

FEATURED BITE: Guava and Cheese Empanada

EVELYN GARCIA & HENRY LU

Shortly after watching Chef Evelyn Garcia dazzle viewers on the 19th season of Bravo TV's "Top Chef", the rising talent along with her business partner, Chef Henry Lu, opened Jūn in the trendy Houston neighborhood of The Heights.

Jūn's name serves as a dedication to family. The moniker, pronounced "June", is a nod to the month during which people near and dear to Garcia and Lu were born, and who they attribute the reason for the restaurant coming to fruition. It also doubles as Garcia's birth month.

With a sophisticated menu featuring "new Asian American food," patrons will find beautiful dishes weaved with flavors that stem from each of the chefs' diverse background.

To reserve your seat at Jūn or to view the restaurant's menu in its entirety, visit www.junbykin.com.
