THE WOULD-BE TRAIN ROBBERS

To see the much-talked-about Would-Be Train Robbers in Grapevine, you have to look up. About 75 feet high, to be exact, to the Grapevine Glockenspiel on the corner of Main and Hudgins streets. The story of the Grapevine Glockenspiel includes a Texas twist in the tale of Would-Be Train Robbers Nat Barrett and Willy Majors. It's 1890 and both characters have come to Grapevine to rob the train. When they meet up in the saloon and discover they both have the same plan, a gunfight ensues. What Nat and Willy learn is that crime doesn't pay. Each day at 10 a.m., Noon, 2 p.m., 4 p.m., 6 p.m. and 8 p.m., these two characters emerge from the Glockenspiel tower to perform.

HERITAGE TRAIL

Take a walk through the past from The Cotton Belt Depot to Settlement to City Museums! See how the original settlers on the Grape Vine Prairie lived and worked. This collection of historic sites and museums highlights the cultural and family life of early Grapevine residents and explores how technology helped transform the prairie into the city we now enjoy.

Museums are open Saturdays and Sundays from 10 a.m.–4 p.m. Located at 206 W. Hudgins St.

Lone Star Hi-Railers Model Train Exhibit

Come see the spectacular O-gauge model railroad layout in the Grapevine Railyard built inside an actual historic baggage car. The enormous burgundy and silver baggage car, originally built by the Pullman Company for the Lackawanna and Western Railroad, is on static display behind the #771 Baldwin Mikado 2-8-2 steam engine.

The 65-foot-long model train layout will take you back to the 1950s when children operated model trains in their homes. You will see scale reproductions of iconic Grapevine structures, modern West Texas wind turbines, an operating turntable, a giant mountain inspired by an actual West Texas mountain, working oil wells and a period Main Street with working trolleys.

Open Saturdays, 10 a.m.–4 p.m. and Sundays, Noon–3 p.m.

ART AND CULTURE

GRAPEVINE PUBLIC ART TRAIL

Sidewalk Judge

One Liberty Park Plaza

A friendly face and popular photo spot on Main Street, the Sidewalk Judge sits in front of the Wallis Hotel Building which now houses Messina Hof Winery & Tasting Room (at the corner of Main and Texas). It's said he uses his keen observation skills to "size up" folks around town. Sit with the Judge and take our photo. The Judge was created by J. Seward Johnson Jr.

ART GALLERIES

Discover art in the heart of Grapevine's Historic Main Street District. Walk the public art trail and experience Grapevine's bronze sculptures, art galleries, working fine arts studios and creative crafting stores. Hours vary by gallery:

- Giddens Gallery of Fine Art
- Grapevine Foundry & Gallery
- Holder Dane Art Gallery & Studio
- Vetro Glass Blowing Studio
- International Porcelain Artists Museum
- Palace Arts Center
- Tower & Grand Galleries
- Touch of Paris Art Gallery

SPECIALTY SHOPS

Brew & Batter—Locally owned Brew & Batter is located inside a small, stand-alone house. They have a waffle menu that changes monthly, so there is always something new to try. They offer two waffle bases, one is cornbread and the other is liege waffle, more of a European waffle, made in-house daily! All of their drinks come with an oat milk base, but oat milk alternatives are also available. They use White Rock and Eiland coffees for their espresso and drip respectively. Brew & Batter is open daily, 8 a.m.–5 p.m. 106 E. Texas St. 817-410-2739

GRAPEVINE FARMER'S & ARTISAN'S MARKET

The Grapevine Farmers and Artisan Market is an open-air market, located at the Town Square Gazebo at 325 S. Main St. in Historic Downtown Grapevine. The market offers fresh Texas produce, baked goods, handcrafted and Texas-made items. It is a great place to bring the whole family, learn about Texas products and shop local!

Saturdays, April–September 10 a.m.–4 p.m.
Town Square Gazebo, 325 S. Main St.

GRAPEVINE URBAN WINE TRAIL

FEATURED WINERY TASTING ROOM

Bingham Family Vineyards—Bingham Family Vineyards is pleased to bring their first wine tasting room to Grapevine, Texas. Since 1992, Cliff and his wife, Betty have served as pioneers in the Texas organic cotton and peanut markets and diversified their farming operations in 2003 by planting grape vines. Together with their children, the Bingham family currently own or manage over 200 acres of wine grapes in the Texas High Plains American Viticultural Area. Stop by and experience the latest addition to the Grapevine area. 620 S. Main St. | 682-651-8668 | BinghamFamilyVineyards.com
