

BIG STATE

At the corner of Irving Blvd. and Main Street, there once was a drug store called Big State Drugs. Here people could buy drug store items, and also sit at the counter for a hamburger and frosty shake. Today, this building is called Big State Fountain and Grill. Some things are still the same, like the big sign outside and the great food and shakes inside.