Option 4:

Half day tour-- Temple of Heaven $ Pearl Market

The Temple of Heaven

Although it was used as a place for worshipping the heaven by 22 emperors in ancient times, it is not turned into a public park, where a large number of local people do morning exercises. If you go there early, around 08:00 to 10:00 in the morning, you will see many people playing Tai Chi, practising Chinese Kung Fu or singing Peking Opera. You will also see various birds, because some old native of Beijing like to take a walk with their birds. To some extent, Temple of Heaven is the best place in the morning to get close to Beijingers.

Divine Music Administration

At that time, this was also a resort for the civilians to entertain themselves. Every year, the officials who accompanied the emperor to worship the heavens, would rent houses near the Divine Music Administration, thus making the area livelier. The Taoists planted many popular flowers and herbs. Drugstores were set up and they held a prosperous temple fair. Today you will have a chance to enjoy this wonderful music show in the Divine Music Administration.
