

CONVENTION CENTER

Hawai'i Convention Center

State-of-the-art and with a strong sense of place

The centerpiece of Hawai'i's meetings market is the Hawai'i Convention Center (HCC). Situated in the heart of Honolulu within walking distance from the resort area of Waikiki, the HCC facilitates dynamic and effective programs with dual dimension: The spaces and services are sophisticated, and the ambiance embodies the essence of aloha. The facility is the winner of multiple Prime Site Awards—including the 2019 Venue Excellence Award from the International Association of Venue Managers (IAVM)—and consistently receives a satisfaction rating above 95 percent from its customers.

LOCATION

The HCC is just eight miles from Daniel K. Inouye International Airport (HNL), in prime position between the capital city's dynamic downtown and the world-class resorts lining Waikiki Beach. Its address? On Kalākaua Avenue, where some of the area's best shopping, dining, and entertainment options can be found. There are more than 30,000 guest rooms in varied price points located on the island of O'ahu. It's an easy walk to the center from many hotels for delegates participating in convention center events, but public bus service and a 690-vehicle, on-site parking garage are available too.

In close proximity to the center are many things to see and do: golf; ocean sports and outdoor activities; movie theaters and museums; family-friendly attractions such as the Waikiki Aquarium and Hawaii Children's Discovery Center; and hundreds of shopping and dining outlets, including those across the street at Ala Moana Center, the largest shopping center in the Pacific.

SPECS

There are 1.1 million square feet of total meeting space at the HCC, enough to accommodate groups of up to 13,000 attendees.

- 47 meeting rooms, including 10 with mountain views, terraces, or courtyards
- More than 204,000-square-foot divisible exhibit hall with drive-in access and 350 pounds-per-square-foot floor load capacity
- Two theaters with tiered seating
- 35,000-square-foot divisible ballroom
- 35,000-square-foot registration lobby
- On-site business center
- 2.5-acre landscaped rooftop events terrace

SENSE OF PLACE

The HCC's bold architecture and distinctly Hawai'i atmosphere give it a welcoming feeling unlike any other convention center in the world. The venue's open-air design brings the outdoors in with soft ocean breezes and plenty of natural lighting, keeping attendees relaxed, refreshed, and on point. Groups can gather in courtyards or on lānai (terraces), where they'll find fishponds, waterfalls, lush landscaping, and locally created artwork that create an ideal ambiance for casual conversations and effective networking opportunities. Food and beverages contribute to a Hawai'i state of mind, too. It's all prepared on site in the 20,000-square-foot production kitchen—one of the largest in the state—by a culinary team dedicated to the use of fresh, locally grown ingredients. Planners can customize menus with Hawai'i-inspired dishes and flavors for banquets, themed events, and even beverage breaks.
