

Hendricks County Wedding Guide

VISIT HENDRICKSCOUNTY

Congratulations on your engagement!

Wedding planning can be one of the most exciting and happy times in your life. In Hendricks County, we love weddings and think your planning experience shouldn't be anything less than fantastic. We've compiled some of the top wedding vendors in the area to make the first steps of wedding planning as smooth as a satin wedding gown. Plus, hear from some of our favorite Hendricks County couples, like Rose and Matt.

Rose & Matt

September

In many ways, finding a venue for our wedding was the most stressful part of planning. Thanks to the team at Avon Gardens, we finally set a date and location for our wedding! But, we still had a ways to go.

Luckily, the Hendricks County Flyer's Just Married Wedding Expo happened the very next weekend. Visit Hendricks County was right at the entrance of the expo, so I started talking to them. I had no idea they could provide so much help to me for my wedding.

We strive to shop local when we can and wanted to use all local vendors for our wedding. Visit Hendricks County gave us this amazing guide with information on all sorts of vendors. It had every category of vendors, even the ones I didn't think of.

We had many guests traveling from out of town. Visit Hendricks County told us that events and other factors can cause hotels to fill up quickly, so they assisted us with setting up room blocks immediately. They also put together welcome bags for our guests so that their stay was extra special.

Since we planned our own wedding, we could use all the help we could get. And all this help was free! I'm incredibly thankful for the stress-free experience. Armed with the Visit Hendricks County Wedding Guide and what I learned at the wedding expo, we secured all the vendors we needed to make our day perfect.

We'll help you arrange hotel blocks, give you vendor referrals and provide your hotel guests a complimentary welcome bag. Let us join you and your future spouse on this exciting journey. We'll be there every step of the way. Keep this guide on hand while you're interviewing vendors and piecing together your perfect day.

5 Tips to Make a Big Impact on Your Wedding Day

By Erika Brown, Erika Brown Photography

Venue

Choose a venue that you love, but also is enjoyable for your guests. Make sure there is plenty of room for everyone on your guest list. Visit the location at the time of day you are planning your ceremony to see what it is like. Also, if you are planning to have your ceremony and reception in two different locations, keep the travel distance to 20 minutes or less.

Photographer

I am biased in this area, but that's why I do what I do. Wedding photographers have a passion for preserving wedding memories. So, make sure you find a photographer that you love. Look for someone who is experienced and comfortable photographing weddings. Their portfolio should reflect what you can expect to receive.

Decorations

Your decorations do almost as much to set the tone for the event as the venue. Flowers from a quality florist always make an event pop. You don't have to have flowers, though. We've seen centerpieces made from books and vintage serving ware. Get creative and put your own special spin on the décor.

DJ or Band

A quality DJ or band does more to help the experience of a wedding than you may imagine. Not only do they play music to entertain your guests, but they also keep the reception organized and moving well. DJs and bands each have their own style, so interview as many as you feel necessary until you find someone who is right for your wedding day.

Food and Cake

Serving your guests a great meal and an impressive cake is always fun. You can get really creative with it. You can have a dessert table with an assortment of pies, cakes or cookies. Your food can be anything from a plated, multi-course dinner to simple finger foods. Your guests will have fun if you fill them up. Just choose a quality caterer who knows food safety and how to handle food properly.

Close your eyes and imagine your first kiss as a married couple surrounded by loved ones. Maybe you see vibrant spring flowers in full bloom, or perhaps a rustic barn, romantically lit with leaves gently rustling in the autumn breeze. No matter your vision, Hendricks County has many venues that will bring it to life.

Hotels

Your friends, family and loved ones can't wait to celebrate your big day. But, before they can RSVP, they'll need to have a place to stay. Hendricks County boasts lots of accommodation options, from hotels to B&Bs to cabins.

Hotels can fill up fast during wedding season, holidays and events. Make sure to block rooms early, so your guests will have a place to stay when they come for the wedding. The Visit Hendricks County staff can help you save time by contacting local hotels for you to find room rates and the most appropriate block of rooms for your guests. If you book a Hendricks County lodging establishment, our helpful staff can also provide welcome bags for your guests filled with visitor information and other goodies. And we offer all of these services free of charge!

You may also need accommodations for you and your spouse, and we can help with that, too. Many of our hotels have romantic, cozy suites that would be the perfect place to spend your wedding night.

Photo booths help loosen your guests up, give them an activity to do when they need a break from dancing and leave them with a fun party favor. They will always remember your wedding night.

TOP TIP: ENTERTAINMENT 🎵

Entertainment for a wedding needs to be an all-encompassing element. Make sure that the person controlling the music can communicate with your guests as a master of ceremonies, read the room throughout the night, has experience in interactive elements and the talent to represent you both on your special day.

TOP TIP: FLORISTS

Start your search early. Florists have a busy wedding season and most will only take on so many weddings each weekend.

During the initial meeting, share your vision, likes, dislikes and expectations along with knowing the numbers of everything you are going to need.

“Our wedding could not have been more amazing. The perfect weather for our fall wedding made the barn that much more beautiful. Everything ran so smoothly thanks to all of our wonderful vendors. We loved celebrating in Hendricks County. It was far enough away from the city to get a rustic feel but still had all of the amenities of a big city wedding.”

TOP TIP: BRIDAL SHOWER 🎁

It was so helpful to have people who could help at the bridal shower, so I was free to enjoy my guests. Designate someone to go around and take pictures of your guests enjoying these gatherings. These events are where the people you're closest to come together to celebrate this beautiful next step in your life, and what a treasure it is to have pictures of all those people in one place.

“The red car belongs to my Papa. We call it the Dune Buggy and it was my dream to ride off in it from our wedding. I told Kaleb that he would need to take driving lessons with Papa, so he could learn how to drive it. Of course, even though he had several driving lessons, he could not get out of the gravel drive without killing it about six times! All the little things on our wedding day that were exactly how we wanted them to be, and even the parts that went wrong, made our day perfect.”
