- We recommend contacting your respective consulate to obtain the specific requirements applicable to you, as we have observed that while general requirements remain consistent, there may be slight variations.

Stages of the Process

- Once the documentation is submitted, PROMTUR proceeds to prepare invitation letters and to inform the National Immigration Service and the respective consulates. PROMTUR may also support with an invitation letter.
- The participant attends their appointment at the consulate.
- The application is evaluated by the National Immigration Service and the National Security Council.
- The response is then sent directly by email from the consulate to the participants.

Nationalities with limitations (Cuba, China, Venezuela, India):*

- Some nationalities cannot schedule appointments on their own due to consular limitations.
- In these cases, PROMTUR can assist by arranging courtesy appointments for participants applying through the regular process.
- Appointment slots are typically shared approximately 2 weeks after the formal request to Immigration.
- It is recommended to submit applications at least 4 months prior to the event.
