2018 FEATURED ARTIST

DENNIS ZIEMIENSKI

Altamira Fine Art Size: 54x42 Medium: Oil on Linen

DENNIS ZIEMIENSKI

is an internationally known painter, illustrator and designer. His strong and richly colored images borrow much of their inspiration from early 20th century paintings and posters, which can be seen with this years Fall Arts Festival piece, "Teton Reflections" a 54x42 oil on linen.

Dennis has taught at the California College of Arts and Crafts and the Academy of Art in San Francisco. He has had studios in California and New York. Traveling to Europe frequently, Dennis has acquired an affinity for the architecture, lifestyle and light of the Mediterranean. His paintings have been in numerous one man and group exhibitions, winning many awards.

Churchill Downs selected Dennis as the Official Artist of the 2006 Kentucky Derby. Currently, Dennis is working on gallery shows, commissioned paintings, and murals.

Functional museum-quality creations capturing the spirit of the West

The Western Design Exhibit + Sale, the world's leading celebration and exhibition of Western furniture, fashion and accessories, returns to Jackson Hole, Wyoming, September 6-9, 2018, at the Snow King Center.

The only event of its kind – and a signature event of the annual Jackson Hole Fall Arts Festival – the Exhibit + Sale was created to spread the traditions of original Western runway format, accompanied by fabulous themes and great music. The captivating Western Design Art Auction precedes the Fashion Show, where guests bid on works by a select group of award winners from previous years. All proceeds benefit the contributing artist and the annual Artist Awards Funds. Each year over $20,000 is awarded for design excellence.

26TH ANNUAL WESTERN DESIGN EXHIBIT + SALE

design and develop a platform for artists to share their constantly evolving craft while giving patrons a way to celebrate, engage and purchase these art forms in a highly entertaining fashion.

Now in its 26th year, the Western Design Exhibit + Sale encompasses all aspects of the best of Western design. Allison Merritt, executive director of the WDC is thrilled to see the growth of the event and the support from artists, collectors and design enthusiasts. "The range of artistry and artisans is exploding and revealing the highest quality work in every genre. As we move forward we believe that not only will we be presenting new and innovative Western inspired art, much of it will be worthy of museum presentation. This is what keeps us on the cutting edge of presenting the finest American artists."

Opening Preview Party: Runway Fashion Show + Live Auction

The Opening Preview Party, a much-anticipated night for visitors and locals alike on Thursday, September 6, provides early entry into the Western Design Exhibit + Sale. This gala celebration begins at 6 p.m with an opportunity to shop and meet over 100 artists and designers. Guests view one-of-a-kind creations while sipping signature cocktails and enjoying gourmet bites by Genevieve Catering. A captivating addition this year is the Designer Show House where juried artists' creations and custom interior design come alive by integrating one-of-a- kind objects into a home environment. Attendees walk through professionally designed rooms. A highlight of the sold out evening is the always stunning Fashion Show. Designers' innovative couture collections are modeled in an intimate

Western Design Exhibit + Sale and Designer Show House

The celebration at the Snow King Center continues September 7-9, with the annual Western Design Exhibit + Sale, a three-day event showcasing museum-quality functional art, one-of-a-kind contemporary creations in furniture, fashion jewelry and home accessories by more than 100 Western-inspired artists. During the Exhibit + Sale you'll meet the artists whose handcrafted works in leather, metal, home accents, woodworking, mixed media, jewelry, and fashion will be showcased and available for purchase. The Designer Show House provides a creative venue for interior design firms to showcase their talent, giving the public the opportunity to better understand how to integrate custom objects into beautifully designed spaces.
