Great Evening Vibe

We were visiting Hickory for a day. Already ate dinner somewhere else before we discovered this fun area to hangout. Lots of activity. A fun place to grab a beer or eat outdoors. Or just walk around.

Hilton Garden Inn Great Hotel, Location and Bar

We went to Hickory, NC for a show at the convention center. The Hotel is within walking distance of the center and very easy to find. They have ample parking and have a number of restaurants around the property. The bar was outstanding with indoor seating, bar, seating and a fire pit outside. The bartender was very good and friendly and the restaurant had a good menu and was affordable for a hotel. We checked in very quickly and had a room on the 6th floor. The staff was attentive and very professional. The hotel was very clean. We will stay there again.

Courtyard Amazing Rooms

We loved the rooms in this hotel. Being close to the furniture market, it had a great swanky appeal to its style. The front desk crew was extremely welcoming and made you feel right at home. It offers many options in the lounge for food and spirits, so you really don't need to leave if you'd rather stay in. The best part, was the best night sleep ever. The beds were amazing... we will be back!

Staying true to our roots, Hickory is crafting and creating epic adventures every day including outdoor concerts and festivals. THE FUTURE OF HICKORY

CREATING MOMENTUM

Hickory has a history of craftsmanship. Hickory's past and future prospects have drawn to this place people with an eye for detail and a hand for hard work, those with a passion for making something of themselves and of the future.

The regional hub of over 365,000 people for commerce and recreation, Hickory continues to evolve and reinvent itself, capturing the attention and affection of people and publications far beyond its borders. Hickory was recognized in 2018 by National Geographic Travel as one of the Best Small Cities in America and by Forbes Magazine for being ranked first in the nation for lowest business costs, at 25% below the U.S. average. Hickory is located between Charlotte and Asheville at the foot of the Blue Ridge Mountains, along I-40, where a collective spirit of craftsmanship strengthens any endeavor with detail, artistry, and quality.

As Hickory's bond program comes to fruition throughout the city, it is generating much excitement among residents and visitors while fueling economic development, growth, and job creation. The Hickory Trail will become a regional destination providing connectivity and unique experiences to enrich the quality of life in Hickory. With $90 million being invested into our community through the bond referendum and additionally secured federal and state grant funding, we're actively crafting a stronger, more vibrant future for Hickory and the greater metro region.

-Hank Guess
Mayor of Hickory NC

We are a community that celebrates our legacy, preserving a strong sense of place and honoring the traditions that inform our future.

HICKORY'S BOND PROJECTS SPUR GROWTH AND REVITALIZATION

In 2014, the City of Hickory's citizens passed a $40 million bond referendum, covering four major projects that are underway - Trivium Corporate Center, City Walk, Riverwalk, and Streetscapes & Gateways. These projects are spurring growth, development, and attracting visitors to Hickory. Throughout the process, leaders have worked with a 42-member Bond Implementation Commission to guide the projects and make recommendations to City Council. The City has been able to leverage those funds to secure an additional $50 million in grant funding to total $90 million. This enabled the City to extend the Hickory Trail to 10 miles, connecting different parts of the community with destinations and amenities.

With all of these projects being in design and construction now, Hickory has seen job growth, as well as new development happening throughout the City.

CITY WALK

Hickory's City Walk is a 10-foot-wide, multiuse path that will run approximately 1.7 miles through Downtown Hickory to 9th Street NW (in front of Deluxe Printing Group). The City Walk will connect destinations and amenities throughout the City, and be a catalyst for economic development and growth. An iconic bridge, featuring interwoven arches, and other highlights along the path include Lenoir-Rhyne University, the SALT Block, Hickory City Hall, One North Center, Book Walk, Union Square, and Lowes Foods City Park. The City Walk is expected to be completed by spring 2021.

RIVERWALK

The Catawba River is one of Hickory's most beautiful, natural assets. The Riverwalk will provide public access to Lake Hickory with a combination of waterfront and wooded trails. The Riverwalk will provide visitors with a variety of scenery and multiple vantage points to admire the beauty of Lake Hickory and the surrounding natural environments. Plans to renovate Rotary-Geitner Park to create the Deidra Lackey Memorial Park, featuring a Lake House for events, an outdoor amphitheater on the water, a conservatory, gardens, and trails.

The City of Conover began in the mid 1800's as a "Y" intersection of the railroad traversing North Carolina. Although originally called Wye Town, legend says the name Canova was adopted but transposed to Conover over several years. The City of Conover was chartered in 1876 and incorporated in 1877.

Through the years Conover has grown to house many local furniture manufacturers and now is home to the Manufacturing Solutions Center (MSC.) The Manufacturing Solutions Center has become an essential part of manufacturing and is a facility where innovative concepts can be brought to life. It's where products and prototypes are tested; manufacturing processes are fine-tuned and accurate cost and product studies are performed. All of these services are available to manufacturers to help them stay at the forefront of their industry.

Just down the street you will also find the Furniture Manufacturing Academy, which is a part of the local Catawba Valley Community College curriculum. Here they continue to train the Metro area in fine crafted skills like furniture upholstery, fabric and leather cutting and more. The academy houses a showroom on-site and allows tours planned in advance.

Conover offers a quaint downtown with live music, local shops, local dining and more.

For nearly 50 years, Rock Barn Country Club & Spa has been a place for members and guests to play, relax, dine, and live. With 36 holes of pristine, award winning golf, a full-service family-oriented club, and a newly renovated medical spa, Rock Barn's primary focus is on you and your family.

Today, some 110 singers blend their voices in harmony, brought together by a common devotion to musical excellence. The work of the Hickory Choral Society is a testament to the belief that each person, regardless of station, should be allowed to share the divine, universal gift of music and its immeasurable rewards.

HICKORY CRAWDADS BASEBALL

Fun at the Frans all summer long!

Season runs April-Labor Day!

Ribbon Cutting of LP Frans Stadium in 1993

The Crawdads arrived in Hickory in 1993 when Don Beaver, Luther Beaver, and Charles Young purchased the Gastonia Rangers and relocated the team to their hometown. Upon arrival in town, the owners held a contest to select the name of the baseball team. Nominations included the Hound Dogs and River Cats but ultimately the "Hickory Crawdads" found their home. Contests were also held to name the team mascot Conrad and his long time love interest, Candy. Conrad and Candy were married in an on-field ceremony during the 2018 season, which was the first mascot wedding in Minor League Baseball history.

The Crawdads have played at L.P. Frans Stadium since their inaugural season in 1993. The stadium was built on donated land and is named after the local Pepsi bottler, Lee Polk Frans, who partially funded the stadium's construction. The stadium has undergone several major renovation projects. The first round of renovations took place following the 2013 season and focused on fan experience while the second round was following the 2017 season and primarily focused on the playing area. Prior to the 2020 season, the playground and clubhouses were completely remodeled.

The 2021 season marks the 'Dads 13th year of affiliation with the Texas Rangers after being originally affiliated with the Chicago White Sox (1993-1998) and the Pittsburgh Pirates (1999-2008). In October 2017, the Rangers announced they had purchased the organization. Some notable Crawdads alumni that have since gone on to the Major Leagues include Magglio Ordonez, Jose Bautista, Carlos Lee, Andrew McCutchen, Joey Gallo and Jurickson Profar.

This year will also mark the team's first as a High-A affiliate. For their first 28 years the Crawdads were members of the Low-A South Atlantic League. The 'Dads are now members of the 12 team High-A East League and play teams from the Carolinas, Kentucky, and the Northeast.

The 'Dads play 60 home games a season and pack a promotional schedule full of giveaways, movie tributes, dog days, food and drink specials, and post-game Christian concerts. The Crawdads also shoot fireworks following every Friday night home game!

2013 National League MVP Andrew McCutchen played for the Crawdads in 2016

Did you know For select games during the season the Crawdads take on the alternate identity of las Llamas de Hickory as part of Minor League Baseball's Copa de la Diversión initiative. The logo features a llama chewing on a furniture leg in a tribute to the Hickory Metro area which is known as the furniture capital of the world!

Today's Miracle of Hickory

The Hickory community has long been known for its resiliency, creativity, strength and determination, as is evidenced by its storied history. In the summer of 1944, without warning, a serious epidemic spread throughout the Catawba Valley region. When news disseminated throughout the community that hospitals in neighboring cities had already reached their full capacity, it became evident that new patients in the region would soon need a place to be treated. Residents and businessmen from all industries in Hickory quickly convened and launched a massive volunteer effort to respond immediately to this health crisis. They collectively came together with the help of the March of Dimes and the American Red Cross to build and staff an emergency hospital within just 54 hours. The hospital ended up treating over 500 patients, the majority of which were young children, and many lives were saved in the Catawba Valley region from the worst polio outbreak that had ever hit the United States. This remarkable achievement is commonly referred to as The Miracle of Hickory.

Taylor King and Huntington House fabric cutters use their advanced digital technologies to precisely cut out PPE mask panels ensuring the least amount of fabric waste.

When the Great Recession of 2008 made its way to Hickory, manufacturing was one of the hardest hit industries. The Hickory community, which is so rich and ingrained in furniture and textile manufacturing, needed to come together once again to rapidly resolve the challenges at hand. Furniture manufacturers discussed how they could quickly adapt their businesses in order to survive throughout this difficult time period. Some companies downsized to smaller operations while others merged with common partners and shared resources. Some completely shifted production strategies and others were forced to close completely. Many skilled furniture and textile craftsmen and industry veterans decided it was time to retire and others supplemented their income by utilizing their skills for side projects wherever they could. This created another challenge of educating and training the next generation in the time-honored traditions and skills of handcrafting high-quality furniture that has become synonymous with the Hickory area. As a result of this economic crisis, The Furniture Academy at Catawba Valley Community College was founded by several local multi-generational furniture manufacturers in partnership with the local community college. Their proactive vision was to create an industry-driven training program, which prepared students for open skilled positions by one of this region's largest employers - the furniture industry. Since its inception, students have been learning about all the different high-quality furniture processes and handcrafted techniques from highly experienced furniture craftsmen within the region. After graduation, these students are often hired by the same local furniture factories that have provided training to them along the way.

After the Great Recession of 2008, the furniture industry experienced several prosperous years of increased demand, production and growth. But most recently in 2020, our region faced yet another unprecedented challenge when the Coronavirus made its way into North Carolina. Early on, each state grappled with the reality of competing against the rest of the world for the exact same resources needed to combat the virus. It was the resiliency, strength and determination once again by the furniture and textile industries in our community, along with their creative spirit and strong partnerships that made it possible for them to completely pivot and adjust like they had done so many times before. Many North Carolina furniture and textile manufacturers utilized their seasoned skills and resources to retool their manufacturing facilities in order to produce large amounts of personal protective equipment (PPE) to distribute to all the selfless healthcare workers and front-line responders. We are so proud of our furniture manufacturers who stepped up to help save countless lives around the world through their tireless and resilient efforts to fight this unrivaled pandemic.

As the Hickory community and the furniture industry both continue to pivot and adjust to whatever lies ahead, the resiliency, creativity, strength and determination that has been such an instrumental part of our past will continue to reshape and define our future. We are so proud to be part of this remarkable community...Hickory Furniture Mart.

A FLAVORFUL HOSPITALITY LEGACY

Zack Cranford comes from a line of entrepreneurs, hospitality enthusiasts and good people. His family started a local chain of diner restaurants called Granny's Country Kitchen in 2003. Their love of people and good southern hospitality drove them to continuing this tradition and instilling in Zack a love for the industry but also a drive that shows in everything he does today.

Zack Cranford is a graduate of North Carolina State University with a degree in Accounting & Entrepreneurship. After finishing up his degree he moved back to the Hickory Metro area where he felt a calling to begin his journey in the local hospitality industry by opening Seventeen Twelve Spirits (Foothills Distillery, LLC.) He partnered with master distillers, including the late Tim Weaver, to learn the processes and thus began the production of North Carolina's first bourbon since prohibition. Zack and his team have gone on to produce bourbon, moonshine and whiskey from their Conover, North Carolina location, a small warehouse that smells of wooden barrels, whiskey and locally sourced corn and grains. Seventeen Twelve Spirits is now being sold in stores throughout North Carolina, Michigan and D.C.

Not slowing his entrepreneurial spirit down, he then began ramping up a design for Hickory's first Raw and Seafood bar. The Standard Oyster is located in Viewmont right next to a location of Granny's Country Kitchen. The vibe at "Standard" is exceptionally chill but maintaining a great unique date night atmosphere. With all seating being located at the "Bar" you have a feeling of being connected to the space and the Standard team. The oysters and catch of the day are always fresh and from locations all along the East Coast and beyond. The oyster collection rotates daily based on the daily fresh orders but usually contains some from Harker's Island, Olde Salts, Blue Points and more, all the salty favorites.

Always looking for his next great adventure in the local hospitality field, Zack took on his newest endeavor in revamping Hickory's, oldest and best loved Steakhouse, The Charolais. Known for its "Cheer's" like atmosphere, specialty "Bubba" steak seasoning and an extensive salad bar; the Charolais has always been a go to for special occasions, prom dates and tasty date nights. Zack put his spin and design on the space by renovating the location from floor to ceiling. The Charolais now boasts a large wine cellar (which landed them in a 2020 issue of Wine Spectator Magazine), a hand laid penny bar with cowhide bar stools and friendly faces who have welcomed guests for decades.

▲ Charolais

Cranford Hospitality is making a name for themselves in the Hickory Metro hospitality industry and the future is looking bright with possibilities of new projects on the horizon. Zack and family are also giving back to the hospitality community through his work with a new Hospitality Academy for the Hickory Metro area and his work through the COVID-19 pandemic in bringing more awareness to eating and supporting local.

▲ Standard Oyster Co.

"IT'S AN EXCITING TIME FOR THE HICKORY METRO COMMUNITY. OUR AREA IS TRANSITIONING FROM A CULINARY AFTERTHOUGHT INTO A DESTINATION AND WE'RE HONORED TO PLAY A SMALL PART. WE LOOK FORWARD TO WHAT THE FUTURE HOLDS."

Heaven, Between Two Buns

I grew up right down the road from this place, and visits were frequent. Now that I live in another state, I am only able to get some "Pool Room" food (nickname of the Cafe) when I'm in town. Anything you get in this place will be amazing. Everything from hamburgers "all the way", to hotdogs and breakfast sandwiches (yes, they even serve breakfast) is very tasty. It is one of those road-side diners that is worth all the grease in the world. If you happen to pass by the Cafe, you have to stop. Try a hamburger all the way, fries, and a sweet tea. Oh, and send me one too!

The Catawba River is named for the Catawba Native American Tribe which translates to "the people of the river." This area was their home for more than 12,000 years prior to European exploration. Now the Catawba River Valley is home to more than 2 million people who continue to utilize the river's many resources for needs such as power, food, and recreation. Catawba Valley Ale Trail focuses on the section of the river at Old Fort, where the river forms, to Lake Hickory. Each segment seems to have a different culture based on the surrounding landscape. The first section goes through the Foothills of North Carolina where small towns combine with mountain culture to create some amazing crafts, among these crafts is beer.

The area is home to many award-winning breweries that try to use as many local ingredients as possible and strive to give back to the earth and the river when able. Their connection to the land around them and their desire to do good in their community really sets these breweries apart from your standard watering hole and their delicious and creative beer makes visitors want to come back for more. We are so lucky to have these breweries in our region and hope you discover new, creative beverages while enjoying the atmosphere of the Catawba River Valley Region.

Fonta Flora Brewery near the Gorge is great

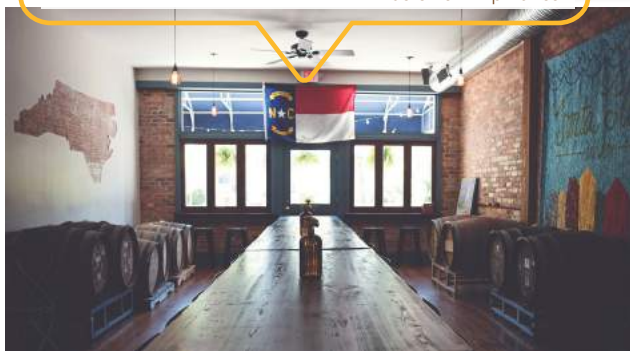

We hike the gorge a lot and since this brewery opened we love stopping here. The people are wonderful and fun, the beer is great. They are working to get food I believe by early August, a food truck. They need to have that to complete the experience, none-the-less, a great place.

The PROOF is in the POUR

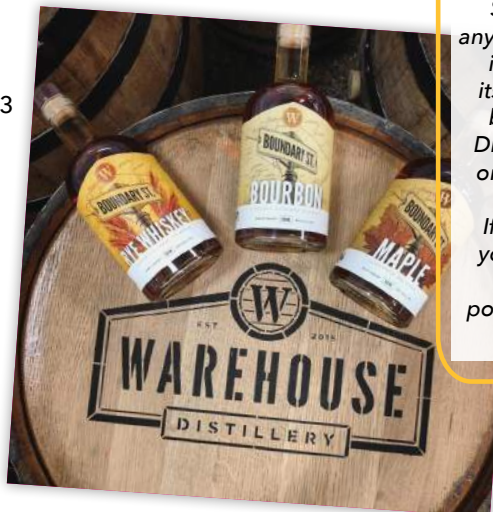

Whiskey, moonshine, rum and all spirits have different flavors and tastes but they all have one thing in common; a passion for craft. Each of our local distillers take the time to craft a unique and flavorful spirit, sourced locally for grains, corn, and other ingredients. Our distilling heritage started decades ago in hidden stills but has grown to become a proud part of our thriving metro area.

Absolutely phenomenal.

This is a new distillery in Newton on Northwest Boulevard. Given that it's fairly new, they don't seem to be open every day quite yet - they're currently open from Wednesday to Saturday, with additional appointments available on Saturday. Everyone working here is extremely nice, passionate, and knowledgeable - it's just a fun place to be.

The liquor here is absolutely phenomenal. The Boundary Street Whiskey is bright, fun, and easily better than anything at its price range. The Boundary Street Bourbon is smooth and tasty, to the point where I enjoy it on its own, even without ice. I was even more impressed by the Boundary Street Maple, which is Warehouse Distillery's whiskey flavored with maple syrup - it's not only is it delicious on its own, but it could easily make some amazing cocktails.

If you're in the market for good whiskey or bourbon, you really owe it to yourself to get it from Warehouse Distillery - it's way better than anything you could possibly find elsewhere, in North Carolina or otherwise.
