Gulf County, Florida

DAY 1

Upon your arrival make the stop at Duren's Piggly Wiggly to stock up on your vacation snacks. Check-in at your cozy Port Cottage in Port St. Joe, Florida. Call Scallop Cove and rent a couple of kayaks for your adventure on St. Joseph Bay tomorrow. Let them know that you would like to utilize the kayaks at St. Joseph Peninsula State Park. Walk a few steps to Historic Reid Avenue where you have an abundance of shops and restaurants. You can enjoy a nice low-key dinner at Joe Mama's Wood Fired Pizza. They have a great selection of craft beers. After dinner, find a tasty treat at Shoobie's Ice Cream. All of the locally made gelato creations have been named after the area. Be sure to let us know which one is your favorite.

DAY 2

Get up early and wake up your taste buds with a hearty breakfast at Sand Dollar Café. It is within walking distance of your cottage. Head out to Cape San Blas to board your kayaks for a day on the water. Don't forget to stop off at Cape Trading Post to pick up a few snacks for lunch. Kayaking all day might have you wanting to relax for the evening. What better way to unwind than a bonfire and dinner on the beach? You can stop in at the Trading Post and pick up Hunt's Brother's Pizza and a growler from Scallop Cove to wash it down with.

DAY 3

Pack your beach bag along with a cooler for lunch and head out for some fun. Stop by Salinas Bayside Park to have lunch with a view of St. Joseph Bay. You can choose to dine in one of the pavilions available or walk out on the dock and dangle your feet over the side. After lunch, head towards Cape San Blas to Cape Palms Park where you can enjoy the beach and do a little fishing. Enjoy your day! Can't leave without getting some yummy seafood for dinner. Once you get back to your cottage after your beach day, you can leisurely stroll across the street to Uptown Raw Bar.
