

Why Irvine?

The Top 5 Reasons to Hold Your Meetings in Irvine

1

Convenient Location

Located in the center of Orange County, Irvine is just 45 miles south of Los Angeles and 90 miles north of San Diego.

Irvine is serviced by John Wayne/Orange County Airport (SNA), located minutes from the majority of Irvine's hotels. John Wayne/Orange County Airport offers non-stop flights to most of the country's largest metropolitan centers – including Atlanta, Chicago, Dallas/Ft. Worth, Denver, Detroit, Houston, Las Vegas, Minneapolis/St. Paul, Newark, Phoenix, Salt Lake City, San Francisco, Seattle, Vancouver, and more.

Irvine is easily accessible by car via Interstates 5 and 405. Once here, getting around is easy, as routes 73 and 55 can take you nearly everywhere in the area.

2

Hotels for Every Budget

Irvine boasts 22 hotels ranging from AAA three-diamond to economy with nearly 4,900 sleeping rooms and thousands of square feet of meeting space to accommodate 10 to 1,200 people.

3

Unique Off-site Venues

Beyond the more than 190,000 square feet of Irvine meeting space available at hotels, other unique meeting venues include: the Irvine Ranch Outdoor Education Center, Marconi Automotive Museum, Orange County Great Park, Pretend City Children's Museum, Strawberry Farms Golf Course, University of California, Irvine, and more, all encompassing more than one million square feet of space.

4

Diverse Dining Options

Irvine's restaurants allow you to plan memorable dinners and banquets at unique locations that range from casual to upscale. Irvine's international community means you can find culinary options of all kinds, from locally-grown organic produce to authentic Asian-inspired cuisine.

5

Close to Perfect Weather

Irvine averages 280+ sunny days a year! Temperatures range from highs between the mid 60s to mid 80s and lows from the 40s to 60s, with an annual high temperature of 72.7°F.

Ideal Meeting Location

One of the many reasons Irvine is such a great place to visit is its accessibility. Whether traveling by air, train, bus, or car, visitors can easily reach Irvine without the congestion one might experience in other major metropolitan centers.

By Air

John Wayne Airport (SNA), owned and operated by the County of Orange, is minutes from the majority of Irvine's hotels and is served by seven commercial and commuter airlines, including Alaska, American, Delta, Frontier, Southwest, United, and WestJet, offering over 20 non-stop flights. Many of the local hotels offer complimentary airport shuttle service. www.ocair.com

Several other airports in Southern California are also within easy driving distance of Irvine: Long Beach Airport (LGB): www.lgb.org – 23 miles. Los Angeles International Airport (LAX): www.lawa.org – 43 miles. Ontario International Airport (ONT): www.flyontario.com – 39 miles. San Diego International Airport (SAN): www.san.org – 84 miles.

By Car

Once in Irvine, getting around is easy because of the city's master-planned Orange County transportation street system, which minimizes congestion. Nearby Interstates 5 and 405, as well as Routes 73 and 55, can take you nearly everywhere in the area.

By Train

The Irvine Station offers Amtrak and Metrolink service and Orange County Transportation Authority (OCTA) bus service. Amtrak's Pacific Surfliner offers great service, style, and amenities as it travels the Southern California coast between San Luis Obispo and San Diego. A regional commuter train system, Metrolink trains run from Orange County to the Inland Empire, North San Diego, and Los Angeles.

The Irvine Station, located in the Irvine Spectrum Center area, offers a complimentary parking structure, restrooms, pay phones, ATM machines, food services, bike lockers, vending machines, information kiosks, newspaper stands, and ticket machines.
