Lake Marina. Watch for free from the shores of Lake Grapevine.

GRAPEVINE'S CHRISTMAS HERITAGE

Christmas has long been a cherished time in Grapevine. On the first Saturday in December, discover the tradition at Nash Farm's Victorian Christmas (626 Ball St.). Experience a Texas heritage Christmas where you can sip cider, nibble cookies and see how Grapevine's earliest settlers celebrated the holidays. Make your own Victorian ornaments to take home (NashFarm.org). Feel the magic of Christmas throughout the season as you bustle along the sidewalks in Historic Downtown Grapevine. There's shopping for everyone on your list in one of more than 80 locally owned shops.

SANTA SIGHTINGS

Santa is a regular visitor in Grapevine during the holiday season. Some of his favorite photo spots include the General Store in the North Pole Express' Christmas Village (705 S. Main St.), Gaylord Texan Resort (1501 Gaylord Trail), Good Things for All Seasons (334 S. Main St.), Grapevine Mills (3000 Grapevine Mills Pkwy.) and Bass Pro Shops (2501 Bass Pro Dr.). Have your camera ready – Santa's not shy!

One of the most unusual Santa sightings in Grapevine is at SEA LIFE Grapevine Aquarium (3000 Grapevine Mills Pkwy.). Throughout the holidays, catch Scuba Diving Santa hanging out in the 160,000-gallon ocean tank with fish, sharks and sea turtles! 877.819.7677 | VisitSeaLife.com/Grapevine

INSTAGRAM FRIENDLY

Grapevine during the holidays is the perfect Instagram backdrop. Historic Downtown is filled with twinkling photo ops including Liberty Park (215 S. Main St.), Christmas Tree at the Town Square Gazebo (325 S. Main St.), North Pole Neighborhood (705 S. Main St.) and the Grapevine Convention & Visitors Bureau Headquarters (636 S. Main St.).

FESTIVE ENTERTAINMENT

Head to the Palace Theatre (300 S. Main St.) for live performances by Ricki Derek, Kraig Parker and many other musical acts, as well as a selection of holiday classics throughout the season, such as “White Christmas” and “It’s a Wonderful Life” on the theater’s big screen.

817.410.3100 | Palace-Theatre.com

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

The shops of Historic Downtown Grapevine get in the holiday spirit with the annual window display contest. While picking up gifts for family and friends, do a little window shopping and choose your favorite festive boutique!

HOLIDAY CHEER

Toast the holidays on board the adult-only Christmas Wine Train (705 S. Main St.). During the two-hour ride on the Grapevine Vintage Railroad, guests enjoy hors d’oeuvres and wine while celebrating the season. This is only held two nights during the holidays, so rides sell out quickly. Guests must be 21 or over.

817.410.3185 | GrapevineTexasUSA.com/Christmas

LET'S GET FESTIVE!

AN INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL AND EVENTS DESIGNATED CITY, GRAPEVINE CELEBRATES WITH EVENTS YEAR-ROUND.

JAZZ WINE TRAINS

Step aboard the Grapevine Vintage Railroad for a night of music and wine during the Jazz Wine Trains each spring. The 21+ event features wine, heavy hors d'oeuvres and live jazz.

NEW VINTAGE WINE AND GALLERY TRAIL & BLESSING OF THE VINES

Celebrate the beginning of a new grape growing season at the annual New Vintage Wine and Gallery Trail & Blessing of the Vines, held each April, with wine and food samplings at participating winery tasting rooms.

SPRING INTO NASH

Celebrate the arrival of spring at Spring Into Nash each year at Grapevine's Historic Nash Farm (626 Ball St.). Guests explore Texas heritage and life on a farm during the 19th century. The event features heritage toys, gardening, tractor-drawn wagon rides, demonstrations and more.

MAIN STREET FEST – A CRAFT BREW EXPERIENCE

Taking place in Historic Downtown Grapevine, Main Street Fest – A Craft Brew Experience, coincides with American Craft Beer Week in May. Festival-goers celebrate craft brew while sampling new and limited releases from local, regional and national breweries not available anywhere else. And don't worry wine lovers. We've got you covered with tasting areas, including Premium Wine Pavilions with wines from across the U.S. and the Grapevine Wine Pavilion, which serves up the flavors of Grapevine's own tasting rooms.

GRAPEFEST® – A TEXAS WINE EXPERIENCE

Toast the wines of Texas, the U.S. and the world during this four-day festival held each September in Historic Downtown Grapevine. There's so much to do during GrapeFest! The ever-popular People's Choice Wine Tasting Classic is the largest consumer-judged wine competition in the country. Liberty Park Plaza highlights wines from different regions around the world. You can try your hand (actually, feet) in the competitive GrapeStomp. Enjoy live entertainment on multiple stages along Main Street. Sample delicious festival food and shop the wares of artisans and merchants on Main Street. Don't forget the bubbly excitement at the Champagne Cork Shoot-Off or relax in the Champagne Terrace. There's even a Carnival Midway!

BUTTERFLY FLUTTERBY

One of the most colorful spots for celebrating fall is the Grapevine Botanical Gardens (411 Ball St.), especially in mid-October for the annual Butterfly Flutterby. Each year, monarch butterflies migrate through Grapevine on their trek south. The celebration includes a Fall Plant Sale, Butterfly Costume Parade, crafts, exhibits, games. Children help release 700 tagged Monarchs throughout the day. Admission is free.

FALL ROUND-UP

Fall is the perfect season to head out to Nash Farm (626 Ball St.) for the annual Fall Round-Up. Held in mid-October, activities include leather working, wagon rides, a pumpkin patch, cooking demos, and a Monarch release in coordination with Butterfly Flutterby.
