Day Two: Cedar Breaks National Monument

MORNING

- Grab breakfast and your go-to caffeine fix at The Grind and a picnic lunch to-go from Bristlecone.
- Join other Shakespeare Festival patrons for a discussion of the previous night's plays at the Play Seminar.

AFTERNOON

- Take off for Cedar Breaks National Monument
  - Center Street in Cedar City becomes SR-14 going east. This scenic byway will take you through Cedar Canyon. Turn left at the junction with Hwy 148.
  - On the way stop at the Zion Scenic Overlook (mile marker 16) for incredible views.
- Hike at Cedar Breaks National Monument
  - Some of our favorite trails include: South Rim Trail (5 miles), Sunset Trail (2 miles), and Alpine Pond Loop (1 to 2 miles)

EVENING

- Grab dinner at Milt's Stagestop in Cedar Canyon. After returning to Cedar City, stop by IG Winery for drinks.

- Visit Brian Head for lunch and a scenic chairlift ride for incredible views. Fill the afternoon with Brian Head Resort summer activities or mountain biking.
  - WEEKENDS ONLY
  - The view from Brian Head Peak is amazing too!

- Catch a different theme at the nightly Greenshow at 7:10 pm before the next evening performance at 8:00 pm

Day Three: Cedar City to Home

MORNING

- Grab breakfast from The French Spot in downtown.
- Enjoy a Backstage Tour at 10 am with the Utah Shakespeare Festival team. Participants must be on time.

AFTERNOON

- Drive to the Parowan Gap to explore the past of Cedar City.
  - One of the largest collections of petroglyphs in the west, they are also some of the most accessible.
- Grab lunch in Historic Downtown. Explore the local shops and find vibrant murals as you wander.
- Attend an afternoon performance with the Utah Shakespeare Festival at 2 pm in downtown Cedar City
- Before packing up for the journey home, visit the Southern Utah Museum of Art and the Sculpture Gardens.
  - Admission for the Southern Utah Museum of Art is free
