

Central East
More on this state
> Here

Enjoy A "Home Alone" Experience

By Robin O'Neal Smith
Travel Writer
<https://robinonealsmith.com>

Photos by Jack Roberts

Just Like In The Movie

Do you remember the movie "Home Alone?" How would you like to enjoy some of the experiences Kevin McCallister, the little boy in the movie, had? Now you can!

The Westin Poinsett Hotel in Greenville, South Carolina, is offering the Greenville Home Alone Experience this holiday season. Guests will have the opportunity to relive a number of the iconic movie moments.

Iconic Movie Moments To Expect

Here is what to expect when you book the Home Alone Experience at the Westin Poinsett, one of Greenville's most iconic Christmas hotels.

1. You will stay in one of the finest suites with a luxurious bed to enjoy a Home Alone movie marathon while devouring an ice cream sundae delivered to your room.

2. A limousine will transport you around town for a two-hour ride as you take in the twinkling lights while enjoying cheese pizza.

3. Then, you are off to the ice skating rink to spin around the ice.

4. Next, you will visit the Coolest Toy Store on the Planet for a shopping spree.

5. Finally, pick up your very own Christmas ornament at Greenville's Christmas tree to make a wish.

Visitors to Greenville can enjoy this exclusive must-do experience from November 25, 2023, through January 6, 2024, subject to availability. You can make your reservation for the Greenville Home Alone Experience on the Westin Poinsett website under "Deals and Packages" or call 864.421.9700.

Known as "America's Friendliest City," it is also one of the hottest destinations and was one of The New York Times' "52 Places to Go in 2023." Greenville is home to delicious food and drink, a quaint Main Street, a bike-friendly attitude, a bustling art scene, girlfriend getaways and mancations, fun-filled festivals, picturesque parks, and sweet Southern hospitality.

Getting There

Greenville is located halfway between Atlanta, GA, and Charlotte, NC, providing excellent highway access (I-85, I-385, I-185, I-26). Nestled in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains, Greenville is within a day's drive for most of the U.S. population!

If you prefer to fly, the Greenville-Spartanburg International Airport (GSP), located just 15 minutes from downtown Greenville, features more than 100 daily nonstop flights to 20 airports and hundreds of connecting flight options.

