WHAT'S NEW IN HAWAII FOR MEETINGS, CONVENTIONS & INCENTIVES

Aloha! With summer in full swing, the cool ocean breeze and warm rays of the island sunshine provide for the perfect atmosphere to visit Hawai'i. An abundance of updates and developments for meetings, conventions and incentive travel, complemented by unique group offerings and activities, make quarter three an exciting time to book and enjoy the Hawai'i sunshine.

ACCOMMODATIONS & MEETING VENUES

The Aston Aloha Beach Hotel underwent a major renovation on Kaua'i and officially re-opened as Hilton Garden Inn Kauai/Wailua Bay. Improvements have been made to the 216 guestrooms, lobby, meeting space of approximately 5,000 square feet, exteriors, fitness center, indoor pool and 24-hour business center. The beachfront property offers guests its signature elements, like Hilton's pressure-reducing "Garden Sleep System" bed, ergonomic desk chair, LCD high-definition, flat-screen television, work desk, a "hospitality center" featuring a mini refrigerator and Keurig single-cup coffee brewer in every guest room, and complimentary Wi-Fi internet access. HiltonGardenInnKauai.com

The largest Hilton Garden Inn in the world recently opened on O'ahu. The 623-room Hilton Garden Inn Waikiki Beach is now accepting reservations for stays from June 27 on. Situated in the dynamic hub of Waikīkī, the hotel is just two blocks from Waikīkī Beach and within walking distance of many of the resort area's most popular shopping, dining and entertainment attractions. TR Fire Grill, the hotel's chef-inspired American bistro, will serve a menu of seasonally inspired dishes crafted with locally sourced produce from Hawai'i's farms. HgiWaikikiBeach.com

Ka'anapali Beach Hotel is set majestically on a three-mile stretch of sandy beach along the sunny western shores of Maui, making it an ideal setting for a memorable Hawaiian experience. They will continue to enrich guests' experience through authentic cultural offerings with the official opening of their new water center, Hale Huaka'i. The Hale Huaka'i offers a Hawaiian perspective to several popular ocean activities such as surfing, stand up paddle boarding, snorkeling, conch shell blowing and more. KBHMaui.com

The Leahi Club Lounge at the Sheraton Waikiki on O'ahu is now available for group meetings or use as a private space. Perched 30 floors above Hawai'i's most famous beach, the Leahi Club Lounge is Hawai'i's first Sheraton Club Lounge and was named after the original Hawaiian name for Diamond Head as it overlooks Diamond Head, Waikīkī Beach, the ocean and island skyline. Nāmakanipaio Campground in Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park has reopened on the island of Hawai'i. Established in the 1960s, today the campground features drive-in campsites for tent camping, restrooms, showers, barbecues, and 10 rustic one-room A-frame cabins. The cabins feature bunk beds and can sleep four. The campground has a fresh light and open look during the day, Mauna Loa is again visible, and at night, campers can enjoy a wider view of the sky, illuminated by stars and the glow from the lava lake in Halema'uma'u Crater. The Jaggar Museum observation deck, the closest vantage point to this eruption site, is an easy half-mile hike from Nāmakanipaio. HawaiiVolcanoHouse.com

Travelers looking for a higher level of comfort and exclusiveness on Maui are able to give themselves the "suite escape" they deserve at The Westin Maui Resort & Spa. The resort's 553 newly renovated guest rooms and suites in the Ocean Tower feature brand new furnishings such as the Westin's famed Heavenly Bed, present in all rooms. The layers of comfort will make any guest count sheep as they rest peacefully amidst the soft island breeze. The pampering continues for those looking for a luxurious getaway within the resort's 29 suites that include Luxury Suites. As featured on ABC's television series The Bachelorette, these oceanfront suites offer multiple balconies to enjoy spectacular views of Maui's island sunsets, a spacious master bedroom and oversized bathroom.

At The Westin Maui Resort & Spa, meetings and incentive retreats encompass far more than learning and networking as its idyllic setting is most appealing for adventures on Maui such as snorkel and sunset cruises, golfing and exploring historic Lāhainā. Planners will find stimulating opportunities to design the perfect event, whether it is a team building scavenger hunt that takes them through the resort's botanical gardens with calming streams, waterfalls and koi ponds featuring wildlife such as flamingos or a local-style beachfront barbecue where the stunning sunsets are rivaled only by excellent sustainable cuisine. ACTIVITIES & ATTRACTIONS

When it comes to adventure, the Aloha Kauai Tours' Rainforest Tour has no comparison. With the combination of four wheel drive vehicles and hikes across the island's great rainforests, there's nothing that guests won't miss. Expert guides will lead the way as guests venture into the heart of Kaua'i. Along the trail, guests will witness many natural wonders such as the Opaeka'a Falls, Wailua Reservoir, or the Keahua Arboretum. There's no better way to discover the great history and culture of Hawai'i than this remarkable excursion. Don't worry about small rain showers, for ponchos and walking sticks are provided, as well as snacks, beverages, and backpacks. AlohaKauaiTours.com

Bishop Museum has announced their newest venture, the Hawai'i Monarchs Tour which began on June 1. The tour features a combination experiences on O'ahu including stops at the Bishop Museum and 'Iolani Palace, with lunch and transportation provided. The journey begins at 'Iolani Palace with captivating stories about the royal residents and how they lived, as guests are led through the first floor state rooms and second floor private quarters. Following lunch, guests travel further back in time and embrace the true spirit of the Hawaiian Islands as they journey through Bishop Museum's 3,900 exhibits. Here, visitors learn stories of the trials and triumphs of Hawai'i's Ali'i (royal class). Tours are offered weekly on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday and run through the day from 8 a.m. – 2:45 p.m.

Maui Ocean Center will conduct its annual Holomua Na Honu Turtle Release in mid-August 2016. Maui Ocean Center's turtles serve as educational ambassadors through Sea Life Park Hawai'i's Hawaiian Green Sea Turtle Educational Loan Program. The hatchlings are born at Sea Life Park Hawai'i and raised at Maui Ocean Center for two years until they are released. This provides a head start for hatchlings and allows guests to learn about this endangered species. Holomua Na Honu is a privately held event. Guests are encouraged to see the turtles before their release. MauiOceanCenter.com

MauiWine adds a new experience for wine enthusiasts. The King's Visit, available on Wednesdays and Thursdays at 4p.m., includes a tour of the winery, cellar and bottling line; an inside look and conversation on how MauiWine works with Maui's unique soil and weather to successfully grow its six varietals in Ulupalakua including syrah, malbec, grenache, viognier, chenin blanc and gewürztraminer. King's Visit also includes tastings of its small production and estate-grown wines with seasonal palate pairings for each wine. Private tours for two or more are also available. MauiWine.com

Outfitters Kaua'i offers a new "Kahuna Zipline Trek" tour. This course has a total of six lines. No beginner lines. This tour heads straight to the thrills of a take-off tower for two. Race side by side on tandem lines. Soar high above towering trees, through the forest canopy and high above rivers and waterfalls of Kaua'i. Take in the amazing views of Kīpū Ranch— 4,000 acres of beautiful diverse terrain with scenery made famous in movies like Jurassic Park, Pirates of the Caribbean, Indiana Jones, the Descendants and many more. The Ziplines are designed, built and operated according to the highest safety standards as set by the ACCT (Association for Challenge Course Technology). OutfittersKauai.com
