JACKSON HOLE FALL ARTS FESTIVAL

Welcome to the 41st Annual Jackson Hole Fall Arts Festival, where creativity, culture, and community come together in the nation's number one Most Arts-Vibrant Community, as ranked by SMU DataArts for the fifth consecutive year. From September 3 - 14, 2025, discover why Jackson Hole continues to attract art lovers from around the world.

This 12-day celebration showcases the incredible depth and diversity of our arts scene through an unforgettable lineup of signature events. Favorites such as the Jackson Hole QuickDraw, Western Visions Show & Sale at the National Museum of Wildlife Art, Palates and Palettes Art Walk, Jackson Hole Art Auction, Arts on the Green, and Sunday Art Brunch return to anchor the festival with their distinctive appeal. This year also brings exciting new additions including Wallpaper, a bold unframed art sale featuring local talent, and the Teton Village Art & Culinary Trail, offering a feast for all the senses.

Whether your passion lies in Western heritage, contemporary works, Native American artistry, or the rich flavors of our culinary scene, Fall Arts Festival offers more than 50 ways to connect with the best of Jackson Hole. Come experience what makes this place not just beautiful, but brilliantly inspired.

FEATURED ARTIST

GRAND FINALE COLT IDOL

60x50 Oil on Canvas

2025 Fall Arts Festival Featured Artist, Colt Idol brings a bold, cinematic vision of the American West to Jackson Hole. Raised in Montana, Colt developed his artistic passion and ability with the guidance of his father, Dick Idol. Colt exhibits his works in galleries and auctions throughout the western United States. He has shown his work at the National Museum of Wildlife Art's Western Visions® show and auction, and he is a familiar participant in the Jackson Hole QuickDraw. His Fall Arts Festival centerpiece, "Grand Finale," captures the Tetons ablaze in golden-hour light. Meet Colt in person at the Featured Artwork Poster Signing on September 10th at Mountain Trails Gallery. Experience his passion, and celebrate why Jackson Hole is the beating heart of Western art in America.
