Greenville, South Carolina offers a unique blend of traditional Southern charm and contemporary cool you won't find anywhere else.

Its award-winning, walkable downtown is packed tight with cultural and culinary distractions.

From the clip-clop of hooves to the sound of live music to the laughter of diners enjoying a meal under twinkling lights, our tree-lined Main Street buzzes with people, locally owned boutiques, and inventive restaurants.

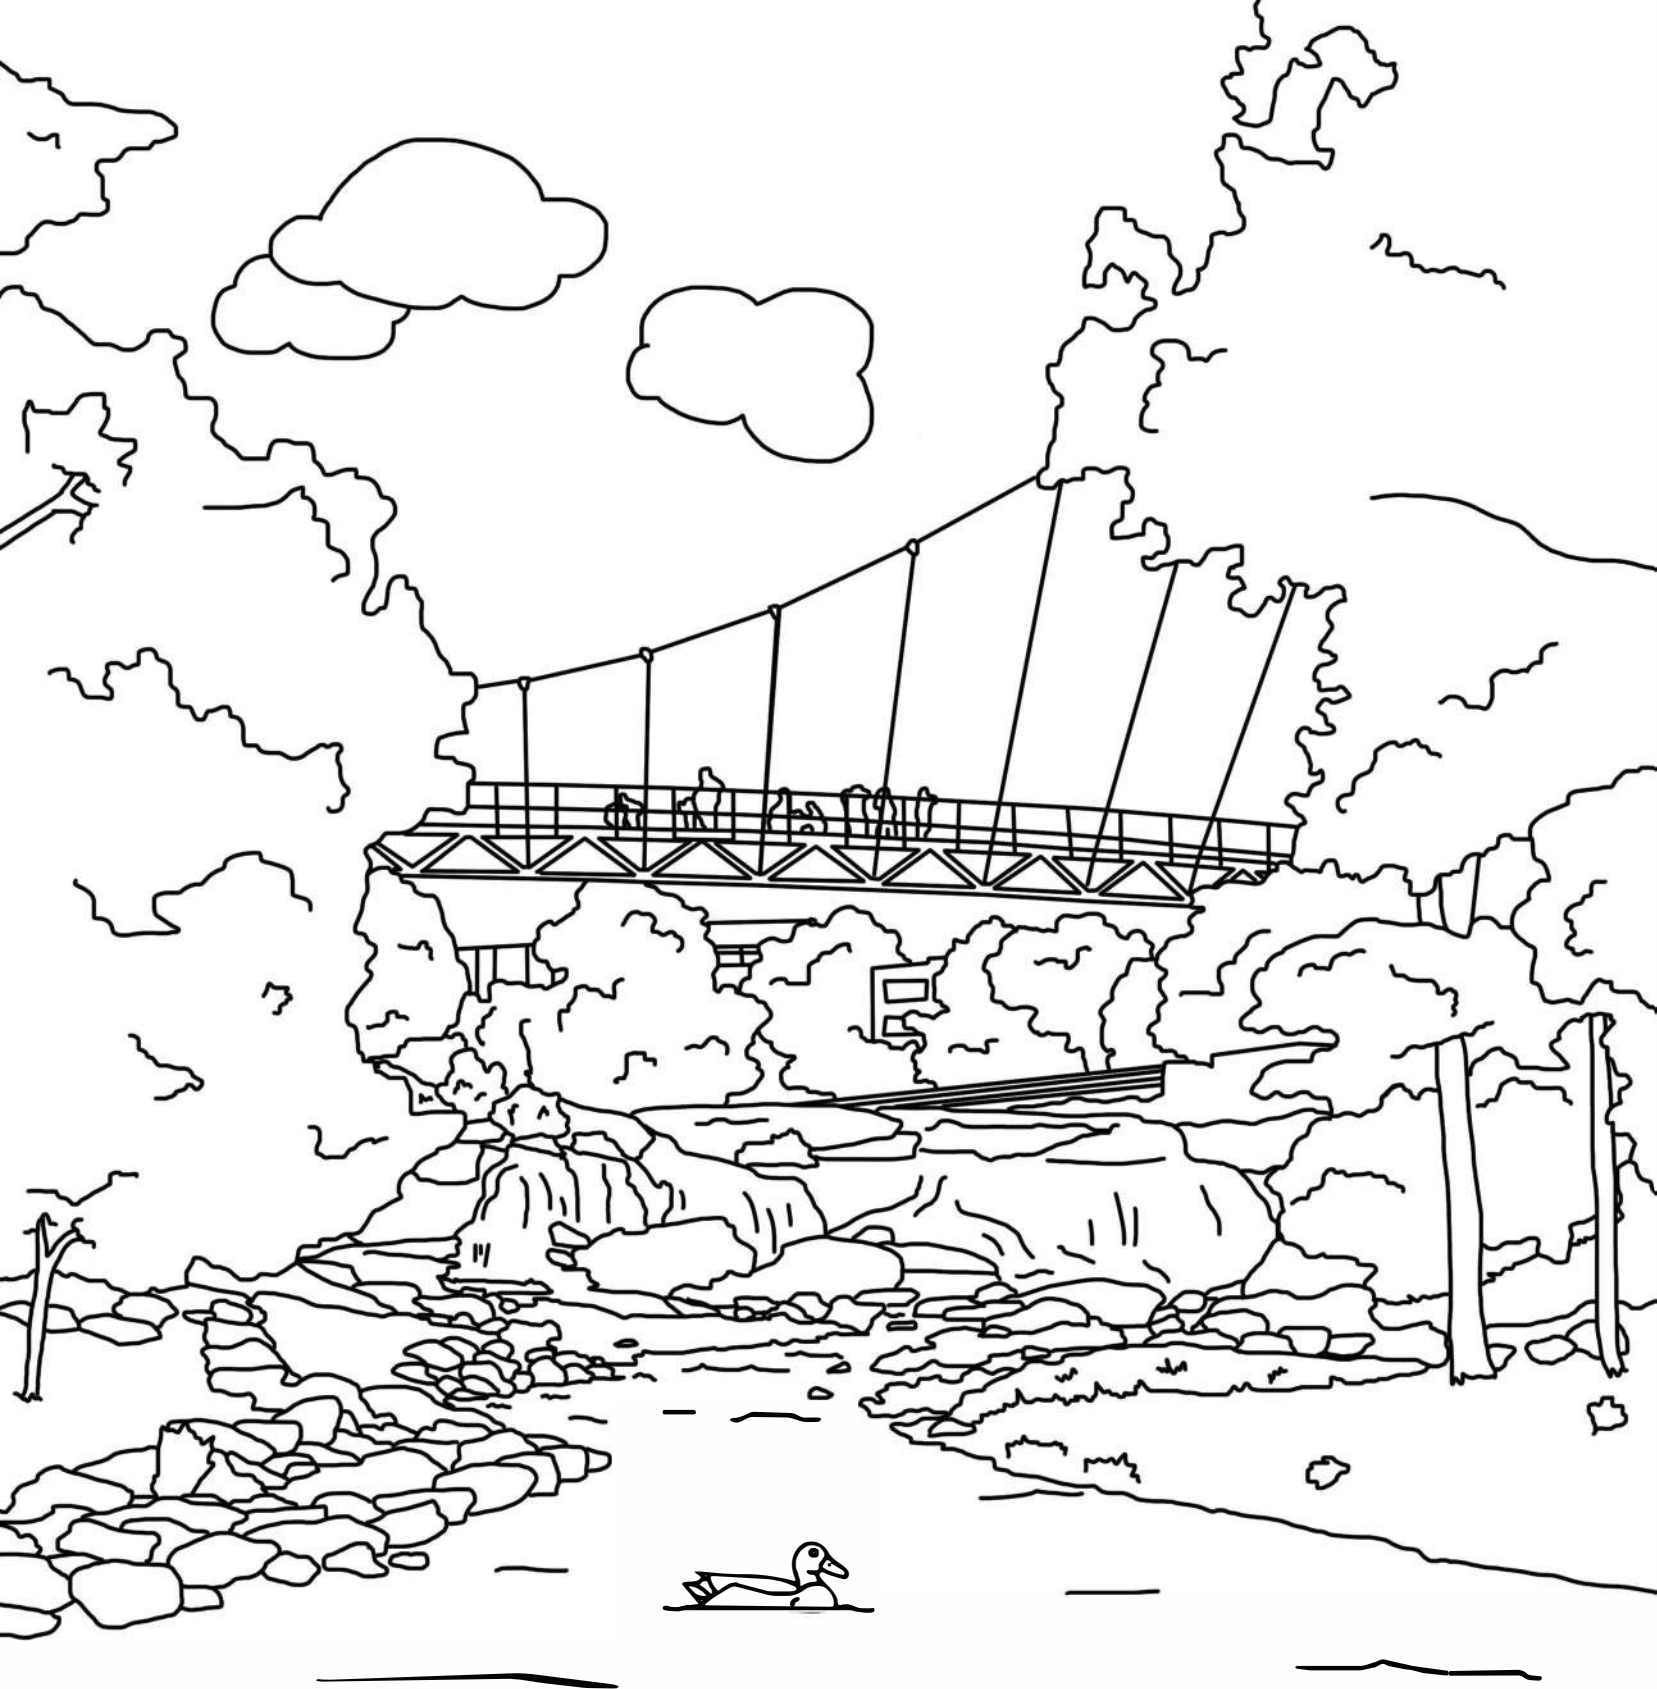

On Saturdays in the spring, summer and early fall, Main Street transforms into a bustling farmers' market packed full of the freshest local goods.

Art is alive through theater, street musicians, galleries, and public displays of art.

From traditional statues, to modern pieces of art, to nine storybook-inspired bronze Mice on Main, a simple stroll around the block transforms the street into a walkable museum.

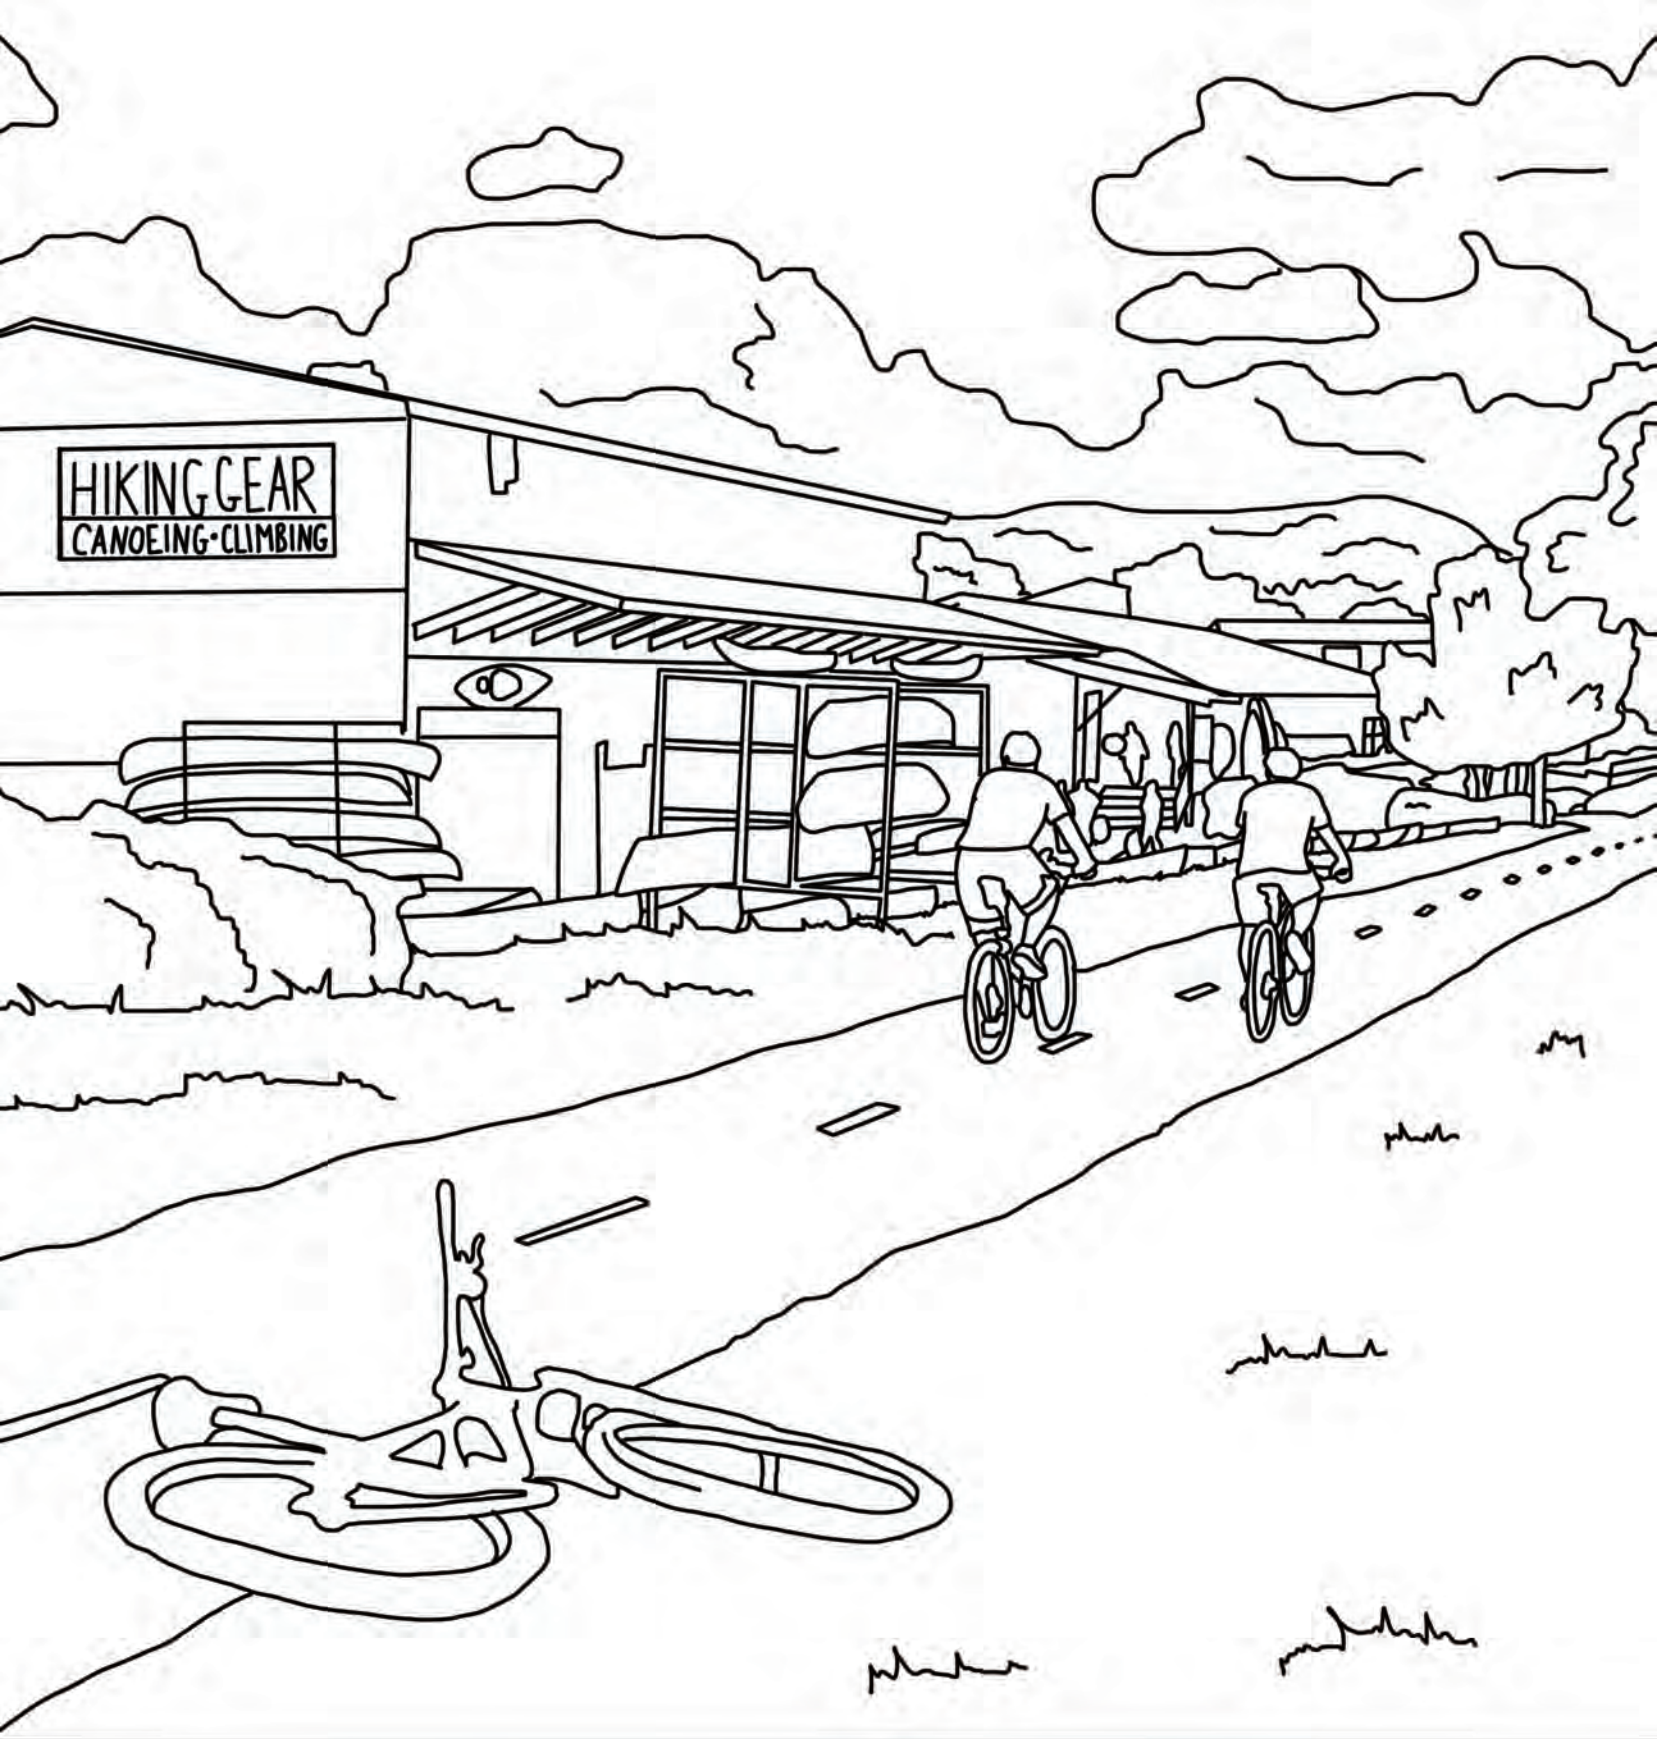

Not to mention there is a ridiculously picturesque 32-acre park in the heart of downtown, complete with a waterfall and a one-of-a-kind floating pedestrian bridge.

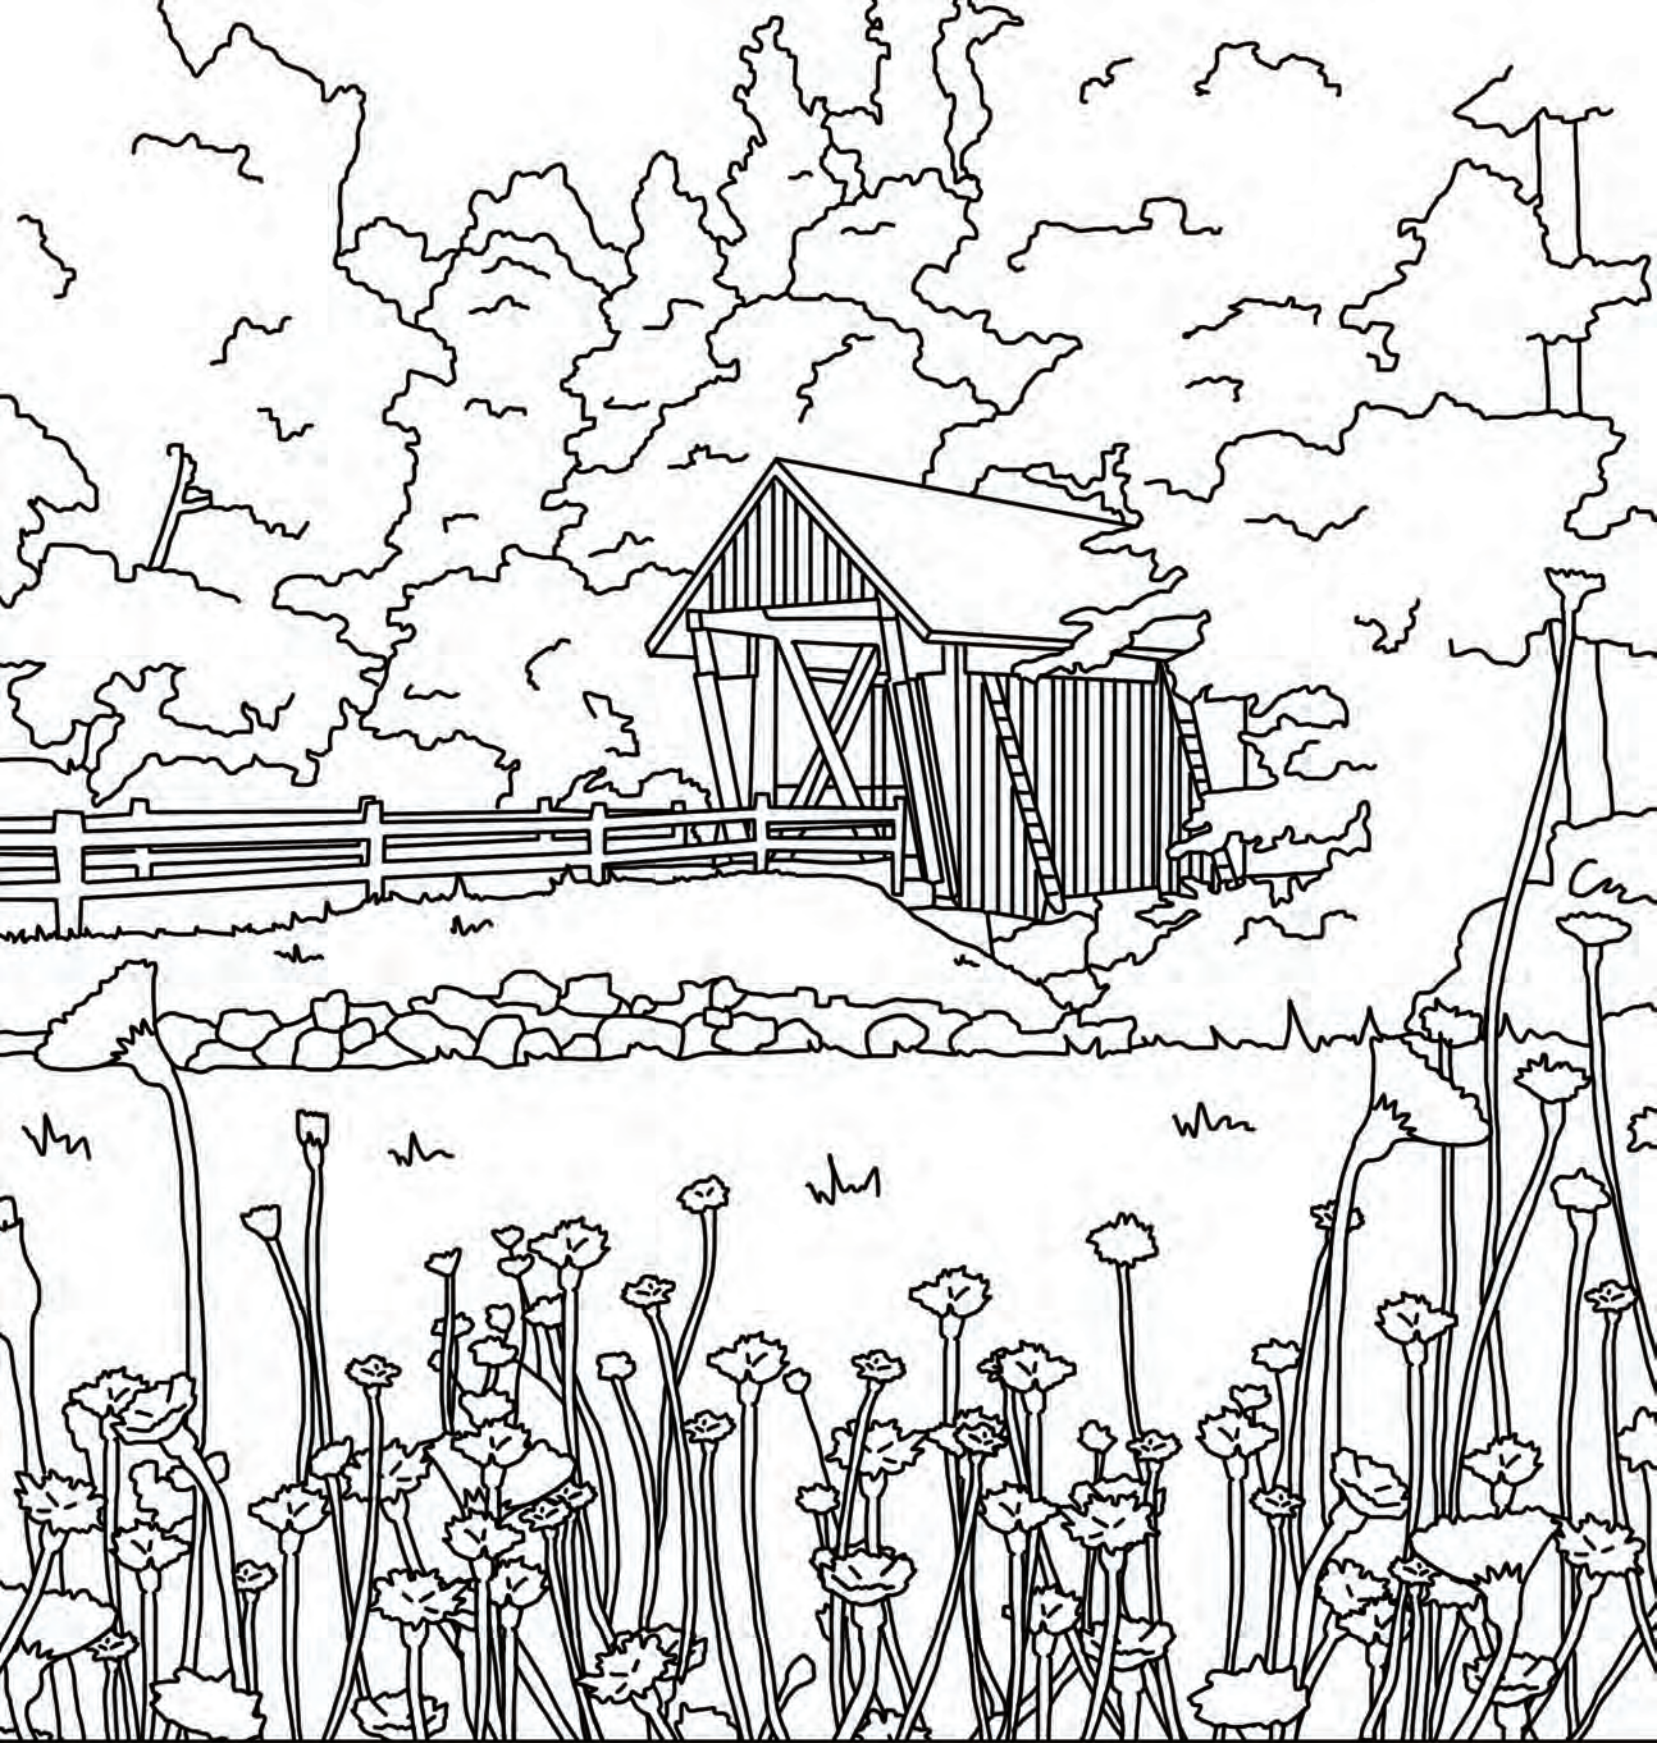

Hop on the free open-air trolley to continue your exploration downtown.

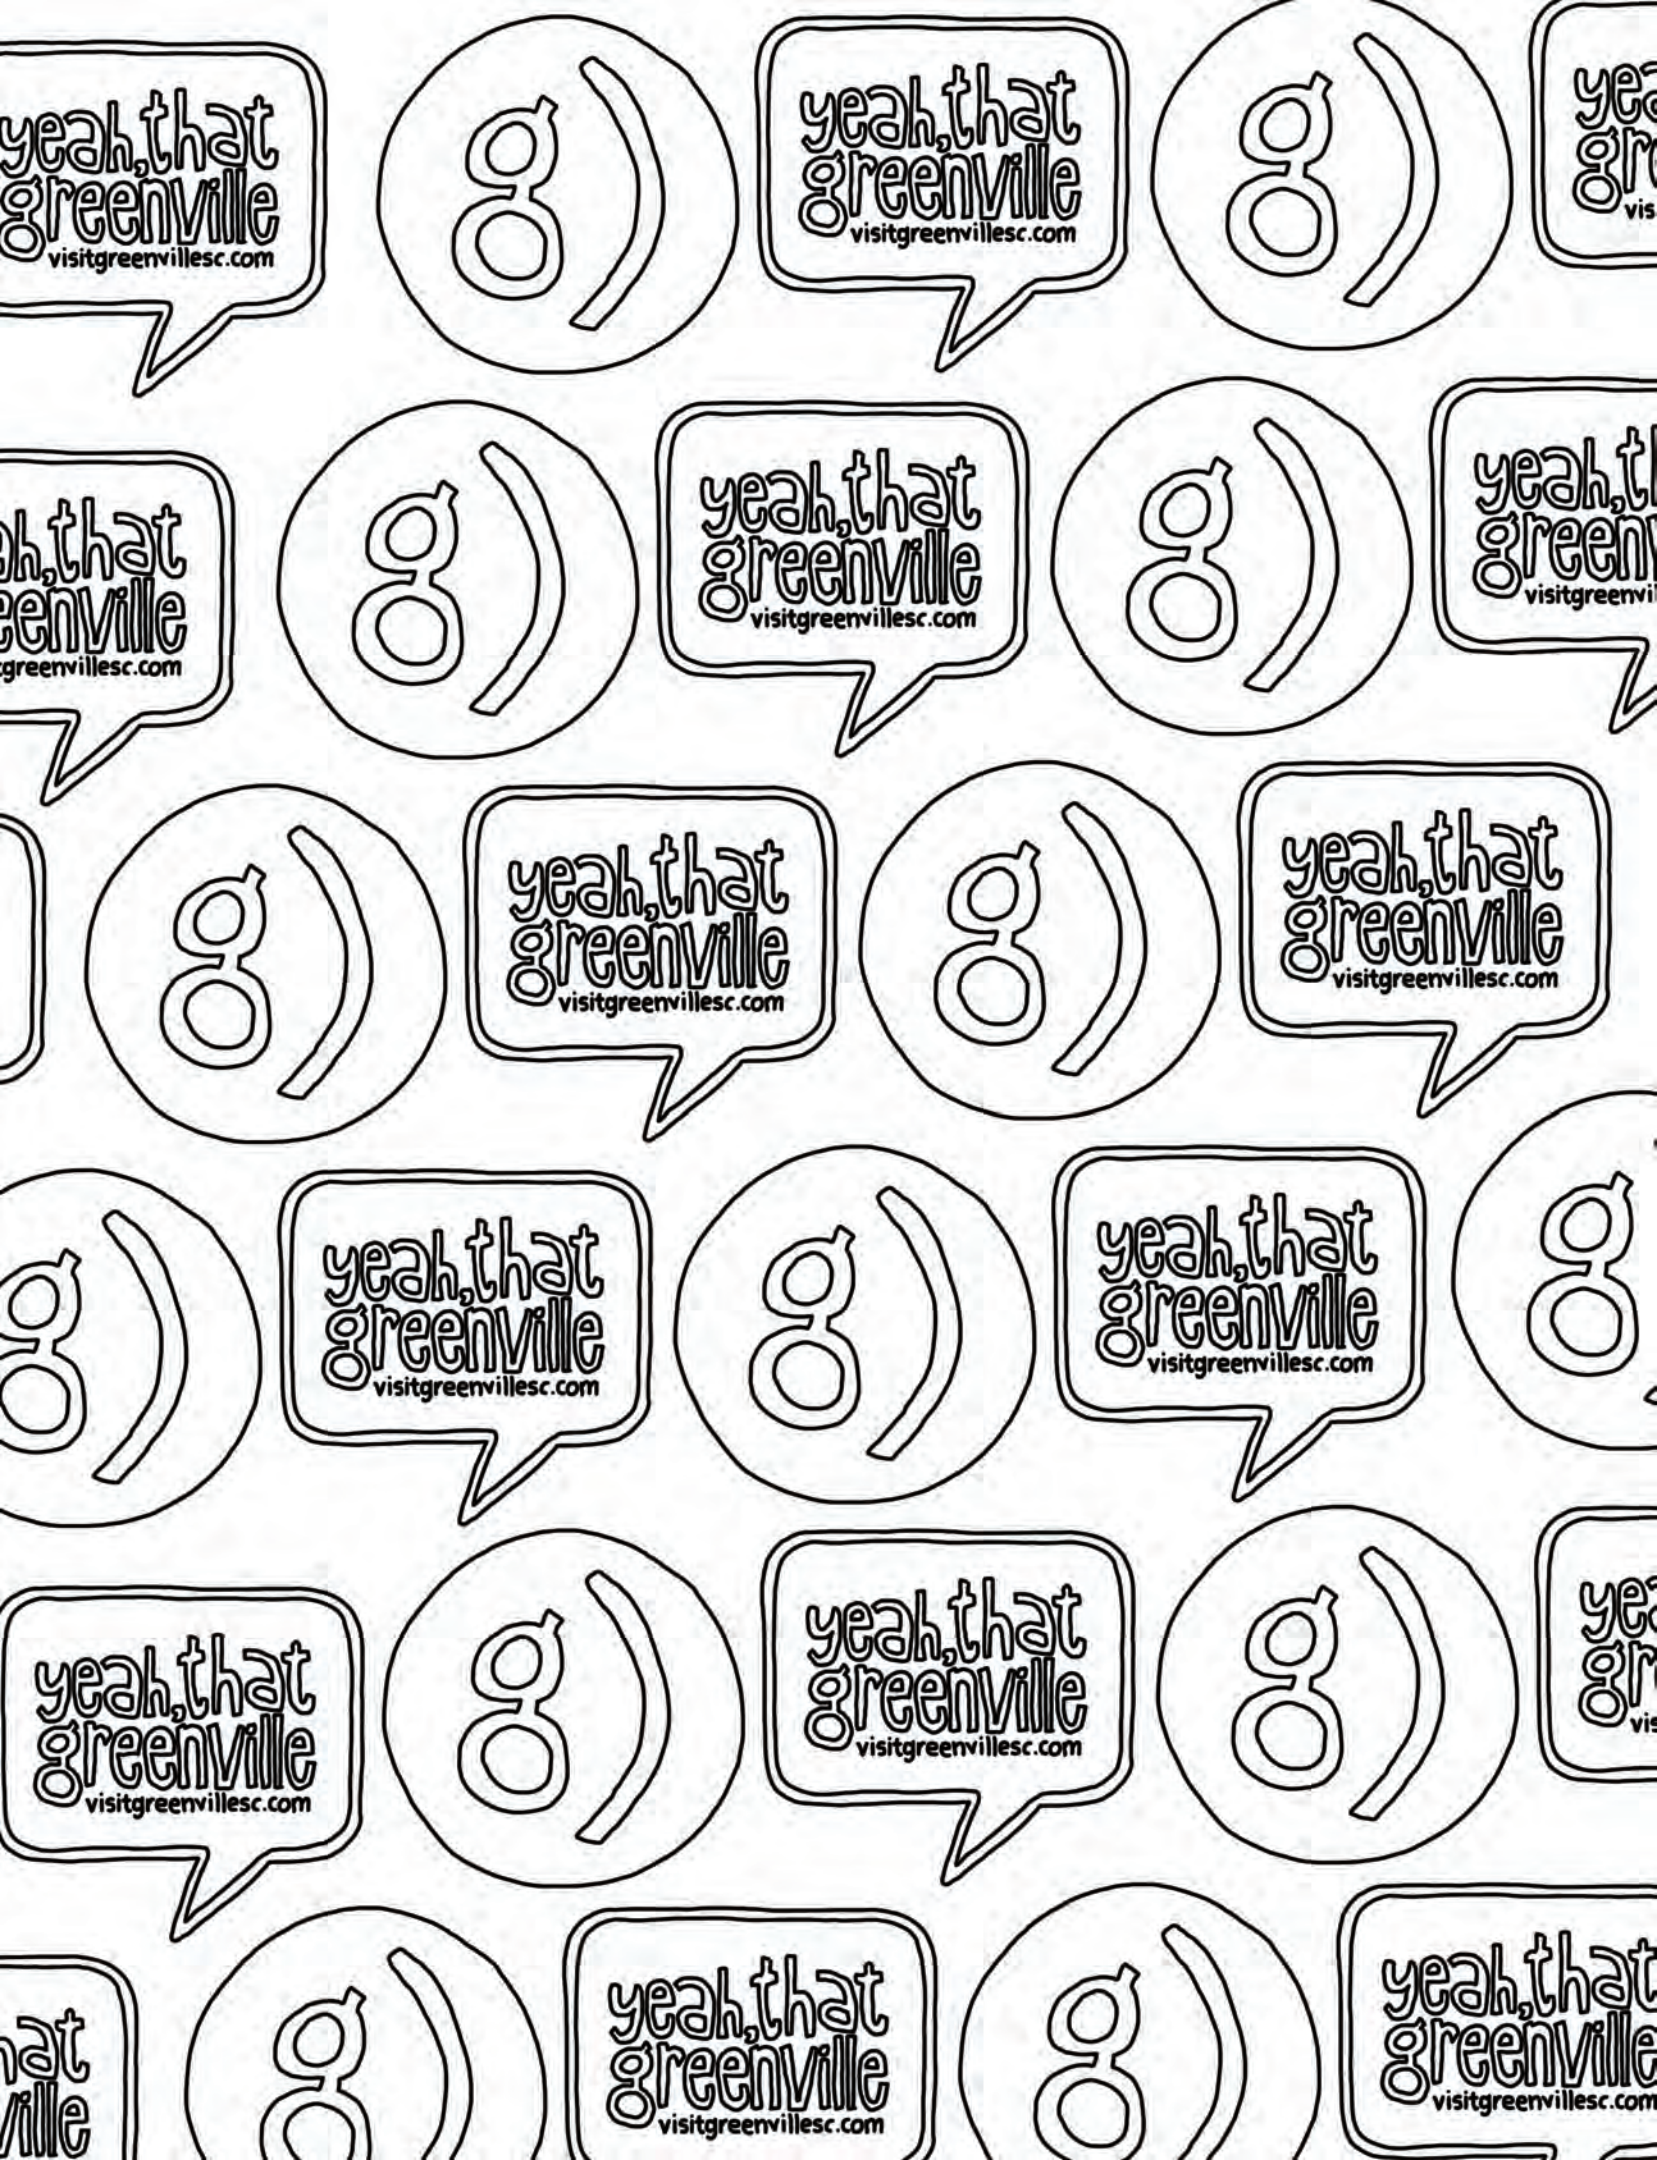

Or get away for a hike in the nearby mountains or through one of three state parks.

Bike along the famed GHS Swamp Rabbit Trail over the river and through the woods from our Downtown parks to the quaint, small town of Travelers Rest.

There are a million reasons why people are saying "Yeah, THAT Greenville". It's time you discovered a few of your own.
