When Jim Ryan started working on his high school senior project back in 2000, he couldn't have known he was creating what would become one of Greenville's most beloved obsessions. Inspired by the book, Goodnight Moon, Jim proposed installing nine unique mouse sculptures along downtown's Main Street. Jim then teamed up with local sculptor Zan Wells to create the nine unique bronze figures, each with its own distinct personality. The mice were then carefully placed, each in his or her own special spot, and the Mice On Main scavenger hunt was born. Author Linda Kelly joined the team and now this trio offers Mice on Main as a book and a board game!

Greenville's bronze mice are spaced out on one side of Main Street or the other, from the Hyatt Regency to the Westin Poinsett. Use the clues to find all nine mice! Happy hunting!

1. You'll find Father Marvin near the Roost. He brought his book to give his reading a boost.
CLUE: SEARCH AT THE HYATT AND NOMA SQUARE.
2. Mother Maggie is across the street keeping cars off the sidewalk - a tricky feat!
CLUE: LOOK BOTH WAYS! (IS THAT A PARKING BARRIER?)
3. Marvin, Jr. is too young to drink morning brew; still he tries to sneak in before he hears "shoo"!
CLUE: DO YOU SEE A COFFEE SHOP?
4. Marcle's cool; you'll see that at a glance. ONE City Plaza is where he loves to dance.
CLUE: LOOK NEAR THE PLAZA SQUARE.
5. If Millie didn't have such a wonderful view, she might come down and walk with you.
CLUE: SHE'S A "HIGH"-TECH GIRL! SEARCH HARD AND GIVE IT A WHIRL.
6. Mitch gets ready to run into a "money garden" to have some fun.
CLUE: THINK WELLS FARGO INNER GARDEN.
7. You'll see Melissa across the block; she likes to keep her eye on all the "rocks".
CLUE: MELISSA IS ALSO FOND OF CREPES!
8. Aunt Mifflin is on the corner by a bank. (It's the oldest one downtown, to be quite frank.)
CLUE: SHE HAS A PERFECT VIEW OF A GIANT BOAR!
9. At an Italian restaurant, right near a rain spout, Uncle Miles is just hanging out.
CLUE: UNCLE MILES LOVES GARDENS, AND THERE'S ONE CLOSE BY.

Find them all? Congratulations, Mouse Hunter! Mission accomplished!
