DISCOVER GUAM

Located in the western Pacific Ocean, Guam is an unincorporated territory of the United States. It is known as the largest and southernmost island in the Marianas, located about five hours by plane from most major cities in Asia. Guam's rich Chamorro culture and hospitable people share traditions with the other Mariana Islands such as Saipan, Rota, and Tinian. The island is where old meets new – where its Chamorro ancestry blends with American culture and where five-star hotels are just as welcome as age-old Catholic customs. Guam is about 6,000 miles from San Francisco; 3,800 miles west of Honolulu; 1,500 miles south of Japan; 1,596 miles from the Philippines; 2,026 miles east of Hong Kong; 1,987 miles south of South Korea; 2,198 miles south of Vladivostok; and 1,922 miles east of Shanghai.

A tropical beach scene with palm trees and a blue sky with clouds. The palm trees are tall and green, with some fronds showing signs of aging. The sky is a vibrant blue with scattered white clouds. The beach is sandy and stretches across the foreground. The water is a clear, light green color, meeting the shore with gentle waves.

A SHORT FLIGHT TO PARADISE

Entry requirements for Guam are the same as any U.S. destination. Although U.S. citizens are required to possess a U.S. passport, on a case-by-case basis, photo I.D. and proof of citizenship (i.e. birth certificate) may be accepted. Most citizens of other countries must have a valid passport and a U.S. visa. On Oct. 30, 2000, the Visa Waiver Permanent Program Act made a pilot program temporarily instituted in 1988 permanent, allowing nationals from designated countries to apply for admission to the United States for 90 days or less as a nonimmigrant visitor for business or pleasure without first obtaining a U.S. nonimmigrant visa. Several countries throughout Asia and Europe are eligible for the Visa Waiver Program. For detailed information, please visit the U.S. Department of Homeland Security website at www.travel.state.gov/visa/temp/without/without_1990.html. Once you secure a visa, several airlines offer flight options to Guam including United Airlines, China Airlines, Eva Air, Delta Airlines, Jin Air, Korean Air, Jeju Air, Philippine Airlines, Dynamic Airways to name a few. Only a five-hour flight or less from most Asian cities, Guam is quickly becoming a destination of choice for visitors from Japan, Korea, Taiwan, Hong Kong, mainland China, the Philippines, Russia and other surrounding markets.

With more than 9,450 rooms, Guam has everything to offer from ocean-view villas to standard rooms to presidential suites within walking distance to the Tumon Bay Marine Preserve's sparkling waters, Underwater World aquarium, outstanding shops, international dining, and activities like scuba diving, jet skiing, kayaking, snorkeling, and even a Las Vegas style show at the SandCastle. The variety of hotel selections in Guam range from global hotel chains, including Hilton Guam Resort & Spa, Westin Resort Guam, Lotte Hotel Guam, Hyatt Regency Guam, Sheraton Laguna Guam Resort, and Days Inn, as well as trusted names specific to the Asia Pacific like Outrigger Guam Resort and Pacific Islands Club. Each hotel offers concierge service that can arrange optional tours for guests, helping them to explore beyond Tumon to the luscious jungle terrain, waterfall valleys, and authentic Chamorro culture of Guam.

THOUSANDS OF ROOMS – WITH AN OCEAN VIEW.

The resort district of Tumon offers more than 20 hotels with meeting space capabilities and a premiere banquet style meeting space within a short walk from some of the world's most beautiful beaches, luxury high-end shopping centers, and a variety of dining choices offering award-winning American, authentic Japanese, Thai, Korean, Chinese, European, and fusion cuisine. Other venues including the expansive LeoPalace Resort, the Phoenix Center at Father Duenas Memorial School, University of Guam Field House and facilities within the Guam Department of Parks & Recreation that offer options a bit farther from the island's tourism center. Whether you're planning an intimate meeting of executives, a lavish incentive trip for loyal employees, a conference, or a subject-specific seminar, Guam has a number of venue choices to serve your needs. Guests can experience the pristine ocean environment, luxury spas, and their choice of entertainment – many of times with just a pair of walking shoes. When it comes to our island, how you enjoy it is all up to you.

BOARD ROOMS TO BANQUET HALLS

FROM WORK TO PLAY

Meeting adjourned – What next? Spoil your guests with world-class spa treatments, a hike to a serene waterfall valley, a day at the waterpark, or 18 holes at their choice of seven golf courses, each offering breathtaking ocean views from courses designed by golf legends Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus. Get up close and personal with the pristine ocean, visit Underwater World aquarium or dive at any of Guam's famous scuba sites – including World War I and II shipwrecks, and a natural phenomena like the Blue Hole. Visit Gef Pa'go Historical Village in Inarajan to learn about the island's Chamorro culture or hop on a tour bus for scenic views of the largest island in Micronesia. And, don't forget the outstanding shopping destinations! Enjoy a full range of shopping from Guam Premier Outlets, Micronesia Mall, and Agana Shopping Center, to luxury brand boutiques like T-Galleria, The Plaza, and Tumon Sands Plaza. The possibilities are endless.

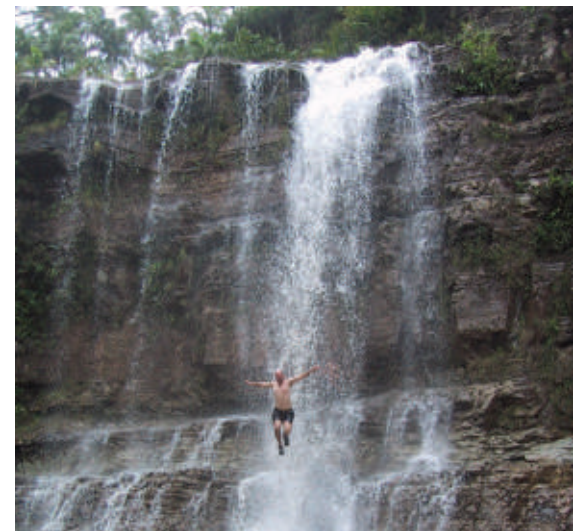

EXPLORE YOUR OPTIONS

Dive into Guam's pristine underwater environment at any of the island's dive sites, from unspoiled reefs to historic WWII wrecks, our warm waters attract scuba enthusiasts year-round.

Your hotel's concierge may contact a tour operator to take your group on a tour of the island – from the green terrain of the south to the north's Two Lovers Point and all the WWII sites in between.

Walk the newly built Hagåtña Heritage Trail as it winds through the island's capital city to learn about Guam's WWII, Spanish and ancient Chamorro era. An experience you won't get anywhere else.

Marvel at the island's pristine underwater life without getting wet by visiting Fisheye Marine Park and Underwater Observatory in Piti village. Watch a number of scuba divers and snorkelers feed the abundant fish life.

Luxury spas operate in most of Guam's hotels and independently in Tumon. Indulge yourself with a massage, facial, or other beauty techniques, and feel the stress melt away.

Boonie stomping, as the locals call it, is to explore the unspoiled beauty of Guam's inner lush terrains that many people do not see. Trek to a waterfall, swim in a freshwater cave, or hike Mount Lamlam, Guam's highest point.

The SandCastle dinner and cocktail show in the heart of Tumon is the island's own Las Vegas-style dinner show. Enjoy a great dinner as acrobats and magicians enchant you with their unusual talents.

Take your pick at one of seven golf courses on Guam – or just play all of them. Captivating views circle each of the island's courses, designed by golf legends Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer.

Hop the Cocos Island Ferry in Merizo, on the island's south side, to explore a private beach complete with water activities and a buffet lunch. Swim in the clear waters for an afternoon away.

Guam is renowned for its turquoise lagoons, deep-sea currents and water clarity. Take your pick of snorkeling, jet skiing, kayaking, parasailing, or canoeing.

Chances are you won't see another sunset like the ones you'll see on Guam. Enjoy the view from your choice of sunset dinner cruises, a favorite among island visitors and locals.

Explore the Chamorro culture at any of the traditional island village fiestas or at Gef Pa'go Historical Village in the village of Inarajan. Bake bread in a traditional Chamorro oven or try your hand at coconut palm weaving.

RELAX – LET THE PROS HANDLE IT

Even before you arrive on our island, qualified event planners both on Guam and in surrounding international markets can set plans in motion to make your event a success. Whether it be an intimate board meeting, a large-scale convention, your wedding day, or a special sporting event, our island has the experts to help you plan. Leave the details to a qualified event planner so you can dedicate your time to exploring the beauty that our island has to offer.
