Tenderloin

TRAIL™

THE ORIGINAL TENDERLOIN TRAIL™

is the tastiest trail in Hamilton County. Some like it breaded and fried. Others like it grilled.

“The Hoosier State does pork tenderloin better than anyone. And if you don’t believe that statement, you will after journeying along the Tenderloin Trail™.”

— EMILY HINES, Far & Wide

Whichever way you prefer, you’ll have more than 50 restaurants ready to serve up this Hoosier specialty that is often as big as your plate! Look for the TT symbol with restaurant listings or visit TenderloinTrail.com for a complete list. Popular Tenderloin Tuesday™ deals return every summer in July at participating restaurants.

“My favorite tenderloin – especially on Tenderloin Tuesday! And the chicken velvet soup is awesome! Great lunch specials during the week.”

A man with short dark hair, wearing a light blue long-sleeved shirt, is seen from behind, sitting on a wooden park bench. He is looking towards a blurred background of a park or public square. In the background, there is a pool table with a red and white striped top, and several other people are walking around. A large, stylized white outline of the word "Carmel" is superimposed over the top half of the image.

VIBRANT. INNOVATIVE. FORWARD-THINKING. EVER-CHANGING.

This list isn't describing a Fortune 500 company; rather, a place that has transformed from town to thriving city

"The living history museum recreates life 19th-century life on Indiana's White River, so it's an ideal place for those fascinated by the old timey agrarian lifestyle to plight your troth."

— TLCME.COM on Conner Prairie

in the blink of an eye. With the growth comes new places to eat, shop and explore for the visitor and the resident, like the brand-new Fishers District with restaurant accelerator, Fishers Test Kitchen, to develop rising chefs. A place that packs the house for weekday and weekend concerts under the stars at the newly renovated amphitheater in the Nickel Plate District. Grab a pint at the local brewery, sit back on the patio and listen to the music in the air. Rooted in history of early settlement, Fishers teaches its heritage to future generations at Conner Prairie, a Smithsonian Institute affiliate outdoor history museum. Kids' eyes light up when they embark on a tethered balloon voyage high in the sky or interact one-on-one with a pioneer who tells them about daily life in 1800s Indiana. Fishers is a place you can celebrate the past and welcome the future, all in one.

"Easily the best Mexican food I've had. This is not just well executed Tex-Mex. Rather, every dish seems like someone's specific creation. Everything I've had has been full of flavor and well executed. Plus a salsa bar!"

“HIPSTORIC.” It’s not technically a real word, but if you looked it up in the dictionary you’d find a photo of a charming town square, complete with red bricks lining the streets and assorted items. Interact with local artists creating in their studios and try it for yourself with a mini art project to go. And if you get hungry along the way, there’s great local dining steps away.

“Noblesville is a super cute town that feels like it’s straight out of a movie with its bustling town square, little shops and friendly residents.”

— TRAVEL BLOGGER KATHY HAAN, Idyllic Pursuit

Beyond the heart of the “hipstoric” city center is a tranquil space along the serene White River, where you can walk alongside the flowing water or hop in a kayak a magnificent courthouse capturing your attention. Fuel up with a hearty local breakfast and grab a cup of coffee to go to prepare for your day exploring downtown Noblesville. Pop in a local antique shop and see what you find amongst the shelves and racks of or canoe. End the evening rocking out to your favorite artist at a world-class outdoor concert amphitheater, Ruoff Music Center, and the sun sets on the perfect day in Noblesville.

WESTFIELD'S RISE TO PROMINENCE

as a youth sports capital has been a home run for the sports complex that welcomes thousands of athletes and families year-round, as well as the community. You're bound to hear the "...Rail takes the farm-to-table movement to a whole new level."

— TRAVEL BLOGGER ANGELA DANG on Rail, Dang Travelers

cheers and shouts of teams competing for glory at Grand Park—it's a massive, 400-acre campus after all. But perhaps the best Cinderella story isn't found on the field or the court, but in a city celebrated as a culinary destination attracting foodies far and wide. When a dilapidated red barn transformed into a magical farm-to-table dining experience, the rest was history, and exciting eateries followed suit.

Within a mile radius, you can savor mouthwatering barbecue, exquisite sushi, a hefty Indiana pork tenderloin sandwich, homemade ice cream, craft cocktails and more. Sports and food are a classic pairing, but Westfield is elevating both to new heights and knocking it out of the park.

MACGREGOR PARK
"Amazing gem in Westfield" Review from Westfield, IN June 18, 2018

"MacGregor Park is a hidden gem with amazing walking paths. In addition, the passive nature park is a great place to learn about conservation and the many natural resources we have in Indiana. I love all the signs along the paths with educating information. The family loves to walk there because it's shaded and fun and very natural."

RAIL RESTAURANT & BAR

Review from Linda B.
July 19, 2019

"We loved the choices on the menu, the fresh food, and the cozy restaurant! We shared the bread and whipped feta, which was delicious. I had a spinach salad, which was perfect on a hot day. My husband had the cottage pie... it was excellent evidenced by my fork accidentally ending up taking more than a few bites off his plate!"

Review from Jeremy S.

June 23, 2019

"Had a great experience and the food was good. Had nachos for an appetizer. For dinner I had the Cobb salad and my wife had the fish and chips. Both were really good and we will be back. Outdoor seating has a great view of the lake."
