

MAUI TEA FARM

1. MAUI TROPICAL PLANTATION

Take a narrated tram tour of this 60-acre working plantation. Learn about the origins and harvest techniques of Hawai'i's commercial fruit crops, including sugar cane, star fruits, bananas, coffee, macadamia nuts, papaya and more.

2. SURFING GOAT DAIRY

Visit this state-of-the-art, working goat dairy farm with over 25 cheeses (including 11 National Award winners!), truffles and soaps.

3. MAUI TEA FARM

Located en route to Haleakalā National Park, enjoy an hour-long guided walking tour of Hawai'i's first and only tea farm. Learn all about the cultivation of tea, followed by a tea tasting.

4. KULA COUNTRY FARMS

Pick strawberries (February through June) amidst breathtaking bi-coastal views at Kula Country Farms. In October, enjoy different colors and varieties of cooking pumpkins, mini-pumpkins, and squashes at their annual pumpkin patch.

5. ALI'I KULA LAVENDER

This aromatic farm spans over eight acres with more than 25,000 lavender plants in over 40 varieties. Take a self-guided or organized garden tour and find a unique lavender gift to bring home.
