

Easy Read: Accessible Day Out in Hull Museums Quarter

This guide helps you enjoy a full, fun and accessible day in Hull.

All places have step-free access, friendly staff and facilities for disabled visitors.

Arriving and Parking

You can use Blue Badge parking near all museums.

- Gandhi Way
- Alfred Gelder Street

You can also park at:

- Lowgate Car Park (5-minute walk)
- Osbourne Street Car Park
- Market Place Multistorey

If you need minibus parking, you can phone:

- Streetlife Museum: 01482 616 661
- Hull & East Riding Museum: 01482 613 867
- Wilberforce House: 01482 616 657

Morning Visit – Streetlife Museum

Streetlife Museum is all about transport.

You can:

- Walk down a 1940s street
- Ride a vintage tram
- See old cars, bikes and buses
- Explore engines and inventions

Accessibility

- Step-free entrance
- Lift to upstairs
- Wheelchair to borrow
- Accessible toilet
- Baby changing
- Assistance dogs welcome
- BSL talks and tours
- Some areas have low lighting
- Part of the floor is cobbled what3words: ///keep.cage.magic

Late Morning – Hull & East Riding Museum

See 235 million years of history!

You can:

- Meet a giant mammoth
- Walk through an Iron Age village
- See Roman mosaics
- Explore Saxon and medieval objects

Accessibility

- Step-free access
- Two lifts
- Wheelchair to borrow
- Accessible toilet
- Baby changing
- Assistance dogs welcome
- BSL talks and tours
- Some darker galleries

what3words: ///voted.moment.kings

Lunchtime – Food Choices

Trinity Market

- Easy access
- Big open food hall
- Food from around the world
- Friendly for wheelchair users
- Changing Places

Afternoon Visit The Deep

Hull's famous aquarium with sharks, penguins and more.

Accessibility at The Deep

- Accessible entrance
- Wheelchairs, scooters and walking aids to borrow
- Sensory packs
- Quiet spaces
- Changing Places toilet
- Sunflower Scheme friendly
- Assistance and emotional support dogs welcome

Booking is recommended: 01482 381000

End Your Day – Humber Street & Marina

Finish with:

- Accessible shopping on Humber Street
- Level-access cafés and independent shops
- Wide flat paths
- Plenty of seating
- Peaceful marina views

Need a Taxi?

Wheelchair-accessible taxis: 01482 473 235