

Stephan Abrams, The Liquor Store / JH Marketplace, Secretary

Jackson Hole is home for Stephan, who first came to our valley in 1999. As the owner of The Liquor Store (TLS) and Jackson Hole Marketplace, he enjoys leading creative work teams and motivating them to success each and every day. In addition to being highly knowledgeable in the wine, liquor and beer industry, Stephan thrives on close ties with friendly local customers, excellent staff, diverse vendors and dependable distributors. Raised in Brookhaven, MS, Stephan had dreamed of moving West since attending college at University of Alabama. Now that he's been in Jackson Hole for a while, his next dream was to become a family man. Stephan married his beautiful wife Laura in 2013, and they are now raising two small boys, Louis and William. There's no doubt Stephan has seen many changes in our area over the years, but one item always remains constant: his proud love of Wyoming. Serving our community is truly one of Stephan's greatest pleasures.
