School Options + Assessments

Charter Schools + Public School Academies

Charter schools are privately funded public schools founded by teachers, parents, or community members, some also known as Public School Academies. Contact the Michigan Department of Education for more details.

Private Schools, Home Schooling

The public education system is complemented by non-public schools and home schooling.

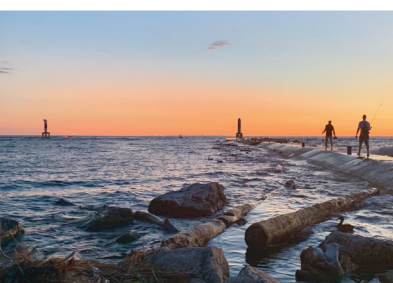

Schools of Choice

Schools of Choice programs offer students more enrollment options, including within their district or in other districts. Participation is optional, and details vary by district. Contact individual districts for more information.

Assessment + Testing

Michigan's assessment system measures student achievement for career and college readiness, including tests like the M-STEP and PSAT.
