

GOING NORTH

ON THE SWAMP RABBIT TRAIL

STARTING AT FALLS PARK, HOP ON THE SWAMP RABBIT TRAIL AND HEAD NORTH TOWARDS TRAVELERS REST...

UNITY PARK & THE COMMONS

This 60-acre park with basketball courts, state-of-the-art playgrounds, a splash pad, green spaces, picnic tables, a welcome center with restrooms, and event space is the perfect first stop on your tour. The Commons features an array of food options including Automatic Taco, Pangaea Brewing, GB&D, Community Tap, Methodical Coffee, and more. Keep an eye out for more restaurants and businesses opening soon.

SWAMP RABBIT CAFÉ & GROCERY

Swamp Rabbit Café is a locally owned café, grocery store, and bakery offering a food hub, picnic space, and free stecca bread for first-time visitors. This is a true gem of Greenville and is extremely bike friendly.

SWAMP RABBIT STATION @ BEREA

Swamp Rabbit Station is a unique pocket park halfway between Greenville and Travelers Rest, featuring an information kiosk, seating, a water refill station, a turnaround for handicap bikes, a vintage railcar that all kids love to see, and a mural of Berea's history.

FURMAN UNIVERSITY

Furman is private liberal arts university with a 1.5-mile lake loop, 13 miles of additional trails, a rose garden, Thoreau's cabin replica, historic buildings, and a Japanese temple.

Tip Box: Stroll along Furman University's lake loop encircling a 40-acre, spring-fed lake, offering views of Paris Mountain. This scenic path is a highlight of the campus, featuring the iconic Furman Bell Tower.

HISTORY MUSEUM OF TRAVELERS REST

This museum exhibits artifacts related to Travelers Rest history as a rest stop (hence the name), located in a building with bricks from the old Travelers Rest High School.

TRAILBLAZER PARK

This park is a performing arts and cultural center with green space, live music, movies, a nature-themed playground, and picnic shelters. This park also hosts the Travelers Rest Farmers Market.

Tip Box: The Travelers Rest Farmers Market is open every Saturday May - September from 8:30 am - 12 pm, featuring over 70 vendors, live music, kids' activities, free yoga & food trucks.

UPCOUNTRY PROVISIONS

This restaurant offers a unique dining experience and serves breakfast, lunch and dinner with live music, and has vegetarian, vegan, and gluten-free options.

SWAMP RABBIT BREWERY & TAPROOM

This family and pet-friendly brewery has outdoor seating, a variety of beers, small bites & events.

TR MAKERS CO.

A hub for artisans and art lovers offering handcrafted goods, maker kits, and art activities. This is a great stop to check out when in Travelers Rest. (also called "TR").

TANDEM CRÊPERIE & COFFEEHOUSE

Try their sweet and savory crêpes, waffles, homemade granola, handcrafted sodas, kombucha, fresh juice, and a variety of teas.

Tip Box: Make sure to try one of their savory crêpes paired with a coffee or tea. Try their Green Goddess, Sante Fé, or Sausage Potato savory crêpes.

SUNRIFT ADVENTURES

Sunrift is a well-known outdoors shop, located in a Historic Cotton Gin, with gear for outdoor lovers including climbing, paddling, biking, hiking, rentals and expert advice.

