Mayor Joshua Marsh gave an update on the READI grant. It was submitted to the State last week. The committee hopes to hear some news on it by the end of the year.

Mayor asked for a special Board of Works meeting for October 21, 2021, at 12:00 PM to discuss the new personnel handbook.

Mayor Marsh wanted to take a moment to pass on some positive messages about different city departments and department heads that he has received over the past few weeks. He thanked the employees of the city for the great work they continue to do and stressed that it is being noticed by the citizens.

Zeke Smith was introduced as the new Wastewater Superintendent to follow in the footsteps of Jeff Smith. Today was his first official day.

Rodney King asked Ron May to give an update on Frontier and Duke and their progress at Veteran's Way. Mr. May reported that both were out there on Friday and there should've been more progress today. Everything should be on schedule to open Veteran's Way as planned.

Motion to approve the claims as presented made by Karen D. Rust, seconded by Jamie Cain. Voice vote all ayes no nays. Motion passed.
