Madison, Alabama

As Alabama's fastest growing city, Madison maintains its small town appeal. Centrally located in North Alabama, Madison is known for its quaint downtown, high quality of life, festivals, and convenience to attractions and family fun.

TOWN MADISON

Town Madison is a 563-acre modern, walkable, urban community that creates connectivity, community, and a cultural experience unique in North Alabama. Town Madison provides a new experience for living, shopping, working, dining, and entertainment, connecting people with their environment in a more meaningful way than traditional developments.

OUTDOOR RECREATION

Over 30 beautiful parks including Mill Creek Greenway, Mill Creek Dog Park, Indian Creek Greenway, Rainbow Mountain Preserve, Dublin Park, Insanity Complex, Kid's Kingdom Playground, Palmer Park, Bradford Creek Greenway, and more. Plus, catch the Rocket City Trash Pandas at Toyota Field.

FESTIVALS & EVENTS

Enjoy a day of food, entertainment, arts, crafts, & games during the Madison Street Festival in October. Kick back at the annual Parrots of the Caribbean summer festival, participate in the city's 5k/10k run, stroll through historic homes of Madison on free walking tours every spring, or visit the weekly farmer's market.

DINING & SHOPPING

Enjoy a little history as you sit down for lunch at Main Street Cafe, previously home to the old Madison City Hall, shop in our historic downtown, visit one of our three craft breweries, or shop and dine along County Line Road and Highway 72 or in Town Madison.

Come downtown for the Trains On Main Scavenger Hunt! For more information please visit trainsonmain.com
