Jamaica is famous for many things – its people, culture, hospitality and natural beauty. What we are not as well known for is golf! That means you are in for a special treat. Not only does Jamaica boasts some of the best courses in the Caribbean but on most days, you'll have them all to yourself and your Caddy! Yes, Caddies are mandatory in Jamaica.

Our unique combination of rich British heritage, accommodating weather and spectacular terrain, all add up to arguably the best golfing experience you'll find anywhere. Whether you prefer the challenge of a championship course or a more relaxed country club atmosphere, you'll find both in Jamaica!

Cinnamon Hill Golf Club

Rose Hall, Montego Bay

(876) 953-9381 & www.cinnamonhillgolf.com

Designed by renowned golf architects Von Hagge, Smelek & Baril, this spectacular course plays from sea to 900 feet above sea level! No other course on the island has the rich historic pedigree of Cinnamon Hill. 18th century sugar mill ruins, aqueducts and stone walls run adorn its greens. Ask your Caddy about the famous mansion on the 19th hole!

White Witch Golf Club

Rose Hall, Montego Bay

(876) 632-7444 & www.whitewitchgolf.com

Named after the infamous folklore character Annie Palmer, the "White Witch" of Rose Hall, this magnificent course was opened in 2000. It sits on 600 acres of lush greenery, caressing the countryside of the once bustling 18th century Rose Hall sugar plantation. Noted for its spectacular views, the signature 17th hole was selected as the Shell's Wonderful World of Golf's signature hole for the fall 2000 television series. This par 3 plays from 130 to 161 yards and its tabletop green is fringed by sand traps!

Tryall Golf Club

Sandy Bay, Hanover

(876) 956-5660 & www.tryallclub.com

Nine holes by the sea and nine rolling holes in the hills, combine to offer both the expert and resort golfer the best combination of golfing challenge at Tryall. Located in an expansive luxury resort complex, this picturesque championship course was the home of the Johnnie Walker World Championships, for five consecutive years. Bask in its rolling fairways and devilish greens, just the way Texas architect Ralph Plummer intended, when it opened in 1960.
