PONCA CITY

Oil Barons and Palaces

The magnificent Marland Mansion is the crown jewel in Ponca City. This 55-room mansion was built by oil tycoon E. W. Marland during the oil boom days of the 1920s. It is exquisitely furnished and has been recognized as one of America's castles. Marland's first home, the Grand Home, is also available for touring with an American Indian Museum on the second floor showcasing a diverse collections of Native American Indian artifacts focused on the north central tribes of Oklahoma: Ponca, Osage, Otoe-Missouri, Kaw, Pawnee and Tonkawa. In addition, the museum exhibits items from the Great Plains and Northwest and Southwest tribes. There are over 1,200 artifacts in the historic collection representing the lives of American Indian men, women and children.

Learn the story of area tribes at the Standing Bear Museum, which also boasts a beautiful park and memorial watched over by a very large bronze statue of Chief Standing Bear. Other Ponca City attractions include the Pioneer Woman Museum, the Conoco Museum, and the Poncan Theatre, which has been completely restored to its original glory and displays the largest collection of 1930s, hand-painted lobby art in the world.

There is no shortage of entertainment in the Ponca City area where several casinos feature high-stakes gaming, day and night. Popular annual events include the Draggin' Grand Car Show in June and the Festival of Angels during the holiday season. Ponca

PONCA CHIEF STANDING BEAR -
STANDING BEAR PARK, PONCA CITY

City's Rock'n It is a gift shop offering an overall educational experience with a black light room, indoor cave and sluice system, fairy garden, apothecary demonstrations, geode cracking, and mineral identification.

Championship barbecue can be found at Danny's BBQ Headquarters, home of the famous "Head Country" barbecue sauce. Get off the beaten path at The Rusty Barrell Supper Club where entry can only be gained after ringing a doorbell. Located within the Ponca City Municipal Airport, Enrique's Mexican Restaurant is another great option where the view - and food - can't be beat.

Tallgrass Prairie and Western Charm

For a taste of the Old West and a deep dive into Native American culture, Pawhuska is the place to be. The Osage Nation is headquartered here, and the town is surrounded by rich ranch land – a notable one is home to the Pioneer Woman Ree Drummond, of Food Network fame, so you won't be able to resist dining at The Mercantile to taste some of the scrumptious menu offerings. Of the ninety-eight buildings downtown, eighty-six are listed on the National Register of Historic Places. And The Osage Nation Museum is the oldest tribally operated and owned museum in the country.

Pawhuska also supports its rich history and culture through annual events such as the National Indian Taco Championship where you can experience traditional Native American dance, not to mention delicious native food, and The Cavalcade, the world's largest amateur rodeo. During the Cattleman's Convention, you can experience authentic "cowboy life" with a ranch tour.

You can also "shop 'til you drop" for authentic Native American items that include art, bead work, shawls, and so much more. There are plenty of shops offering western wear and items; and that's not all – in Pawhuska, there is something for everyone. You can spend an entire day shopping at stores such as Saltcreek Marketplace, Gypsy Cowgirl, Mudpies², Spurs and Arrows, Sister's Attic, Prairie Cottage, Sunset Ridge Gallery, and The Waterbird Gallery - a Native American (citizen of the Osage Nation) woman owned business. The Water Bird Gallery captures the beauty of Native American artisans through its bead work, fans, shawls, and other items throughout the store. See pages 9 and 10 for more information.

Just north of Pawhuska, drive through the Tallgrass Prairie Preserve with its protected ecosystem, the largest remnant in North America. Don't miss this opportunity to see bison grazing, three hundred species of birds and other wildlife along this scenic drive. Nearby lakes and a state park make this area a "must do".

PAWNEE

Pawnee Bill & the wild, wild West

The small community of Pawnee has two big claims to fame: Pawnee Bill, who established a famous Wild West Show, and Chester Gould, who created the popular comic strip Dick Tracy. At the Pawnee Bill Ranch & Museum - on the western edge of Pawnee, Oklahoma, atop Blue Hawk Peak - visitors will see a treasure trove of historical items, as well as roaming bison and long-horn cattle. Pawnee Bill's Wild West Fest is the historical recreation of the famous show. The annual event is in June and includes trick roping, riding, and shooting, wild West rides and plenty of activities to keep everyone entertained.

Downtown Pawnee is charms with century-old native stone buildings, unique shops and outstanding eateries. A giant mural of Dick Tracy guides visitors to the Pawnee County Historical Society Museum where many pieces of the comic strip are on display. A birthday celebration in Gould's honor is held each October.

More history is featured at the annual Oklahoma Steam Threshing & Gas Engine Show each May held at Steam Park Grounds. Exhibits and displays include gas and Corliss steam engines, shingle and saw mills, wheat threshing, power pulls and climbs, crafts and handmade items.

Enjoy shopping one-of-a-kind stores such as Hurricane Dixie Leather, and Spears Furniture. When hunger strikes, visit Click's Steakhouse for friendly service and mile high pies.

PAWNEE BILL RANCH

Explore the myth, the legend and the reality of Pawnee Bill at his ranch and home in Pawnee, Oklahoma. See the mansion, artifacts, art, memorabilia, live buffalo, Longhorn cattle, and Clydesdale horses on one of Oklahoma's most beautiful historical working ranches.

SANDSTONE HILLS

Cleveland, Pawnee, Ralston, Hominy, Fairfax, Mannford, Yale

This region of central Oklahoma spans three counties and numerous cities, and is filled with historic sites, lakes, plains, and fun activities for everyone. Keystone Lake and the Arkansas river offer fishing and outdoor activities like hiking, horseback riding, ATV trails, camping, and nature watching. The towns of Ralston and Fairfax were chosen for filming scenes of Killers of the Flower Moon, a novel which has been made into a movie and based on tragic events from the area. The Ralston Opera House was built in 1902 and provided the area with live entertainment and silent movies until 1927.

DEWEY

19th Century Charm

With all the appeal of a rugged cowboy town, the charm of Victorian architecture and the hip local flavor of microbreweries and boba tea, the town of Dewey welcomes visitors to experience its unique blend of history and trendiness. Whether you are an Old West buff in search of authentic attractions or have a young family ready to explore festivals and car shows, Dewey invites you to come join the fun.

Western Heritage Day is celebrated in the fall with food trucks, merchandise stands, activities for the kids, and more. You won't want to miss the Longhorn cattle strolling through downtown Dewey in the celebration parade.

Walk in the footsteps of Tom Mix, the beloved star of silent Western movies, and browse collections of his belongings and memorabilia at his namesake museum in the town where he once served as marshal. Across the street you can explore the beautifully restored, Victorian-style Dewey Hotel which now serves as a museum. Make your way through three floors and 31 rooms filled with authentic antique furnishings as you marvel at this charming glimpse into turn-of-the-century hospitality.

WESTERN HERITAGE DAY PARADE - DEWEY

Dewey is known as a shopping hot spot in the region, especially for antique aficionados. Discover treasures in antique stores and one-of-a-kind boutiques such as Mimi's Antique Market and Vintage Loft. The Antique and Collectibles Association hosts the Annual Dewey Antique Show in town the first Saturday of June with 100+ booths and dealers from 6 states.

During your explorations stop by Sippin Sweet Co. for a refreshing boba tea with tapioca pearls made fresh every five hours in a variety of flavors. Treat yourself to a goodie from the bakery or a bistro meal to round out your experience.

Dewey is ... Family Fun!

Antique and specialty stores will keep you shopping for hours. Take the family to visit the Tom Mix Museum, Dewey Hotel Museum, and Prairie Song Pioneer Village.

SKIATOOK

The City of Skiatook is just minutes from Tulsa's historic downtown district. Enjoy a central retail corridor consisting of a five mile stretch of State Highway 20 that dissects the community and offers shopping, dining, and fun for the entire family. The area's main destination is beautiful Skiatook Lake, which boasts 10,190 surface acres and 160 miles of shoreline. Thousands of people visit each year to swim, boat, hike, camp and connect with nature. Hunters have access to 1,800 acres of project land, and fishing enthusiasts will marvel at the ample populations of sport fish including largemouth bass, small-mouth bass, hybrid striped bass, crappie, channel catfish and bluegill, as well as drum, carp, and buffalo. Skiatook is also a popular sky diving area.

There is plenty of shopping and you won't want to miss Cowboy and Cactus Company for cowhide rugs, jewelry, and clothing. The Antique Depot is an area favorite for one-of-a-kind items, antiques, and collectibles. Sausage Brothers is a great meat market and offers high quality smoked meats and more. Stop by the Skiatook Museum to learn more about the regions history.

SKIATOOK MUSEUM

If all that shopping has worked up an appetite, then you are in luck. Mac's Barbeque offers some of the most mouth-watering, tender barbeque in the state. Grab a bottle or two of their delicious sauce before leaving, and don't forget dessert. Visit the Boars Nest for a cold one and take a picture on JD Hog for the perfect bragging rights.

GROVE on Grand Lake O' The Cherokees

A Happening Little City on the Shores of Grand Lake

When you're ready for a lake getaway, the town of Grove can't be beat. Nestled on the shores of Grand Lake, Grove offers the best of boating and outdoor recreation complimented by fabulous attractions, shopping, dining, and nightlife including two casinos. Catch one of the many local festivals like the popular Pelican Festival to add to the fun of your visit.

Head to Har-Ber Village where the whole family will enjoy exploring a pioneer-era village of historic log cabins filled with an amazing array of artifacts. Get a glimpse of early day businesses like a dental office and a bank, as well as buildings containing antique collections of everything from dolls to dishware to telephones. You can also watch artisans demonstrate skills and crafts like blacksmithing, broom making and weaving on many weekends.

Wander the beautifully landscaped pathways of Lendonwood Gardens where you'll find over 1,400 plant species including over 500 species of day lilies putting on a dazzling display in various seasons. Spot the koi from the Japanese pagoda above the pond and spend some quiet reflection time gazing at flowers, trees, and statuary from gorgeous nooks throughout the gardens.

Animal lovers will want to be sure and visit Oasis Animal Adventures in nearby Disney, OK to meet, cuddle and learn about a whole menagerie of exotic animals. Kiss a camel, cuddle a kangaroo, hold a bearded dragon, and meet lemurs, a spider monkey, zebras, and many more friendly critters. These individually tailored visits provide many photo ops and a lifetime of lasting memories.

ROUTE 66 FESTIVAL - VINITA

VINITA - Historic Route 66

Get your kicks on Route 66 in Vinita where America's Main Street is their Main Street too! Vinita hosts special Mother Road celebrations year-round, but really amps things up at the annual Route 66 Festival each June. Grab your medieval attire and join in the festivities at the Queensferry Renaissance Festival in March, cheer on skilled riders at the Will Rogers Memorial Rodeo in August, then give a toast to classic cars at the Route 66 Car Show and Vinita Oktoberfest held in conjunction in October.

Get a dose of local history at the Eastern Trails Museum, located one block west of Route 66 in downtown Vinita. Exhibits feature a local Civil War battle, railroads, ranching and Route 66. Browse a recreated general store, doctor's office, printing office, and post office. As a bonus, admission is free!

Fill up at Clantons Café on Route 66 and try their famous chicken fried steak. Not only has this steak been called one of the best on Route 66, but it has also garnered rave reviews from Guy Fieri on Diners, Drive-Ins, and Dives. If you're feeling adventurous, order the calf fries. This regional classic is hand-breaded and flash-fried to a golden perfection. Craving more? Join in the fun at the World's Largest Calf Fry Festival each June. If breakfast is your meal, then Hi-way Cafe is your place with all day breakfast. Piguet's Prime Time has your steak and catering needs covered.

Western Motel is conveniently located next to the Hi-Way Cafe on Historic Route 66. Amenities include full size beds, mini fridge, microwave, truck parking, cable, and Wi-Fi.

Vinita offers a huge variety of shops including 66 Apparel with unique screen printing, embroidery items, and other apparel. Tripp & Charley's, Vinita Antique Mall, and Ropin' Flamingo antique shops at the corridor of Jefferson Highway and Route 66 offer many unique finds and hours of shopping.

PRYOR - Rocklahoma and Motor Racing

This progressive community in Green Country is home to the incredibly popular Rocklahoma Music Festival. Held over Labor Day Weekend, this hardcore festival packs three stages with non-stop rock from over 70 head-banging bands. Cyclists travel to Pryor each September to participate in Dam J.A.M., Oklahoma's most scenic one-day bicycle tour featuring fun rides of 30, 55, 71, or 101 miles! Country music lovers pack your wagons for the Born & Raised Festival, also in September. Nearby Salina hosts Chouteau Day - Oklahoma's Founders Day, in October with a huge celebration sure to please the entire family.

For even more thrilling action, head to the Salina Highbanks Speedway - the fastest speedway in Oklahoma! Top off the night at the on-site Finishline Restaurant & Bar or head over to Mid-American Grill for a great meal. Both Pryor and Salina have the privilege of being located around Lake Hudson, where plentiful camping and cabins are available all year.

Art lovers will want to visit the Rabbit Gallery in Pryor, which showcases the incredible work of nationally known artist Traci Rabbit. The Coo-Y-Yah Museum details local history, including art and artifacts from the Cherokee and Osage tribes. Pick up lovely gifts at the Village Shop, Vintique Cottage, Beach Vibz swim wear, Wild Goat Clothing Company or Robin's Nest, then browse over 30,000 covers at the Book Exchange & Bible Bookstore. Nearby Locust Grove offers unique shopping, museums, and Wonder City Coffee offers locally sourced coffee, tea, meals and more in a quaint setting. Chouteau, another nearby town, and home to a large Amish community, boasts the Amish Bakery and an abundance of antique stores.

Located in northeast Oklahoma with easy access to interstates that lead directly to major markets. Pryor sits in the "Heart of Green Country" surrounded by lakes and tourist attractions. Unique local businesses, year round events and friendly community offer a welcoming environment.
