WHY GREENVILLE

With expansive meeting spaces, diverse restaurants and night life, more than 2,000 overnight rooms, and impeccable service, Greenville is an excellent and versatile location to host conventions, corporate events, trade shows, religious events, family reunions and special interest shows. With our central location, impressive facilities, and matchless service, clients will find themselves in good company here in Greenville.

LOCATION

Greenville's positioning in Eastern North Carolina makes it a prime meeting location within the southern United States. We're just a short drive off I-95, and our central location between major cities such as Atlanta, DC, Miami and New York City make us an ideal meeting location for regional events.

FACILITIES

Greenville has facilities and event space to cater to groups of any size. We are home to a variety of unique venues, hundreds of convenient hotel rooms to accommodate your guests, and the Greenville Convention Center Campus which boasts over 91,000 square feet of flexible event space.

SERVICES

Greenville's level of service in planning and organizing events is unparalleled. Many of Greenville's complimentary services are simply unavailable in other destinations, including an all access pass to the area, which is comprised of special tours, events, festivals, and more that only locals could previously recognize.

CONVENTION District

Greenville's Convention District represents the largest partnership of meeting and exhibit facilities in Eastern North Carolina and the largest convention center east of I-95. The District's facilities and staff combine to form the epitome of unrivaled convenience, service and experience.

UPTOWN District

Greenville's Uptown District is the thriving epicenter of our city. It's a community of small businesses and welcoming spaces, rich in both atmosphere and history. Ongoing revitalization efforts continue to enliven the area by transforming once forgotten buildings and streets into popular landmarks and destinations.

- Several flexible meeting and event spaces
- Walkable district featuring nearly 40 nearby restaurants, cafes, breweries, coffeeshops, and more
- A variety of retail shops, antique stores, art galleries, museums, boutiques and more
- New Hilton Garden Inn will feature 102 rooms, meeting and event space, restaurant and rooftop bar, attached parking, and more. Coming Summer 2023!
- 21-acre Town Common featuring a 1,500 foot Riverwalk and connected Greenway system

MEDICAL District

Greenville's Medical District features one of four university-medical centers in NC. ECU Health Medical Center is the 5th largest hospital in the state, which is also the teaching hospital of the East Carolina University Brody School of Medicine. Along with a vast community of medical practices, the Medical District is home to the James and Connie Maynard Children's Hospital, the only children's hospital in the eastern region, and the East Carolina Heart Institute.

- Two modern meeting facilities – The East Carolina Heart Institute and Eastern Area Health Education Center
- Multiple Conference/Lecture Rooms and multi-purpose spaces equipped with full audio-visual support
- 250 Seat State-of-the-Art Auditorium
- 13 Hotels with over 700 Guest Rooms
- Over 20 Restaurants within 2 miles

UNIVERSITY District

Greenville is home to East Carolina University, the 3rd largest university and fastest-growing campus in the University of North Carolina system. ECU Pirate Athletics is a Division 1 program with a deeply loyal and proud fan base in the heart of Pirate Nation, the Eastern NC region and beyond. The Murphy Center is connected to both 8,000 seat Minges Coliseum and the 50,000 seat Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium where the Pirates compete on the gridiron.

- Harvey Hall - 9,000 sq. ft. second-floor banquet hall

FUN THINGS TO DO

Greenville and Pitt County have a unique mix of genuine, small-town charm and access to more urban amenities. While the pace may be slower than many larger cities, there is never a lack of things to do or places to go to find yourself in good company. Here is just a sample of what you will find.

Outdoor Adventure

- Connect with nature on a run or stroll along the extensive Greenville Greenway, a part of the East Coast Greenway system.
- Enjoy scenic views of the Tar River at the Town Common, explore the river by kayak or SUP board or take your dog for a walk at the off-leash dog park.
- Explore our parks! Visit River Park North's 324 acres or the new Wildwood Adventure Park's 365 acres of natural wetlands, lakes, and trails offering opportunities to hike, camp, fish, bird watch, boat or kayak all year.

Health & Wellness Gurus

- Grab a tasty smoothie, juice, or acai bowl loaded with everything good for you at Fresh Vibes and find your center at the on-site Yogi Vibes Studio near the Convention District.

- Enjoy the vibes at SAIN Kava + Tea Bar serving up tasty herbal, boba, and kava teas.
- Get an energy boost at Uptown Nutrition with a flavorful smoothie, energy tea, and aloe shot to keep you going.

- Hit the mat at Purple Blossom Yoga Studio to maintain your zen, or take an outdoor morning or evening class at the Greenville Town Common overlooking the Tar River during the spring, summer, or fall.
- Go with the flow during a SUP Yoga class on the Tar River with Knee Deep Adventures & Moxie Yoga in the spring and summer months.
- Drop in for a class at Crossfit Greenville to break a sweat.

Art Appreciators

- Celebrate Eastern North Carolina's pirate history and traditions every April at PirateFest in Uptown Greenville with roaming pirates, encampments, reenactments, international culture, art displays, food vendors, a costume contest, pirate parade and several stages of live music and entertainment.
- Stroll the Uptown Greenville First Friday ArtWalk and view original work by local artists at galleries and museums, take a free trolley ride, enjoy live music, and find specials at shops and restaurants.

- Experience one of the many seasonal festivals that are long-standing traditions in many of our Pitt County towns.
- Partake in a performance from the S. Rudolph Alexander Performing Arts Series, which brings national and international touring artists, entertainers, and productions to the region.

Music Fans

- Catch local, regional, and national touring acts from a wide range of musical genres at The State Theater, a beautifully restored former movie theater in the heart of our Uptown District.

- Discover local singer-songwriters and bands playing every night of the week at our local restaurants, breweries, and galleries, several of which also offer weekly open-mic and karaoke nights!
- Find live music on weekends at R.A. Fountain General Store in Fountain featuring Americana, country, blues, and jazz acts from around Eastern NC and across the country.
- Relax with the Sunday in the Park or mid-week Concert on the Common summer concert series at the Town Common with musical genres to please all ages.

Plannermonial

"The NC Association of ABC Boards held its General Managers meeting March 2020 in Greenville and we were so impressed with the meeting. First off, the destination attracted a sizeable crowd compared to previous meetings. And the team in place at the CVB, the Convention Center and its hotels were serious about making our group feel special and that was demonstrated prior to and during the meeting. Greenville will definitely be on the list for a return booking."

—Jim Thompson, CAE, IOM, VP, Association Management & Strategic Development, Capitol Hill Management Services

History Lovers

- Explore the African American Cultural Trail of Greenville-Pitt County in our Uptown District and learn about the many educational, commercial, and cultural contributions our area's Black residents made helping our community thrive and grow!
- Step back in time at the May Museum where much of the history of the Town of Farmville and the surrounding area of western Pitt County is preserved from colonial times to the present.
- Learn about the impact of the Civil War on our area on a self-guided tour of the various Civil War Trails of North Carolina marker sites in Pitt County.

Plannermorial

"The town of Greenville and the Greenville Convention Center has been host to our Annual Conference since 2006. The staff is friendly and most helpful and goes above and beyond to meet our needs so that our meeting of 2000 plus attendees runs smoothly. The beautiful hotels on-site make it convenient for our staff, lay and clergy members to have a pleasant stay and are able to enjoy walking to and from the Convention Center. The large selection of restaurants in Greenville makes the town attractive as a host for our large group and we enjoy patronizing them and supporting local."

—Shannon Medlin, Conference Secretary's Office, North Carolina Conference | The United Methodist Church

- Schedule a tour of the Eastern Carolina Village & Farm Museum 1840 - 1940 to view authentic and reconstructed farm and community buildings from the period, including a school house, general store, church, and more, filled and decorated with antiques that speak to region's rural history and culture.

Foodie Fanatics

- Enjoy a local craft brew at Uptown Brewing Company and Pitt Street Brewing Company in the Uptown District, along with several bottle shops and taprooms.
- Experience The Duck-Rabbit Craft Brewery in Farmville, and Local Oak Brewing Company and Nauti Dog Brewing Company in Winterville.
- Indulge in delicious and legendary whole-hog Eastern North Carolina barbecue throughout Greenville and Pitt County, including Skylight Inn Barbecue and Bum's Restaurant in Ayden, Sam Jones BBQ in Winterville, B's Barbecue and Parker's Barbecue in Greenville, and more!
- Experience our entire brew and 'cue scene on the Pitt County Brew & 'Cue Trail! Pick up a Passpork from our Visitors Center, print from our website, download the Visit Greenville, NC app, or pick one up from any participating pit or pint stop on the trail, and make your way throughout Greenville-Pitt County collecting your stamps at each stop to earn some sweet trail swag!
- Our local restaurant scene is thriving! From farm-to-table Starlight Cafe and Dickinson Avenue Public House, to authentic Neapolitan pies at Luna Pizza Cafe and creative fusion Tex-Mex at Side Bar Drinkery + Eatery, and so many more... there is something delicious to suit every taste and palate! Also find a range of local and regional food trucks posted up at local breweries and events serving up tasty street eats.

Sports Fans

- Kick back at Freeboot Fridays at Five Points Plaza in the Uptown Greenville, featuring street food, children's activities, a wine and beer garden and live entertainment on Friday nights before ECU Pirate home football game weekends.
- Hop the free ECU Game Day Shuttle Uptown District to Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium on game days to enjoy the amazing tailgating experience and watch as the ECU Pirates take the field.

Local Lovers

- Delight in Pitt County's rich natural beauty and agriculture with scenic drives and visits to local farms like Briley's Farm, Strawberries on 903, Brock's Farm and more all year long.
- Shop for farm-fresh eats and locally made products at Pitt County's Leroy James Farmers Market and the Dickinson Avenue Farmers & Makers Market!
- Find tasty cow-to-cone at Simply Natural Creamery & Jersey Farm in Ayden. Take a farm tour, pet the cows, and pick from a variety of delicious ice cream flavors and other available dairy products. If you need a sweet fix, a new Simply Natural Creamery scoop shop is conveniently located in Greenville!
- Shop the open-air Umbrella Market at Five Points Plaza in Uptown Greenville on Wednesday evenings from May through June, to find local produce, art, crafts, antiques, home baked goods, food demonstrations, craft brews, and live music.

Plannermorial

"Greenville, North Carolina is one of the best locations to host a meet or conference. I have had both conferences and meetings in the Greenville Convention Center, hosted events in hotels, and even at the city facilities, so I can say first-hand this is a great destination to hold an event and the hospitality from everyone is top notch and the entire team will pull together to make things happen for you! When you leave Greenville, you leave with new friends that they are always just a call or email away anytime you need them."

— Diane Godwin, Events & Conference Planner, NC League of Municipalities

Science & Nature Explorers

- Learn about the natural world from Eastern NC and to the cosmos at the NC Museum of Natural Sciences at Greenville and Contentnea Creek campuses. Both locations offer innovative and educational programs and events for children and adults all year long:
  - » The NCMNS-Greenville location features rotating and permanent hands-on exhibits, including one on the history and science of pirates of the region
  - » Down at the NCMNS-Contentnea Creek location find a vast natural oasis where you can explore trails, paddle lakes, and observe the cosmos at the on-site Observatory
- Check out River Park North's Walter L. Stasavich Science & Nature Center's North American wildlife exhibit, a shell exhibit, a Waterfowl of the Atlantic Flyway, reptile exhibits, an aquarium and touch tank.

Self-Care Enthusiasts

- Spend time browsing at the Greenville Mall, Arlington Village, Lyndales Shoppes, Artisan's Market, and many shopping centers, boutiques, and antique stores!
- Indulge in some self-care at any one of our amazing local spas, salons, massage centers, and more.

BRING YOUR BOARD

The Greenville-Pitt County Convention & Visitors Bureau in conjunction with the Greenville Convention Center Campus and our hospitality partners would like to share our city with you and your board of directors during your next board meeting!

Learning about a destination on paper, just isn't the same as feeling and seeing with your own senses what a destination is at its core. In Greenville, NC, we value inclusion, diversity, and helping groups to create meeting memories that inspire and invigorate.

We would like to offer your board complimentary meeting space, audio visual, and one meal of your choice (breakfast or lunch) as a thank you for bringing your leadership to see for themselves why Greenville, NC, is quickly becoming a preferred meeting destination in the Carolinas.

If you have the opportunity to stay overnight for more of an extended board retreat style meeting, please allow us to show you around our Uptown district and introduce you to all our local faire flare as well!

How to Qualify

- Program is open to all organizations that have not met in Greenville in the last five years or in the history of their organization
- 25 board members or less

Day Trip Program Includes:

- Complimentary meeting space
- Complimentary breakfast or lunch for board members
- Complimentary audio visual for the board meeting
- Participating organization allows in their agenda for
  - » a short presentation by the CVB about our city and services and
  - » a tour of the Greenville Convention Center Campus before or after the breakfast or lunch

Overnight Program Includes:

- Complimentary meeting space
- Complimentary breakfast or lunch for board members
- Complimentary audio visual for the board meeting
- Participating organizations agree to an evening out with host representatives.
  - » Expect a tour of our Convention Center Campus,
  - » a cocktail hour at one of our crafty bars or breweries,
  - » a tour of our Uptown District and concluding with
  - » a delicious dinner at one of our local uptown restaurants
- Organization is responsible for their own overnight accommodation costs, however we will provide discounted overnight rates.
