

Zachariah Turpin, Jackson Hole Jewelry

Born in Jackson Hole, Zachariah's passion for travel was instilled from an early age. He spent his formative years living in some of North America's most beautiful resort destinations, including Santa Barbara, California; Telluride, Colorado; Vancouver, British Columbia; and Naples, Florida. After trekking further abroad to study in England, he married his wife Shari and moved back to Jackson Hole full time in 2010. Carrying on the family tradition of jewelry, Zachariah is a second-generation jeweler and jet setter. He continues to explore the world in pursuit of the perfect gems for his clients. As lead designer at Jackson Hole Jewelry Co, Zachariah's timeless pieces delight travelers and locals alike. Zachariah's love of adventure and philanthropy keep him actively involved in the community, serving as the chair of the St. Jude Moonlight on the Mountains Event, and on the Town Creak HOA Board, among other charitable endeavors.
