CHEERS!

Grapevine's Urban Wine Trail (self-guided or DMC* coordinated) - Grapevine is home to a vibrant and growing urban wine trail which features daily wine tastings and special events throughout the year. From strong and bold Texas reds to crisp and clean Texas whites, you'll find a variety of favorite taste sensations. Texas is the fifth largest wine-producing state in the U.S.

(1) Bingham Family Vineyards - Is pleased to bring their first wine tasting room to Grapevine, Texas. Since 1992, Cliff and his wife, Betty have served as pioneers in the Texas organic cotton and peanut markets and diversified their farming operations in 2003 by planting grape vines. The Bingham family currently own or manage over 200 acres of wine grapes in the Texas High Plains American Viticultural Area. 682.651.8668 binghamfamilyvineyards.com

(2) Cross Timbers Winery - Located in the historic Dorris/Brock home, one of the oldest structures in Grapevine and surrounded by centuries-old Oak and Pecan trees, the outdoor facilities feature a relaxed setting to enjoy wine tastings. The staff can share stories of Grapevine's history as well as winemaking. The historic barn, patio, gazebo or tasting rooms are perfect for special events. 817.488.6789 crosstimberswinery.com

(3) Delaney Vineyards & Winery - This French-style chateau has a 10-acre vineyard and tasting room where participants can tour and learn about winemaking from the vine through the bottling process. The crush pad which overlooks the vineyard, is a delightful setting for a luncheon or picnic. 817.481.5668 delaneyvineyards.com.

(4) Grape Vine Springs Winery - Make and bottle your own wine, complete with a commemorative label. When speaking with the winery staff, ask about adopting an "orphan batch of wine" and how to develop your own label in time for the bottling event. This way, each participant will have a souvenir from their bottling experience. This activity requires advanced reservations. 817.329.1011 grapevinespringswinery.com

(5) Messina Hof Grapevine Winery - Located in the replica of the Wallis Hotel and offering a cozy 19th century environment, Messina Hof Winery is one of the most highly regarded and awarded Texas wineries.
