

hello Huntsville

Here in the South, we love to tell a good story. From putting man on the moon and now to Mars, history is still being made in Huntsville. Let us help you tell our story.

DID YOU KNOW? Huntsville has...

- the nickname "Rocket City" for our role in helping put humankind on the moon
- the U.S. Space & Rocket Center, home to Space Camp®
- the largest collection of antebellum homes in the state of Alabama
- Monte Sano Mountain and thousands of acres of green space just minutes from the heart of downtown
- the second largest research and technology park in the U.S. at Cummings Research Park
- over 3 million visitors annually in Huntsville/Madison County

The 2018 American Girl® Girl of the Year™ is Luciana Vega, the best-selling Girl of the Year™ to date whose storyline highlights her journey to Space Camp® in Huntsville

The world's largest working jukebox is outside A.M. Booth's Lumberyard, where passersby can listen to it play musical hits recorded in Alabama

Downtown Huntsville has a Craft Beer Trail and Craft Coffee Trail – set trail cards help you embark on your beverage quest with prizes at the end

Several celebrities have experienced Space Camp, including the Olsen twins, Charlize Theron, Ozzy Osbourne, Chelsea Clinton, and others

STE(A)M Capital of the South

A mixture of high-tech cool and southern culture, Huntsville brings art and science together in one sublime city.

Fly Direct to HSV
from 10 Cities

U.S. Space & Rocket Center

Earth's largest spaceflight museum & home to world-renowned Space Camp®

Huntsville Botanical Garden

Home to the nation's largest, open-air butterfly house

Campus No 805

An old school turned into the ultimate adult playground with beer, axe-throwing, and more

Huntsville Museum of Art

See one of the largest collections of art by American women in the Sellars Collection

Downtown Huntsville

Built on a series of underground caves, astronaut Alan Shepard's footprints can be found in the sidewalk here

Alabama Constitution Hall Park

Living history museum and the site where Alabama's state constitution was signed in 1819

Historic Huntsville Depot

Oldest railroad depot in the state where Civil War-era graffiti can still be seen on the walls

EarlyWorks Children's Museum

Hear a story from a talking tree, sail on a steamboat, and let the kids get hands-on with history

Weeden House Museum and Garden

The oldest house in the state functioning as a public museum

Burritt on the Mountain

Living history museum featuring the state's oldest intact log cabin

Lowes Mill ARTS & Entertainment

Largest, privately-owned arts facility in the United States