About the Art

On the cover and throughout the guide, you'll see pieces by Justin Patten, a local artist with a distinctive style and an interesting backstory.

Justin and his wife Rachel are the dynamic duo behind Storm Striker Art by Justin Patten LLC, their prolific locally based sports art company. Justin is the artist that creates the paintings and designs, and Rachel is the everything else, managing their family business. Together with sons, Lyle and Troy, the Pattens try to bring joy to sports fans and alumni everywhere through Justin's art. Pieces can be purchased through the etsy shop, or through stormstriker.com

In his work, Justin uses bold, energetic lines to invoke the excitement of the last moments of a sporting event.

Visit Hendricks County asked Justin and the Storm Striker team to contribute some of his unique, energetic art to our new guide. The results were even better than we'd hoped!

HENDRICKS COUNTY'S

Best-Kept Secrets

BREW LINK BREWPUB

If you enjoy unique hand-crafted beer and great food, you're going to love this Plainfield hangout. This veteran-owned business features more than 20 fun brew flavors on tap—Nuttercup and Pretty Pretty Awkward Milkshake are two popular favorites—along with delicious food and indoor/outdoor seating.

OINKING ACRES FARM RESCUE & SANCTUARY

Oinking Acres was born when a teenager made it her mission to debunk negative stigma surrounding potbellied pigs. The animal rescue provides a haven and potential forever homes for just about any farm animal.

Make an appointment and see how much good can come from one person's passion.

THE TIE DYE LAB

Both fun and therapeutic! Pick out a shirt, towel, hat or other item, then choose a few colors and a pattern. The friendly, helpful staff will guide you through every step of the process to make an amazing tie-dye creation. The best part is the reveal at the end. The second-best? They clean up the mess for you.

RED CURB IMPROV COMEDY THEATRE

If you love comedy, this is the place for you. Only available on the weekends, their improvised shows are interactive and fun. You and your friends will laugh until you're crying ...then laugh some more.

MCCLOUD NATURE PARK

This 232-acre property boasts a historic truss bridge, a huge boardwalk and observation deck overlooking a wetland habitat, 6.5 miles of trails, Big Walnut Creek, a live honey bee habitat, a Nature Center and more ...all free to explore.

RUSTED SILO SOUTHERN BBQ & BREWHOUSE

Simply put, this restaurant is where carnivores die and go to heaven. The owner and former Disney chef is an absolute guru at barbecuing ribs, chicken, brisket and more and pairing them with southern favorites.

It's even been ranked as best BBQ in the Indy region four years running by the Indianapolis Star.

AVON GARDENS

Enjoy this oasis of natural beauty spread over 5 acres. Visitors can purchase trees, shrubs, perennials and annuals, or simply enjoy the gorgeous display gardens to spark inspiration or dazzle their eyes. The display gardens also have become popular for weddings and other gatherings.

BREAD BASKET CAFE & BAKERY

This family-run cafe and bakery is nestled in a historic bungalow and features tasty cuisine crafted in-house with locally grown produce. You'll marvel at the variety of handcrafted breads, pies, cakes and more as you enjoy a full breakfast and lunch menu.

PERILLO'S PIZZERIA

This small-town favorite has perfected authentic Italian dishes prepared by the owner and head chef, who hails from Palermo, Italy. Try their delicious pizza, massive calzones or other madefresh-daily fare while enjoying a great dining atmosphere—both indoor and out on their patio.

WHO NORTH AMERICA

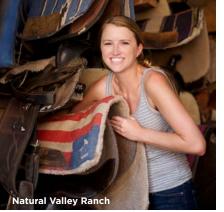

If you are a fan of the iconic British Sci-Fi TV show, Doctor Who, this is the best kept of all secrets in Central Indiana. This bucket-list destination boasts the only existing Doctor Who retail store and museum in North America.

PRESS PLAY GAMING LOUNGE

Play like the locals in this expansive indoor facility providing fun physical activity for every member of the family. Press Play offers multiple virtual reality booths, family pods, a 3-point basketball challenge, foam wars, a sports bar, party rooms and more.

HENDRICKS COUNTY RIB-FEST & BBO | Art by Justin Patter

There's always something new to do in Hendricks County! Our festivals and events will keep you busy all year long.

HENDRICKS COUNTY RIB-FEST & BBQ

LAST SATURDAY IN JUNE • HENDRICKS COUNTY 4-H FAIRGROUNDS, DANVILLE

One of the best events of the summer in Central Indiana occurs the last Saturday in June, when the Hendricks County Rib-Fest & BBQ takes over the Hendricks County 4-H Fairgrounds.

The event features music, not-for-profit vendor booths and lots of delicious food and drink. After dark comes a festive illumination of hot air balloons and fireworks.

The fun kicks off with the Rib-Run 5k in the morning and ends with fireworks in the evening. Don't forget to bring your blankets and chairs!

HEARTLAND APPLE FESTIVAL FIRST TWO WEEKENDS IN OCTOBER

BEASLEY'S ORCHARD, DANVILLE

The Heartland Apple Festival, one of the most popular fall festivals in Central Indiana, spans two weekends in October every year.

Attractions include live music, the Barnyard Bonanza family fun area, hayrides to the pumpkin patch, a fun (and challenging!) corn maze, apple cannons, wine tastings featuring Indiana wineries, a wide array of delicious food and high-quality arts and crafts vendors!

MAY 21-22 · BEASLEY'S ORCHARD, DANVILLE

Spend a weekend in the legendary fantasy realm at this magical two-day immersive experience. With four stages of music, entertainment and more featuring fairies, fantastical games, and activities for all ages. See a live unicorn, mermaids and shop at 50 unique vendors.

Ready for even more magic? The Central Indiana Fairy Trail has numerous location stops in Hendricks County. The trail allows families to explore new locations of enchanted fairy bliss throughout the year. Each location is adorned in all things tiny and fairylike, and is adored by the many people who have visited.

MAPLE SYRUP DAYS

FIRST TWO SATURDAYS IN MARCH

MCCLOUD NATURE PARK, NORTH SALEM

Ever wondered how maple syrup makes it from tree to table to tummy? At this event, held annually during the first two Saturdays in March, you'll see the entire process, from sap collection to pancake partnership; you can even tap a tree yourself! You can also learn how to identify trees in the winter and how Native Americans first made maple syrup.

100% pure McCloud Maple Syrup will be available to purchase, with all proceeds benefiting Hendricks County Parks.

HENDRICKS COUNTY 4-H FAIR

JULY 17-23 · HENDRICKS COUNTY 4-H FAIRGROUNDS, DANVILLE

Boasting one of the best fairground facilities in Central Indiana, the Hendricks County 4-H Fair provides everything you expect and more from a county fair.

Free shows, amazing fair food, farm animals on display, carnival rides and top-notch entertainment including the annual demolition derby make it a summer tradition that shouldn't be missed.

NORTH SALEM OLD FASHION DAYS

LABOR DAY WEEKEND . DOWNTOWN NORTH SALEM

North Salem Old Fashion Days will bring back all its old traditions—and introduce a few new ones—on a weekend full of food, fun and lively entertainment.

A smorgasbord breakfast kicks off the festival at 7 a.m. on Saturday at the United Methodist Church on Main Street. At 11 a.m., don't miss the Old Fashion Days Parade, the largest parade in Hendricks County. Bring a sack for the kiddos, because candy will be plentiful! Come early though, as parking tends to fill up fast.

With parades, a car show, truck pull, live entertainment, a pie contest and more, this festival has something for everyone.

Lucas Oil Indianapolis Raceway Park

NASCAR CAMPING WORLD TRUCK SERIES

JULY 29

Continuing a tradition which dates back to 1982, NASCAR is returning to Lucas Oil Indianapolis Raceway Park. The NASCAR Camping World Truck Series will race under the lights as future stars of stock car racing compete on the historic paved oval.

DODGE POWER BROKERS NHRA U.S. NATIONALS THURSDAY-MONDAY OF LABOR DAY WEEKEND

Like your car races short, fast and LOUD? Since 1961, Brownsburg has hosted the granddaddy of them all.

The largest and most prestigious event in drag racing draws professional and sport racers from across North America. It's the final race of the NHRA's regular season and sets the 10-driver field in each class for the six-race Countdown to the Championship.

Restauraunts

Homemade biscuits and gravy. Need we say more? Bread Basket Cafe & Bakery in Danville provides one of the best comfort foods ever invented, and they do it right!

The cinnamon roll French toast is out of this world, and their desserts don't disappoint, either...in fact, their homemade cakes, pies, cookies and other pastries might actually be the stars of the menu.

RUSTED SILO SOUTHERN BBQ & BREWHOUSE

@ @rustedsilo

What do Disney, southern barbecue and Lizton, IN, all have in common? Rob Ecker, the former EuroDisney chef who owns Rusted Silo Southern BBQ & Brewhouse.

BBQ with all the fixings is a beloved comfort food staple, and no one in Central Indiana does it better than Rusted Silo. Watch out, though: with all the available varieties spinning daily on their Ferris Wheel of Meat, you could end up in a meat coma if you're not careful.

But there seems to be just a little extra "comfort" in the comfort foods at these establishments... as long as you bring your stretchy pants. Join us as we tour some of our favorite spots—those places whose food brings light to the darkest of days and leaves you waddling around with a full belly and a smile on your face.

MAYBERRY CAFE

Fans of The Andy Griffith Show will love the Mayberry Cafe in Danville for the ambience and decor, while fans of comfort food will love the menu there.

Get started with some fried biscuits and apple butter, then dive into Aunt Bee's fried chicken, Ernest T's bacon Swiss burger, Andy's tenderloin or the chicken-fried chicken smothered in country gravy.

OASIS DINER

The Oasis Diner in Plainfield has a cool history as a survivor when every other original diner on the National Road disappeared, but it also serves some amazing comfort food.

Most people already know about its tenderloin, which is as outstanding as it is enormous. But some other comfort food favorites include their brunch burger, the Kansas City (loaded biscuits and gravy), and the Indianapolis (a country fried breakfast that includes a breathtaking amount of food).

THE MASON INN

One of Hendricks County's best-kept secrets—especially for comfort food—is Pittsboro's Mason Inn.

Don't mistake it for being just a bar. The Mason Inn makes outstanding tenderloins, excellent pizza, delicious wings and more.

@ @eatindywatchindie

PERILLO'S PIZZERIA

We love Italian food, so when genuine Italian Damiano Perillo cooks up some of his family's authentic recipes at Perillo's Pizzeria in North Salem, we couldn't leave it off our comfort food list.

They specialize in pizza, but offer a wide variety of other items too, including their massive calzones. If it's Italian food you're after, Damiano is your man and Perillo's is the place.

THE COACHMAN RESTAURANT & LOUNGE

Hendricks County's oldest independently owned and operated restaurant is a wonderful place to find comfort food.

Located in Plainfield, The Coachman's prime rib simply melts in your mouth. We also love their homemade baked lasagna, fettuccine alfredo and porterhouse pork chop.

ARBUCKLE ACRES TRAIL . BROWNSBURG

This paved trail in Arbuckle Acres Park, 200 N. Green St., provides hikers with an easy stroll through a 16-acre parcel of woods. The trail parallels White Lick Creek for a good distance before climbing uphill to a bend in the trail. The elevated bridge to cross the creek provides great views of the creek and lower area.

Length: Nearly a mile • Difficulty: Easy to moderate

AVON TOWN HALL PARK TRAIL . AVON

Featuring a 10-foot-wide paved trail that loops through Town Hall Park, 6570 E. U.S. 36, this trail offers a diverse mix of scenic and environmental views. Some of the highlights include a 9-acre lake, open space, woods and native Indiana prairie and wetlands. The trail is handicapaccessible and fun for all age groups and skill levels.

Length: 1.5 mile • Difficulty: Easy

BEAVER RIDGE TRAIL . SODALIS NATURE PARK, PLAINFIELD

This scenic trail offers hikers amazing views of a pristine wildlife refuge. The trail meanders through mature woodlands, providing views of a 5.5-acre pond below. The trail is flat, making it a favorite for trail hikers with limited mobility and has benches periodically to rest and relax.

Length: 0.6 mile • Difficulty: Easy

BLANTON WOODS . DANVILLE

This scenic path provides opportunities for both inexperienced and experienced hikers. This trail, 625 N. Washington St., boasts views of White Lick Creek and wildlife. Follow any of several trails to experience creek crossings, hill climbs, bird-watching podiums, bat houses, wildflowers and more.

Length: More than 4 miles • Difficulty: Moderate

BLUEBIRD TRAIL . AVON

Washington Township Park, 115 S. County Road 575 East, is home to numerous trails ranging in difficulty. However, the Bluebird Trail comes highly recommended due to its picturesque, leisurely stroll through the woods. This trail also provides easy access to some intermediate trails and the historic Iron Whipple Truss bridge built circa 1876.

Length: 0.13 miles • Difficulty: Easy

MAPLE RIDGE TRAIL •

WILLIAMS PARK, BROWNSBURG

The main section of this crushed stone trail in Williams Park, 940 S. Locust Lane, isn't rigorous though several secondary trails connected to it offer more of a challenge. The natural trails sit on 45 acres and provide a nice hike with elevation changes and ravines that lead to White Lick Creek.

Length: 2-3 miles including secondary trails • Difficulty: Moderate

B&O TRAIL • BROWNSBURG

The former railroad turned paved trail provides an easy hiking or biking experience.

This trail currently extends from Raceway Road west past Ronald Reagan Parkway and Ind. 267 to County Road 500 East in Brownsburg. Parking can be found at the Ind. 267 Trailhead. The trail will eventually extend 16 miles through Hendricks County.

Length: Nearly 9 miles • Difficulty: Easy

RED-TAILED RIDGE TRAIL • MCCLOUD NATURE PARK, NORTH SALEM

This trail offers hikers spectacular views as it passes over the centerpiece of McCloud Nature Park, its 100-yearold historic iron truss bridge over Big Walnut Creek. It then traverses mature woodlands and crosses through grasslands and prairies.

Length: 1.1 miles • Difficulty: Moderate

VANDALIA TRAIL . AMO & COATESVILLE

In a sense, Hendricks County has two trails in one along the former Vandalia Railroad, as the two sections do not actually link. A more newly paved portion of the Vandalia Trail extends from Amo to Coatesville. This portion tends to be popular for horseback riding, far away from the hustle and bustle of city life.

Length: About 3 miles • Difficulty: Easy to moderate

BLUE & RED TRAILS • BURNETT WOODS Nature preserve, Avon

This secluded preserve boasts two looped trails through a heavily wooded area, providing scenic views and all the wonder of Indiana nature, including various tree and wildflower species and wildlife.

Length: 1.5 miles • Difficulty: Easy

VANDALIA TRAIL . PLAINFIELD

Running from County Road 500 South to a trailhead at County Road 900 South, the paved Plainfield section has some nice spots, especially when it crosses White Lick Creek at Franklin Park, but it also runs behind subdivisions and businesses and crosses several busy streets.

Length: About 2 miles • Difficulty: Easy to moderate

WHITE LICK CREEK TRAIL . PLAINFIELD

Beginning at the Richard A. Carlucci Recreation & Aquatic Center, 651 Vestal Road, the White Lick Creek Trail is the centerpiece of Plainfield's trails system. This paved trail meanders south along White Lick Creek down to Hummel Park. At Friendship Gardens Park, the trail crosses over White Lick Creek on an old iron truss bridge that was relocated from southern Guilford Township.

Length: 6 miles or more • Difficulty: Easy to moderate

Spending a Day at the U.S. Nationals

BY LENA BURKUT | WAY 2 GOOD LIFE TRAVEL BLOG

With so many all-ages things to see and do, Lucas Oil Indianapolis Raceway Park in Hendricks County, Indiana, is one of the most family-friendly racecourses in the country. Sure, it's incredibly entertaining to watch cars take off on the drag strip, but it can be just as fun exploring outside the course, too!

The weekend of our visit—Labor Day weekend—Lucas Oil Indianapolis Raceway Park hosted The U.S. Nationals, the biggest drag racing event of the year. It did not disappoint. It's not every day you can get up close to a real racecar, score an autograph from a professional dragracer or hold a real race car part in your own hands.

Everything you could possibly want in a fun family weekend is here—mechanics take racecars apart right in front of your eyes, swapping out the bad parts for good ones and getting it back together and out on the course in the blink of an eye!

There are also plenty of trinkets for the kids: posters, t-shirts, hats and any number of other little souvenirs... so many things that'll become long-lasting memories of this exciting time and place. Little adventure-seekers (my 9-year-old son was one) even occasionally get a chance to sit in a real race car, a thrill-of-a-lifetime that I know he'll never forget!

As we continued through the pit area (a ticket is also a pit pass at this event—a great value that's not always the case at other tracks) and out onto the wider grounds, we noticed something different about the atmosphere at the U.S. Nationals. It felt more like a big all-ages party than a sporting event—the enormous parking lot seemed like backstage at a rock concert and a festival grounds at the same time.

Here and there, race cars were tucked away in trailers—some quietly waiting for the next day while teams of mechanics worked feverishly on others. Groups of nearby people were grilling, laughing and drinking... just having a blast.

The air was charged with an excitement and urgency that I knew would become a cherished family memory. It felt like we scored a backstage pass to observe racers, crews, and families living the race-course life. And everything so close we could reach out and touch it—a far, far cry from watching it all through a screen.

Later in the day, when it started getting dark, we made our way back to the bleachers just in time to see another pair of dragsters explode off the line. Flames shot out of the exhaust pipes, lighting up the sky, and ZOOM—they were on the other side of the course almost before you could blink. What a rush!

The U.S. Nationals at Lucas Oil Indianapolis Raceway
Park in Brownsburg, Indiana is a big, raucous, familyfriendly party, perfect for making memories that'll last a lifetime. It seems like an ideal father-son trip, and I would like my boys to come back here next year.

If you come, bring your family, your sense of adventure... and some noise-canceling headphones, because those cars are LOUD. What an exciting time!

Lena Burkut is a busy mom of three, always looking for something new to do with her family.

An iconic, 267-acre racing mecca continues to provide thrills and chills for race fans throughout Indiana's racing season (April-October).

Lucas Oil Indianapolis Raceway Park boasts a .686-mile paved oval and Lucas Oil Indianapolis Raceway Park boasts a .686-mile paved oval and a quarter-mile drag strip that hosts one of the most iconic drag-racing events in the world on Labor Day Weekend—the U.S. Nationals.

But this complex's history and grandeur goes well beyond one event.

Many locals don't even know that the track sets aside one evening each week during race season to let anyone race their street-legal vehicles down the same legendary drag strip as some of the greats.

Known as Wild Wednesdays, this popular weekly event allows participants to bring their own cars and compete for bragging rights.

RIDE-ALONG OR DRIVE A RACECAR

A handful of times each race season, the Rusty Wallace Driving Experience gives racing enthusiasts the opportunity to ride or drive a stock car around the oval track. You must check their schedule each season and reserve your spot in advance with various options including driving experiences from five to as many as 50 laps.

The track also hosts ride-along experiences on their drag strip once a year that can be purchased and reserved through Pure Speed Racing.

The activity at the track remains constant on both the oval and drag strip, with the number of events growing each year.

Feeder series, where some of the future greats earn their stripes—such as USAC, ARCA and CRA—host events annually. One of the largest automotive and music festivals in the country also calls this racing facility home, and its big, signature events are must-see attractions.

Here's just a few of the bigger events hosted at the track:

What do Hendricks County and fans of the iconic British Sci-Fi TV show Doctor Who (BBC One, 1963-89; 2005-present) have in common? Quite a bit, it turns out, because of the vision of one Camby man.

In 1998, Hoosier and Doctor Who superfan Keith Bradbury set out to provide stateside fans of the long-running series a resource for reasonably priced merchandise. 24 years later, his brainchild, Who North America in Camby, Indiana, owns the distinction of being the only Doctor Who store & museum in North America.

It's become a bucket-list destination for any self-respecting Whovian (what fans of the show call themselves) on the continent. One recent visitor came all the way from Hawaii—a granted birthday wish for a die-hard fan.

There's a lot to see when you step into Who North America. Like, A LOT. To help keep you from being overwhelmed, here's a couple highlights:

TARDIS

Upon entering, the first thing you'll likely see is the TARDIS (a time machine from the series that looks like a British police box and whose name is an acronym for Time and Relative Dimension In Space) greeting you at the front door. It's become one of the top photo spots in Hendricks County. Don't leave Who North America without getting a selfie next to the TARDIS.

MUSEUM TREASURE HUNT

For the most hardcore Whovians visiting Who North America, here's the ultimate challenge: on the museum side of the store, see if you can locate these items:

- The largest Dalek* cookie jar in the world
- Artificial snow from a 2017 Christmas episode
- A replica Lady Cassandra made by a customer for the show's 50th anniversary
- A rare Dalek* postage stamp sealed in a glass paperweight

*Daleks are the superintelligent robotic nemeses of Doctor Who. They look a little like mailboxes on wheels and have famously menacing mechanical voices.

GAME ROOM

Somewhat hidden between the museum and retail areas and behind the checkout area, you'll find a Doctor Who full-size pinball machine and Star Trek: Voyager arcade game for two players. Both are free to play.

MERCHANDISE

If you're a true fan, you'll think you've gone to Doctor Who heaven. Literally thousands of items can be found on the retail side of Who North America, including (but certainly not limited to): action figures, masks, games, clothing, books and virtually any other Doctor Who-related item imaginable. They even have sweets from the UK, including Jelly Babies and Jammie Dodgers.

Who North America is located at 8901 S. State Road 67 in Camby, Indiana.
