

Welcomes the

Maybe it will be the first time you stroll along the wide, welcoming sidewalks that frame our award-winning Main Street. Or when you step out onto Liberty Bridge at Falls Park on the Reedy and gaze down at the energetic tumble of waterfalls below.

Maybe it will be when you stride through the gates of Fluor Field, the Fenway-inspired ballpark that anchors our bustling West End. Or maybe it will happen somewhere in-between – when you lean into an open-air artist's studio, grab a bite to eat at one of the 110+ tasty downtown restaurants or pause to sing alongside a talented street musician – that you'll realize that you are someplace very special.

Welcome to Greenville, we are glad you are here!

Sincerely,

Sheryl Lang
