VISITOR CONCIERGE OF THE MONTH

Rachel Devereaux

Hello! My name is Rachel Devereaux. I am excited to be a part of the City of Grapevine. I have lived in the Grapevine/Colleyville area for over 20 years but have been in the Dallas Fort/Worth area for almost 30 years. As a graduate of TCU, I followed my passion as an event planner to Southwest Airlines where I worked for 10 years handling sponsorships and events across the country. I love to travel and enjoy immersing myself in the culture wherever I go. I left Southwest in 2006 to pursue my dream job of being a mom to two awesome girls. My husband of 23 years and I have enjoyed watching our daughters grow and find their own passions in life. I am excited about the new opportunities I will get to experience working for the City of Grapevine.

GRAPEVINE MAIN STATION & TOWER TOURS

THE WOULD-BE TRAIN ROBBERS

To see the much-talked-about Would-Be Train Robbers in Grapevine, you have to look up. About 75 feet high, to be exact, to the Grapevine Glockenspiel on the corner of Main and Hudgins streets. The story of the Grapevine Glockenspiel includes a Texas twist in the tale of Would-Be Train Robbers Nat Barrett and Willy Majors. It's 1890 and both characters have come to Grapevine to rob the train. When they meet up in the saloon and discover they both have the same plan, a gunfight ensues. What Nat and Willy learn is that crime doesn't pay. Each day at 10 a.m., Noon, 2 p.m., 4 p.m., 6 p.m. and 8 p.m., these two characters emerge from the Glockenspiel tower to perform.

RIDE THE RAILS

The Heartland Flyer offers service between Oklahoma City and Fort Worth and Texas Eagle offers service between Chicago and L.A. with stops in Dallas, Fort Worth, Austin, San Antonio, El Paso and many small cities. ## B & D MILLS

A flour mill, constructed in 1902, was bought by Kirby Buckner and W.D. “Bill” Deacon in 1933. They converted it to a feed manufacturing complex. Edna and Bill Deacon raised poultry first at their farm and later in the back room hatcheries of their two feed stores on Main Street. The business continued to expand and the manufacturing tower, containing Texas’ first electronic feed mixing system, was erected on this site in 1950. The unique single-row concrete bulk warehouse is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Coming Home

705 S. Main St.

This two-piece bronze sculpture created by artist Michael Pavlovsky depicts a soldier returning from service to a loving embrace. The arch bears symbols of military branches of service and faiths.
