Old Business

- None

New Business

- Darren Burkhart Broadway/10th Street Update – Darren provided the board email correspondence for the Water State Revolving Loan (SRF) PER noting there are no updates at this time. The 10th Street Project survey should be completed by the end of this week and is moving forward.
- Zach Wirrig Project Update – Zach reported the INDOT Main Street Project, which is scheduled for 2026-27, has a scheduled meeting next Monday to continue work on the design process and is on schedule. The Park Road Water Main design team met yesterday to discuss the 12"/10" gap where there is a 4" water main; the goal is to get the water and sewer where they want them ahead of the other utilities.
- April Claims – Water Superintendent, Aaron Schwendenmann, reported his team is flushing hydrants this week. Claims were signed.
- New Kubota Mower/Trade in of Old Kubota Mower Quotes – Aaron provided the board with a quote for a new Kubota Z781KWT 60-inch mower $13,599.00, discount of $880.00, advance chute $260.00, minus trade-in allowance of their oldest mower $3,900.00 (net being $9,279.00). Scott Mangels made a motion to approve the purchase (from Stone's Farm Service, Inc), Ryan Maddux seconded the motion, voice vote all ayes and motion carried.
- April 2025 MRO – No questions or concerns.
- Mayor's Issues – Mayor Marsh acknowledged the water team on keeping up with the lead and copper rule in replacing lead service lines and noted while working on the downtown streetscape project they recovered a wooden water main and coupler from an old fire cistern.
- Adjourn – With nothing more to come before the board, Tony made motion to adjourn, Ryan seconded, all ayes; meeting adjourned at 5:39 pm.
