

Resources Available for Residents Affected by Government Shutdown

St. John's Episcopal Church	Help for individuals who cannot pay their utility bills	For more information, contact Liz Collins at 307.733.2603
One 22	Help families with financial assistance	For more information, contact 307.739.2603
Jackson Food Cupboard	Help with food assistance. Free-Food Fridays available as well. Donations welcome during this time	For more information, contact 307.699.2163
The Good Samaritan Mission	The Mission provides food boxes to families or individuals in need when the Jackson Cupboard is closed and also provides short-term housing for employed seasonal workers	For more information, contact 307.733.3165
Hole Food Rescue	Helps to reduce food waste by distributing excess food to organizations. They manage the JH Food Help website that lists all the locations for free or reduced meals in Jackson	For more information, visit http://www.jhfoodhelp.com/
The National Museum of Wildlife Art	Currently offering complimentary admission to furloughed government employees Offer valid until through Thursday, January 31, 2019. Government employees need valid ID	For more information, contact 307.733.5771
Meridian Trust	Offering 0% loans; $75 deposited into members' checking account for each missed payroll (two per month); assistance to members in paying their home heating bills; the waiving of early withdrawal fees on CDs for full or partial withdrawals of funds; the ability to skip loan payments; interest-only payments on loans; and other financial assistance	For more information, contact 1.800.726.5644

Our Lady of the Mountains Church	Offering community Lunch Program that is free to all. Monday - Friday they serve hot lunch at 12P.M. All Federal workers are welcome to attend	For more information, visit https://olmcatholic.org/
Habitat for Humanity Greater Teton Area	Offering volunteer opportunities for government employees at our ReStore and Construction Site--always a great time to give back	For more information, contact 307.734.0828 ext. 102
Jackson Whole Grocer	JWG Federal Worker Appreciation Program offering a no-interest line of credit up to $200/week + a 10% discount on purchases. No payments required until government reopens	For more information, contact customerservice@jacksonwholegrocer.com
Häagen-Dazs	If anyone is in need for a sweet treat - Stressed spelled backwards is Desserts! They will offer 50% off with valid government ID	For more information, contact 307.739.1880